Radical perspectives in the Arts Manuel Gómez Galán, 1972 Praxis, 1978 Praxis, 1976 The Frankfurt School J. M. Bernstein, 1994 The Frankfurt School refers to the members associated with the Institut für Sozialforschung Institute for Social Research which was founded in Frankfurt in 1923 The work of this group is generally agreed to have been a landmark in twentieth century social science It is of seminal importance in our understanding of culture progress politics production consumption and method This set of six volumes provides a full picture of the School by examining the important developments that have occurred since the deaths of the original core of Frankfurt scholars All the major figures Adorno Horkheimer Marcuse Benjamin are represented In particular the important post war work of Jürgen Habermas is fully assessed The collection also covers the work of many of the minor figures associated with the School who have been unfairly neglected in the past resulting in the most complete survey and guide to the oeuvre of the Frankfurt School

Marxism and the History of Art Andrew Hemingway, 2006-07-20 This book is the first comprehensive introduction to Marxist approaches to art history Although the aesthetic was a crucial part of Marx and Engels's thought they left no full statement on the arts Although there is an abundant scholarship on Marxist approaches to literature the historiography of the visual arts has been largely neglected This book encompasses a range of influential thinkers and historians including William Morris Mikhail Lifshits Frederick Antal Francis Klingender Max Raphael Meyer Schapiro Walter Benjamin Henri Lefebvre and Arnold Hauser It also addresses the heritage of the New Left In the spirit of Marxism the authors interpret the achievements and limitations of Marxist art history in relation to the historical and political circumstances of its production providing an indispensable introduction to contemporary radical practices in the field

Art, Alienation, and the Humanities Charles Reitz, 2000-02-10 Illustrates how Marcuse's theory sheds new light on current debates in both education and society involving issues of multiculturalism postmodernism civic education the culture wars critical thinking and critical literacy

The to Z of Aesthetics Dabney Townsend, 2010-04 The A to Z of Aesthetics covers its history from Classical Greece to the present including entries on non western aesthetics The book contains a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on the main concepts

Historical Dictionary of Aesthetics Dabney Townsend, 2006-09-05 Aesthetics is not a factual discipline there are no aesthetic facts The word itself is derived from the Greek word for feeling and the discipline arises because of the need to find a place for the passions within epistemology the branch of philosophy that investigates our beliefs Aesthetics is more than just the study of beauty it is a study of that which appeals to our senses most often in connection with the classification analysis appreciation and understanding of art The Historical Dictionary of Aesthetics covers its history from Classical Greece to the present including entries on non western aesthetics The book contains a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on the main concepts terminology important persons philosophers critics and artists and the rules and criteria we apply in making judgments on art By providing concise information on aesthetics this dictionary is not only accessible to students but it provides details and facts to specialists in the field The Social Context of James Ensor's Art Practice Susan M. Canning, 2022-10-20 Vive la Sociale This rousing revolutionary statement written on a bright red banner across the top of James Ensor's Christ's Entry into Brussels in 1889 served as a visual manifesto and call to action by the Belgian artist 1860-1949 one that announced with an insistent public voice the centrality of his art practice to the cultural discourse of modern Belgium This provocative declaration serves as the title for this new study of Ensor's art focusing on its social discourse and the artist's interaction with and at times satirical encounter with his contemporary milieu Rather than the alienated and traumatized Expressionist given preference in modern art history Ensor is presented here as an artist of agency and purpose whose art practice engaged the issues and concerns of middle class Belgian life society and politics and was informed by the values and class race and gendered perspectives of his time Ensor's radical vision and oppositional strategy of resistance self fashioning and performance remains relevant This book with its timely nuanced reading of the art and career of this often misunderstood artist's artist invites a re evaluation not only of Ensor's social context and expressive critique but also his unique contribution to modernist art practice
