Radiant Silhouette John Yau, 1989      The Life of Paper Sharon Luk, 2018 Introduction the life of paper The inventions of China Imagined genealogies for all who cannot arrive Detained alien enemy mail examined Censorship and the work of art where they barbed the fourth corner open Ephemeral value and disused commodities Uses of the profane      Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory, 2015-04-22 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of poets associated with the New York Schools of the early twentieth century      Paradiso Diaspora John Yau, 2006-06-27 More information to be announced soon on this forthcoming title from Penguin USA      The Ethics and Poetics of Alterity in Asian American Poetry Xiaojing Zhou, 2006-05 Poetry by Asian American writers has had a significant impact on the landscape of contemporary American poetry and a book length critical treatment of Asian American poetry is long overdue In this groundbreaking book Xiaojing Zhou demonstrates how many Asian American poets transform the conventional I of lyric poetry based on the traditional Western concept of the self and the Cartesian I to enact a more ethical relationship between the I and its others Drawing on Emmanuel Levinas's idea of the ethics of alterity which argues that an ethical relation to the other is one that acknowledges the irreducibility of otherness Zhou offers a reconceptualization of both self and other Taking difference as a source of creativity and turning it into a form of resistance and a critical intervention Asian American poets engage with broader issues than the merely poetic They confront social injustice against the other and call critical attention to a concept of otherness which differs fundamentally from that underlying racism sexism and colonialism By locating the ethical and political questions of otherness in language discourse aesthetics and everyday encounters Asian American poets help advance critical studies in race gender and popular culture as well as in poetry The Ethics and Poetics of Alterity is not limited however to literary studies it is an invaluable response to the questions raised by increasingly globalized encounters across many kinds of boundaries The Poets Marilyn Chin Kimiko Hahn Myung Mi Kim Li Young Lee Timothy Liu David Mura and John Yau      Ecstatic Occasions, Expedient Forms David Lehman, 1996 An unexpectedly entertaining collection of writing by poets discussing the creative inspiration and artistic form of their work

Countervisions Darrell Y. Hamamoto, Sandra Liu, 2000 Spotlighting Asian Americans on both sides of the motion picture camera Countervisions examines the aesthetics material circumstances and politics of a broad spectrum of films released in the last thirty years This anthology focuses in particular on the growing presence of Asian Americans as makers of independent films and cross over successes Essays of film criticism and interviews with film makers emphasize matters of cultural agency that is the practices through which Asian American actors directors and audience members have shaped their own cinematic images One of the anthology's key contributions is to trace the evolution of Asian American independent film practice over thirty years Essays on the Japanese American internment and historical memory essays on films by women and queer artists and the reflections of individual film makers discuss independent productions as subverting or opposing the conventions of commercial cinema But Countervisions also resists simplistic readings of mainstream film representations of Asian Americans and enumerations of negative images Writing about Hollywood stars Anna May Wong and Nancy Kwan director Wayne Wang and erotic films several contributors probe into the complex and ambivalent responses of Asian American audiences to stereotypical roles and commercial success Taken together the spirited illuminating essays in this collection offer an unprecedented examination of a flourishing cultural production Author note Darrell Y Hamamoto is Associate Professor in the Asian American Studies Program at the University of California Davis He is the author of Nervous Laughter Television Situation Comedy and Liberal Democratic Ideology Monitored Peril Asian Americans and the Politics of Television Representation and New American Destinies a Reader in Contemporary Asian and Latino Immigration Sandra Liu is a Ph D candidate in the Department of Ethnic Studies University of California Berkeley

The Sum of Our Parts Teresa Williams-León, Cynthia L. Nakashima, 2001 Largely as a result of multiracial activism the U S Census for 2000 offers people the unprecedented opportunity to officially identify themselves with more than one racial group Among Asian heritage people in this country and elsewhere racial and ethnic mixing has a long but unacknowledged history According to the last U S Census nearly one third of all interracial marriages included an Asian descent spouse and intermarriage rates are accelerating This unique collection of essays focuses on the construction of identity among people Asian descent who claim multiple heritages In the U S discussions of race generally center on matters of black and white Asian Americans usually figure in conversations about race as an undifferentiated ethnic group or as exotic Eurasians The contributors to this book disrupt the standard discussions by considering people of mixed Asian ethnicities They also pay particular attention to non white multiracial identities to decenter whiteness and reflect the experience of individuals or communities who are considered a minority within a minority With an entire section devoted to the Asian diaspora The Sum of Our Parts suggests that questions of multiracial and multiethnic identity are surfacing around the globe This timely and provocative collection articulates them for social scientists and students

Great American Prose Poems David Lehman, 2008-06-18 A prose poem is a poem written in prose rather than verse But what does that really mean Is it an indefinable hybrid An anomaly in the history of poetry Are the very words prose poem an oxymoron This groundbreaking anthology edited by celebrated poet David Lehman editor of The Best American Poetry series traces the form in all its dazzling variety from Poe and Emerson to Auden and Ashbery and on right up to the present In his brilliant and lucid introduction Lehman explains that a prose poem can make use of all the strategies and tactics of poetry but works in sentences rather than lines He also summarizes the prose poem's French heritage its history in the United States and the salient differences between verse and prose Arranged chronologically to allow readers to trace the gradual development of this hybrid genre the poems anthologized here include important works from such masters of American literature as Gertrude Stein William Carlos Williams e e cummings Hart Crane Ernest Hemingway James Schuyler Allen Ginsberg Frank O'Hara and Elizabeth Bishop Contemporary mainstays and emerging poets Robert Bly John Ashbery Charles Simic Billy Collins Russell Edson James Tate Anne Carson Yusef Komunyakaa and Lydia Davis among them are represented with their best work in the field The prose poem is beginning to enjoy a tremendous upswing in popularity Readers of this marvelous collection a must have for anyone interested in the current state of the art will learn why Poetry & Barthes Callie Gardner, 2018-10-11 The influence of Roland Barthes on contemporary culture has been the subject of much analysis but never before has this influence been closely examined in relation to poetry This innovative study traces Anglophone poetry's response to the literary and cultural theory of Barthes from debate to adoption adaptation and rejection
