Shakespearean Maternities Chris Laoutaris,2008-06-20 This study explores maternity in the disciplines of early modern England Placing the reproductive female body centre stage in Shakespeare's theatre Laoutaris ranges beyond the domestic sphere in order to recuperate the wider intellectual epistemological and archaeological significance of maternity to the Renaissance imagination Focusing on anatomy in Hamlet natural history in The Tempest demonology in Macbeth and heraldry in Antony and Cleopatra this book reveals the ways in which the maternal body was figured in and in turn contributed towards the re conceptualisation of bodies of knowledge Laoutaris argues that Shakespeare resists a monolithic concept of motherhood presenting instead a range of contested maternities which challenge the distinctive ways of knowing these early disciplines worked to impose on the order of created nature

Maps That

Made History Lez Smart,2005-04-30 Few people can resist the appeal of old maps and plans Even in these days of disposable mapping from satellite navigation to customized road directions at the click of a mouse the historical map continues to present a unique perspective on our changing world Here we explore 25 glorious examples The emphasis is on the story behind the map what it reveals about its creator and users from the first explorers to the railway builders This thought provoking collection features maps that chart societies as well as land sea and skies maps that have influenced and inspired and perhaps most revealing of all maps that misrepresent

The Da Vinci Globe Stefaan Missinne,2019-01-17 A chance discovery at a distinguished London map fair in 2012 by a Belgian globe collector produced the most unique of finds a distinct globe with mysterious images such as old ships sailors a volcano a hybrid monster pentimenti waving patterns conic individualised mountains curving rivers vigorous coastal lines chiaroscuro and an unresolved triangular anagram which remains an enigma The globe is hand engraved in great detail on ostrich egg shells from Pavia by a left handed Renaissance genius of unquestionable quality It shows secret knowledge of the map world from the time of Columbus Cabral Amerigo Vespucci and Leonardo da Vinci Central and North America are covered by a vast ocean The da Vinci globe originates from Florence and dates from 1504 It marks the first time ever that the names of countries such as Brazil Germania Arabia and

Judea have appeared on a globe A Leonardo drawing for this globe showing the coast of the New World and Africa has been discovered in the British Library This book brings the reader through a fabulous journey of scholars maps riddles rebuses iconographic symbols and enigmatic phrases such as HIC SVNT DRACONES to illuminate the da Vinci globe It details 500 years of mystery fine scholarship and expert forensic testing at numerous material science laboratories the world over The da Vinci globe now takes its rightful place surpassing the Lenox globe its copper cast identical twin as the most mysterious globe of our time As such this monograph is an essential text in Leonardo studies and in the history of cartography

Placenames Ian D. Clark,Luise Hercus,Laura Kostanski,2014-08-01 This book showcases current research into Indigenous and minority placenames in Australia and internationally Many of the chapters in this volume originated as papers at a Trends in Toponymy conference hosted by the University of Ballarat in 2007 that featured Australian and international speakers The chapters in this volume provide insight into the quality of toponymic research that is being undertaken in Australia and in countries such as Canada Finland South Africa New Zealand and Norway The research presented here draws on the disciplines of linguistics geography history and anthropology The book includes meticulous studies of placenames in central NSW and the Upper Hunter region Gundungurra cave names western Arnhem Land Northern Cape York Peninsula and Mount Wheeler in Queensland saltwater placenames around Mer in the Torres Strait and the Kurna in South Australia Rethinking Geographical Explorations in Extreme Environments Marco Armiero,Roberta Biasillo,Stefano Morosini,2022-07-14 Focusing on extreme environments from Umberto Nobile s expedition to the Arctic to the commercialization of Mt Everest this volume examines global environmental margins how they are conceived and how perceptions have changed Mountaintops and Arctic environments are the settings of social encounters political strategies individual enterprises geopolitical tensions decolonial practises and scientific experiments Concentrating on mountaineering and Arctic exploration between 1880 1960 contributors to this volume show how environmental marginalisation has been discursively implemented and materially generated by foreign and local actors It examines to what extent the status and identity of extreme environments has changed during modern times moving them from periphery to the centre and discarding their marginality The first section looks at ways in which societies have framed remoteness through the lens of commercialization colonialism knowledge production and sport while the second examines the reverse transfer focusing on how extreme nature has influenced societies through international network creation political consensus and identity building This collection enriches the historical understanding of exploration by adopting a critical approach and offering multidimensional and multi gaze reconstructions This book is essential reading for students and scholars interested in environmental history geography colonial studies and the environmental humanities Lost Land of the Dodo Anthony Cheke,Julian P. Hume,2009-01-01 The Mascarene islands in the southern Indian Ocean Mauritius Reunion and Rodrigues were once home to an extraordinary range of birds and reptiles Evolving on these isolated volcanic islands in the absence of mammalian predators or competitors the land was dominated by giant tortoises parrots skinks and geckos burrowing boas flightless rails the birds and tortoises were slaughtered indiscriminately while introduced rats cats pigs and monkeys destroyed their eggs the once extensive forests logged and invasive introduced plants from all over the tropics devastated the ecosystem The now familiar icon of extinction the Dodo was gone from Mauritius within 50 years of human settlement and over the next 150 years many of the Mascarenes other native vertebrates followed suit The product of over 30 years research by Anthony Cheke Lost Land of the Dodo provides a comprehensive yet hugely enjoyable account of the story of the islands changing ecology interspersed with human stories the islands biogeographical anomalies and much else Many French publications old and new especially for Reunion are discussed and referenced in English for the first time The book is richly illustrated with maps and contemporary illustrations of the animals and their environment many of which have rarely been reprinted before Illustrated box texts look in detail at each extinct vertebrate species while Julian Hume s superb colour plates bring many of the extinct birds to life Lost Land of the Dodo provides the definitive account of this tragic yet remarkable fauna and is a must read for anyone interested in islands their ecology and the history of our relationship with the world around us      Mappings Denis Cosgrove,1999-04 This book explores what mapping meant in the past and how its meanings have altered The authors investigate mappings of terrestrial space on a large scale mapping and localism personal mappings on and of the human body cosmographic or imaginary mappings beyond the scale of direct earthly experience

The Island of Lost Maps Miles Harvey,2010-10-06 The Island of Lost Maps tells the story of a curious crime spree the theft of scores of valuable centuries old maps from some of the most prominent research libraries in the United States and Canada The perpetrator was Gilbert Joseph Bland Jr an enigmatic antiques dealer from South Florida whose cross country slash and dash operation had gone virtually undetected until he was caught in 1995 and was unmasked as the most prolific American map thief in history As Miles Harvey unravels the mystery of Bland s life he maps out the world of cartography and cartographic crime weaving together a fascinating story of exploration craftsmanship villainy and the lure of the unknown

Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing New Found Lands Maps In The History Of Exploration books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for New Found Lands Maps In The History Of Exploration books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, New Found Lands Maps In The History Of Exploration books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of New Found Lands Maps In The History Of Exploration books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?
