The first full length study of this beloved children s series The Chalet School in the Twentieth Century moves beyond the largely generic analysis within which it has previously been discussed Published between 1925 and 1970 the series moves from European reconciliation after the Great War through a second global conflict to a post war world increasingly defined by increased secularity and emerging consumerism Reproducing cover illustrations Miles Booy s book examines both those issues which author Elinor M Brent Dyer consciously explored such as the exceptional The Chalet School in Exile which she sought to explain the Nazi occupation of Austria to her young readers and those aspects of the text which must be read symptomatically This is a book which will engage students with historical and cultural interests beyond children s literature With barely a midnight feast in sight but much anxiety about social change it s a familiar genre but not as you think you know it Hurry up new girls class is about to begin The New House at the Chalet School Elinor M. Brent-Dyer, 2023-07-25

Elinor M Brent Dyer was born Gladys Eleanor May Dyer on April 6 1894 in South Shields in the northeast of England She wrote over a hundred books of children s literature during her life From lower middle class roots she went to a small private school and became a teacher after attending the City of Leeds Training College As a teacher she worked at both public and private schools and even as a governess She had an interest in the theater and her first book Gerry Goes to School the first in her La Rochelle series was written in 1922 for the child actress Hazel Bainbridge About this time inspired by a vacation to the Austrian Alps she wrote The School at the Chalet in 1923 the first in her Chalet School series Brent Dyer continued to teach and tried rather unsuccessfully to run her own school from 1938 to 1948 After this she quit teaching but continued writing until her death on September 20 1969 in Redhill Surrey British and American School Stories, 1910-1960 Nancy G. Rosoff, Stephanie Spencer, 2019-02-25

This book examines school and college fiction for girls in Britain and the United States written in the first half of the twentieth century to explore the formation and ideologies of feminine identity Nancy G Rosoff and Stephanie Spencer develop a transnational framework that recognises how both constructed and essential femininities transcend national boundaries The book discusses the significance and performance of female friendship across time and place which is central to the development of the genre and how it functioned as an important means of informal education Stories by Jessie Graham Flower Pauline Lester Alice Ross Colver Elinor Brent Dyer and Dorita Fairlie Bruce are set within their historical context and then used to explore aspects of sociability authority responsibility domesticity and possibility The distinctiveness of this book stems from the historical analysis of these sources which have so far primarily been treated by literary scholars within their national context
