Radical In Performance Between Brecht And Baudrillard:

The Radical in Performance Baz Kershaw, 2013-10-18 The Radical in Performance investigates the crisis in contemporary theatre and celebrates the subversive in performance It is the first full length study to explore the link between a western theatre which says Kershaw is largely outdated and the blossoming of postmodern performance much of which has a genuinely radical edge In staying focused on the period between Brecht and Baudrillard modernity and postmodernism Baz Kershaw identifies crucial resources for the revitalisation of the radical across a wide spectrum of cultural practices This is a timely necessary and rigorous book It will be a compelling read for anyone searching for a critical catalyst for new ways of viewing and practising cultural politics New Theatre Quarterly 62: Volume 16, Part 2 Clive Barker, Simon Trussler, 2000-08-17 New Theatre Quarterly provides a lively international forum where theatrical scholarship and practice can meet and where prevailing dramatic assumptions can be subjected to vigorous critical questioning It shows that theatre history has a contemporary relevance that theatre studies need a methodology and that theatre criticism needs a language The journal publishes news analysis and debate within the field of theatre studies Articles in volume 62 include Staging and Storytelling Theatre and Film Richard III at Stratford The Theatrical Biosphere and Ecologies of Performance The Afro Caribbean Identity and the English Stage A Riposte to David Mamet Heresy and Common Sense in True and False Form as Weapon the Political Function of Song in Urban Zimbabwean Theatre Aphrodite Speaks on the recent Performance Art of Carolee Schneemann Theatre and Urban Space the Case of Birmingham Rep Across Two Eras Slovak Theatre from Communism to Independence Whatever Happened to Gay Theatre The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Performance Paul Allain, Jen Harvie, 2013-05-13 Discussing some of the pivotal questions relating to the complementary fields of theatre and performance studies this engaging easy to use text is undoubtedly a perfect reference guide for the keen student and passionate theatre goer alike Anti-War Theatre After Brecht Lara Stevens, 2016-06-17 Examining the ways in which contemporary Western theatre protests against the War on Terror this book analyses six twenty first century plays that respond to the post 9 11 military operations in Afghanistan Iraq and Palestine The plays are written by some of the most significant writers of this century and the last including Elfriede Jelinek Caryl Churchill H l ne Cixous and Tony Kushner Anti war Theatre After Brecht grapples with the problem of how to make theatre that protests the policies of democratically elected Western governments in a post Marxist era It shows how the Internet has become a key tool for disseminating anti war play texts and how online social media forums are changing traditional dramatic aesthetics and broadening opportunities for spectator access engagement and interaction with a work and the political alternatives it puts forward Victor Turner and Contemporary Cultural Performance Graham St John, 2008-04-01 Upon the 25th anniversary of his passing this collection addresses the wide application of Victor Turner s thought to cultural performance in the early 21st century From anthropology sociology and religious studies to performance cultural and media studies Turner s ideas have had a prodigious interdisciplinary impact Examining his relevance in studies of performance and popular culture media and religion along with the role of Edith Turner in the Turnerian project contributors explore how these ideas have been re engaged renovated and repurposed in studies of contemporary cultural performance Popular Shakespeare S. Purcell,2009-02-25 In recent years the Popular Shakespeare phenomenon has become ever more pervasive in fringe productions mainstream theatre or the mass media Shakespeare is increasingly constructed as an authentic part of popular culture A vivid account of Shakespeare in performance since the 1990s this book examines what Shakespeare means to us today Political and Protest Theatre after 9/11 Jenny Spencer,2011-12-22 This collection documents and examines political and protest theatre produced between the 9 11 attacks in 2001 and Obama s election in 2008 by British and American artists responding to their own governments actions and policies during this time The plays take up topics such as the ongoing wars on terror Blair s support of U S policies the flawed intelligence that led to the Iraq war and illegal detentions and torture at Abu Ghraib The authors argue that engaged artists faced a radically different sociopolitical context for their work after 9 11 compared to earlier social protest movements and new forms of theatre and different emotional strategies were necessary to meet the challenges The subtitle Patriotic Dissent suggests the double stance of many artists influenced by patriotic expressions of national solidarity yet critical of the ways that patriotic language was put to use against others The articles represent a broad range of theatre Broadway musicals documentary theatre adaptations of classical theatre new plays by British playwrights street performances and installations and musical concerts The contributors case studies evaluate the effectiveness of important instances of political theatre and protest from this decade arguing for the significance relevance and continuing necessity for evolving forms of political theatre today Applied Drama Helen Nicholson,2014-07-14 This core text offers insight into theatre making that takes place in communities across the world Offering an overview of the theory that underpins practice in applied drama this thought provoking text outlines practices in the context of contemporary political and theoretical concerns It considers the role of artists who work in challenging settings including prisons schools hostels for the homeless care homes for the elderly and on the street In so doing the book poses critical questions about the aesthetics and ethics of applied theatre It also invites debate about the environments in which applied theatre takes place Written by an experienced academic in the field this lively text is the ideal introductory text for students on Applied Theatre degree programmes and those taking Applied Theatre modules on Drama Theatre and Performance Studies programmes It is also essential reading for practitioners of applied theatre looking for a comprehensive insight into theatre making and its impact in an increasingly globalized world Citizen Media and Public Spaces Mona Baker,Bolette B. Blaagaard,2016-06-10 Citizen Media and Public Spaces presents a pioneering exploration of citizen media as a highly interdisciplinary domain that raises vital political social and ethical issues relating to conceptions of citizenship and state boundaries the construction of publics and social imaginaries processes of co optation and reverse co optation power and resistance the ethics of witnessing and solidarity and novel responses to the democratic deficit Framed by a substantial introduction by the editors the twelve contributions to the volume interrogate the concept of citizen media theoretically and empirically and offer detailed case studies that extend from the UK to Russia and Bulgaria and from China to Denmark and the liminal spaces within which a growing number of refugees now live A rich new domain of scholarship and practice emerges out of the studies presented Citizen media is shown to embrace both physical and digital interventions in public space as well as the sets of values and agendas that influence and drive the practices and discourses through which individuals and collectives position themselves within and in relation to society and participate in the creation of diverse publics This book will be of interest to students and researchers in media and communication studies particularly those studying citizen media media and society journalism and society and political communication Cover image courtesy of Ruben Hamelink
