Raise The Red Lantern Three Novellas:

Raise the Red Lantern Tong Su,1993 This collection of three novellas includes Nineteen Thirty Four Escapes Opium Family and Raise the Red Lantern upon which the Academy Award nominated film was based Raise the Red Lantern Su Tong,2004-07-06 The brutal realities of the dark places Su Tong depicts in this collection of novellas set in 1930s provincial China worlds of prostitution poverty and drug addiction belie his prose of stunning and simple beauty The title novella Raise the Red Lantern which became a critically acclaimed film tells the story of Lotus a young woman whose father's suicide forces her to become the concubine of a wealthy merchant Crushed by loneliness despair and cruel treatment Lotus finds her descent into insanity both a weapon and a refuge Nineteen Thirty Four Escapes is an account of a family's struggles during one momentous year plagued by disease death and the shady promise of life in a larger town the family slowly disintegrates Finally Opium Family details the last years of a landowning clan whose demise is brought about by corruption lust and treachery fruits of the insidious crop they harvest Visions of Dystopia in China's New Historical Novels Jeffrey C.

Kinkley,2014-11-04 The depiction of personal and collective suffering in modern Chinese novels differs significantly from standard Communist accounts and most Eastern and Western historical narratives Writers such as Yu Hua Su Tong Wang Anyi Mo Yan Han Shaogong Ge Fei Li Rui and Zhang Wei scramble common conceptions of China's modern development deploying avant garde narrative techniques from Latin American and Euro American modernism to project a surprisingly un Chinese dystopian vision and critical view of human culture and ethics The epic narratives of modern Chinese fiction make rich use of magical realism surrealism and unusual treatments of historical time Also featuring graphic depictions of sex and violence and dark raunchy comedy these novels deeply reflect China's turbulent recent history re presenting the overthrow of the monarchy in the early twentieth century and the resulting chaos of revolution and war the recurring miseries perpetrated by class warfare during the dictatorship of Mao Zedong and the social dislocations caused by China's industrialization and rise as a global power This book casts China's highbrow historical novels from the 1990s to the mid 2000s as a distinctively Chinese contribution to the form of the global dystopian novel and consequently to global thinking about the interrelations of utopia and dystopia Cultural Representations of the Second Wife Jo Parnell,2023-12-11 Cultural Representation of the Second Wife Literature Stage and Screen is a multifaceted interdisciplinary cross cultural work that provides insights into the realities of second wives the world over This book allows the reader a three dimensional view of the second wife experience It asks What does it mean and what does it feel like to be a second wife in a polygamous union or in a monogamous partnership Is there a difference Together the writers in this book cleverly create an in depth study of the subject through the productions referred to in the title to offer a different approach to the popularly held views of the second wife The book addresses the intricacies customs practices and lifestyles of the various Eastern and Western cultures and demonstrates the abilities of the Humanities to connect and interrelate with other disciplines as well as with the reader's own world Adapted for the Screen Hsiu-Chuang Deppman, 2010-04-30 Contemporary Chinese films are popular with audiences worldwide but a key reason for their success has gone unnoticed many of the films are adapted from brilliant literary works This book is the first to put these landmark films in the context of their literary origins and explore how the best Chinese directors adapt fictional narratives and styles for film Hsiu Chuang Deppman unites aesthetics with history in her argument that the rise of cinema in China Hong Kong and Taiwan in the late 1980s was partly fueled by burgeoning literary movements Fifth Generation director Zhang Yimou's highly acclaimed films Red Sorghum Raise the Red Lantern and To Live are built on the experimental works of Mo Yan Su Tong and Yu Hua respectively Hong Kong new wave's Ann Hui and Stanley Kwan capitalized on the irresistible visual metaphors of Eileen Chang's postrealism Hou Xiaoxian's new Taiwan cinema turned to fiction by Huang Chunming and Zhu Tianwen for fine grained perspectives on class and gender relations Delving equally into the individual approaches of directors and writers Deppman initiates readers into the exciting possibilities emanating from the world of Chinese cinema The seven in depth studies include a diverse array of forms cinematic adaptation of literature literary adaptation of film auto adaptation and non narrative adaptation and a variety of genres martial arts melodrama romance autobiography documentary drama Complementing this formal diversity is a geographical range that far exceeds the cultural linguistic and physical boundaries of China The directors represented here also work in the U S and Europe and reflect the growing international resources of Chinese language cinema With her sophisticated blend of stylistic and historical analyses Deppman brings much needed nuance to current conversations about the politics of gender class and race in the work of the most celebrated Chinese writers and directors Her pioneering study will appeal to all readers general and academic who have an interest in Chinese literature cinema and culture The Columbia Companion to Modern Chinese Literature Kirk A. Denton, 2016-04-05 The Columbia Companion to Modern Chinese Literature features more than fifty short essays on specific writers and literary trends from the Qing period 1895 1911 to the present The volume opens with thematic essays on the politics and ethics of writing literary history the formation of the canon the relationship between language and form the role of literary institutions and communities the effects of censorship the representation of the Chinese diaspora the rise and meaning of Sinophone literature and the role of different media in the development of literature Subsequent essays focus on authors their works and the schools with which they were aligned featuring key names titles and terms in English and in Chinese characters Woven throughout are pieces on late Qing fiction popular entertainment fiction martial arts fiction experimental theater post Mao avant garde poetry post martial law fiction from Taiwan contemporary genre fiction from China and recent Internet literature The volume includes essays on such authors as Liang Qichao Lu Xun Shen Congwen Eileen Chang Jin Yong Mo Yan Wang Anyi Gao Xingjian and Yan Lianke Both a teaching tool and a go to research companion this volume is a one of a kind resource for mastering modern literature in the Chinese speaking world My First Trip to China Kin-Ming Liu, 2012-11-01 Thirty leading China experts ranging from

Perry Link Andrew Nathan and Jonathan Mirsky to W J F Jenner Lois Wheeler Snow and Morton Abramowitz recount their first visits to China recalling their initial observations and impressions Most first traveled to China when it was still closed to the world or was just beginning to open Their subsequent opinions writings and policies have shaped the Western relationship with China for more than a generation This is essential reading for those who want to understand the evolution of Western attitudes toward modern China At the same time this collection provides a vivid personal window onto a fascinating period in Chinese history To collect the stories of first encounters with China was a brilliant idea Not only do we get the benefit of many fascinating insights and hindights from a range of foreigners and overseas Chinese but these deftly edited views from the outside make up one great story the history of Communist China More than a history of one damned thing happening after another however this is a history of perceptions lies myths and revelations as much about China as her rulers wish it to be seen as about those who chose to see China more and sometimes less clearly over the last half century Ian Buruma author of Bad Elements The opening of China to the world and then of the world to China is one of modern history s most consequential stories That story is told in a fresh innovative fashion in this insightful collection of personal experiences related by a distinguished collection of historians diplomats journalists political writers and others who ventured behind the Bamboo Curtain early on Leading the way are disillusioned leftists stunned by the horrors of the Cultural Revolution and Mao s Great Leap Forward that they discover They gradually give way to knowing observers of a tumultuous society determined to become once again a world power Their accounts form an impressionistic vision of epochal change taking place on the gallop Jim Hoagland contributing editor The Washington Post This is a wistful and absorbing volume and a fitting remembrance for all of us who once thought that China was going to be easy to study Jonathan Spence author of The Search for Modern China

Transnational Chinese Cinema Brian Bergen-Aurand, Mary Mazzilli, Hee Wai-Siam, 2015-03-26 This collection of essays on transnational Chinese cinema explores the corporal psychological and affective aspects of experiencing bodies on screen engages with the material and discursive elements of embodiment and highlights the dynamics between the mind and body involved in bio cultural practices of cinematic production distribution exhibition and reception

Translating Chinese Fiction Tan Yesheng, 2024-06-28 Drawing on the cognitive translational paradigm this book introduces a situation embedded cognitive construction model of translation and explores the thinking portfolios of British and American sinologists cum translators to re examine their multiple voices and cognition in translating Chinese fiction By placing sinologists cum translators in the same discourse space the study transcends the limitations of previous case studies and offers a comprehensive cognitive panorama of how Chinese novels are rendered The author explores the challenges and difficulties of translating Chinese fiction from the insider perspectives of British and American sinologists and cross validates their multiple voices by aligning them with cross cultural communication scenarios Based on the cognitive construction model of translation the book provides a systematic review of the translation thoughts and ideas of the community of sinologists in terms of linguistic conventions narrative styles contextual and cultural frames readership categories and metaphorical models of translation It envisions a new research path to enhance empirical research on translators cognition in a dynamic translation ecosystem The title will be an essential read for students and scholars of translation studies and Chinese studies It will also appeal to translators and researchers interested in cognitive stylistics literary studies and intercultural communication studies The Cambridge Companion to the Modern Gothic Jerrold E. Hogle, 2014-12-04 This Companion explores the many ways in which the Gothic has dispersed in the twentieth and twenty first centuries and in particular how it has come to offer a focus for the tensions inherent in modernity Fourteen essays by world class experts show how the Gothic in numerous forms including literature film television and cyberspace helps audiences both to distance themselves from and to deal with some of the key underlying problems of modern life Topics discussed include the norms and shifting boundaries of sex and gender the explosion of different forms of media and technology the mixture of cultures across the western world the problem of identity for the modern individual what people continue to see as evil and the very nature of modernity Also including a chronology and guide to further reading this volume offers a comprehensive account of the importance of Gothic to modern life and thought
