New Italian Architecture Alberto Galardi, 1962 Neue Italienische Architektur Alberto Galardi, 1967 New Italian Architecture Pippo Ciorra, Marco D'Annunziis, 2000

The young Italian architects are now out of the impasse and of their unwitting ennui. Or rather they have begun to emerge and raise their gaze from the drawing board to observe the material and non material phenomena occurring in the outside world in the meantime. In the concrete material world of the Italian cities and landscape sudden radical transformations have effected the whole universe to which architectural planning and urban knowledge must be applied. While the intangible world of ideas and non architectural artistic languages traces and representations of these transformations have been presented for some time. Pippo Ciorra: Ten young Italian architects are analyzed and combined to show the most advanced researches on the contemporary Italian urban landscape. The projects and photographs are introduced by three essays by Pippo Ciorra, Kay Bea Jones and Francesco Jodice. Architects: ABDR, Carmen Andriani, Aldo Aymonino, Stefano Boeri, Pippo Ciorra, Alberto Ferlenga, Ricci Spini, Renato Rizzi, Mirko Zardini, Lukas Meyer, Cino Zucchi. Photographers: Marina Ballo Charmet, Olivo Barbieri, Antonio Biasiucci, Botto Bruno, Vincenzo Castella, Marco Calo, Alessandro Cimmino, Paola de Pietri, Paola Di Bello, Francesco Jodice.

Italian Imprints on Twentieth-Century Architecture Denise Costanzo, Andrew Leach, 2022-05-19

Italian architecture has long exerted a special influence on the evolution of architectural ideas elsewhere: from the Beaux Arts academy's veneration of Rome to modernist and postmodern interest in Renaissance proportion, Baroque space and Mannerist ambiguity. This book critically examines this enduring phenomenon, exploring the privileged position of Italian architects, architecture and cities in the architectural culture of the past century. Questioning the deep rooted myth of Italy within architectural history, the book presents case studies of Italy's powerful yet problematic position in 20th century architectural ideologies at a time when established Eurocentric narratives are rightly being challenged. It reconciles the privileged position of Italian architecture and design with the imperative to write history across a more global, diverse, heterogeneous cultural geography. Twenty chapters from distinguished international scholars cover subjects and architects ranging from Alberti to Gio Ponti, Aldo Rossi, Manfredo Tafuri, Vittorio Gregotti, cities from Rome and Venice to Milan, and an array of international architects, movements and architectural ideas influenced by Italy. The chapters each question where, how and why the disciplinary edifice of 20th century architecture, its canon of built, visual, textual and conceptual works, relied on Italian foundations, examining where and how those foundations have become insecure. Indispensable for students and scholars of both Italian and global architectural history, Italian Imprints on Twentieth Century Architecture provides an opportunity to consider the architectural and urban landscape of Italy from substantially new points of view.

Photography, Architecture, and the Modern Italian Landscape Lindsay Harris, 2024-11-19 Photography Architecture and the Modern Italian Landscape explores the impact of photography at a pivotal moment in Italian architecture and culture focusing on the period between 1910 and the mid 1970s The book analyzes architectural photographs taken by Italian cultural figures who helped transform the Italian landscape into what we know today This study charts the oscillation of Italians' ideas about what progress signified For example the book demonstrates that for writers and artists familiar with ancient ideas about civilization in 1910 the Roman countryside exemplified the contradictions inherent in primitivism On the one hand their photographs praised the region's primordial beauty yet their images condemned the crudeness of local living conditions More broadly it traces the history of primitivism and photography in Italy to show how cultural leaders alarmed at the nation's pre-modern living conditions their aspiration to modernize them and their grasp of photography to catalyze the process helped forge the modern Italian landscape its monuments housing infrastructure and natural environments At the same time it explores a vibrant period in photographic history when the advent of photographic reproduction as a commercial process developed into a medium with its own visual style capable of shaping ideas about modernity This new image making and reproduction technology empowered Italy's cultural leaders not simply to represent the Italian landscape through photography but to determine how it developed Of interest to researchers and students from a range of disciplines modern architecture photography and Italian studies this book demonstrates the power of art to transform society and to reformulate our ideas of progress Louis I.
