published in 1295 during the dawn of the Italian Renaissance period this work discusses the praiseworthy aspects of courtship which first appeared during the Medieval era Dante was a great admirer of this practice feeling that the tradition elevated both love and courteous behaviour in a manner befitting an experience of such emotive depth Dante first authored this book during his own association with Beatrice Portinari a paramour who was to symbolise human love for the artist in both life and death La Vita Nuova is distinct from other later works by Dante in that it was authored in his native Italian rather than the Latin he employed in The Divine Comedy and other works

La Vita Nuova (the New Life) Dante Alighieri, 2021-02-08 Composed around 1294 in Italian the Vita Nuova tells the story of Dante's encounters with and love for Beatrice culminating in her early death and its effect upon him Utilising and developing the conventions of Courtly Love in a mixture of prose and verse Dante deepens the emotional content of the genre while pointing the way towards the intellectual and spiritual journey of the Divine Comedy Indeed the final section of the Vita Nuova contains his commitment to the writing of the greater work in which Beatrice comes to represent Divine Philosophy guiding the poet through Paradise towards ultimate truth and embodying in her earthly and transcendental form the beauty and love which emanate from it In the Vita Nuova Dante's own emotional reactions are made the inner subject of the work in a groundbreaking manner which foreshadows the Commedia's intensity and the personal nature of the poet's quest not merely to seek for meaning but to attain it spiritually
