From the Heart J. M. Richards, 2012-07-09 From the heart is a compilation of poems and songs that I have written over the years that I feel should be shared Sometimes it feels good to get out of the normal genre that I write and let my heart speak

Multivocality Katherine Meizel PhD, 2020-01-02 Multivocality frames vocality as a way to investigate the voice in music as a concept encompassing all the implications with which voice is inscribed the negotiation of sound and Self individual and culture medium and meaning ontology and embodiment Like identity vocality is fluid and constructed continually even the most iconic of singers do not simply exercise a static voice throughout a lifetime As 21st century singers habitually perform across styles genres cultural contexts histories and identities the author suggests that they are not only performing in multiple vocalities but more critically they are performing multivocality creating and recreating identity through the process of singing with many voices Multivocality constitutes an effort toward a fuller understanding of how the singing voice figures in the negotiation of identity Author Katherine Meizel recovers the idea of multivocality from its previously abstract treatment and re embodies it in the lived experiences of singers who work on and across the fluid borders of identity Highlighting singers in vocal motion Multivocality focuses on their transitions and transgressions across genre and gender boundaries cultural borders the lines between body and technology between religious contexts between found voices and lost ones

The National Psalmist, 1849 The National Psalmist ; A Collection of the Most Popular and Useful Psalm and Hymn Tunes... Lowell Mason, 1848 Supreme Court of the State of New York, Pure Gold from the Words of Sayyidī 'Abd al-'Azīz al-Dabbāgh John O'Kane, Bernd Radtke, 2007-11-30 Around 1720 in Fez A mad b al Mub rak al Lama a religious scholar wrote down the words and teachings of the Sufi master Abd al Az z al Dabb gh Al Dabb gh shunned religious studies but having reached illumination and met with the Prophet Muhammad he was able to explain any obscurities in the Quran and the sayings of earlier Sufis. The resulting book known as the Ibriz describes how al-Dabbagh attained illumination and access to the Prophet as well as his teachings about the Council of the Godly that regulates the world relations between master and disciple, the darkness in men's bodies, Adam's creation, Barzakh, Paradise and Hell, and much more besides. This encyclopaedia of Sufism with its many teaching stories and illustrations provides a window onto social life and religious ideas in Fez a generation or so before powerful outside forces began to play a role in the radical transformation of Morocco. Congressional Record United States.

Congress, 1971 Poetic Parables, Songs and Poems Vickie L. Detert, 2009-12-16 Poetic Parables Songs and Poems from an imperfect pen is the first attempt at publishing for the author/composer Vickie L. Detert. With the Lord and his gifts as inspiration, there are many more works waiting their turn to be shared. Their message of faith, forgiveness, strength, hope, and love have been blessings to Miss Detert and others. Now her prayer is to share them with as many as God is willing, and she trusts He will guide them through each and every word. An added bonus to the music portion of this book is that each song is presented twice. The first presentation is as melody, chords, and lyrics. The second is with a piano accompaniment. In most of the later you will also find the pieces are written in a slightly lower key, thus giving the singers a choice of range. Miss Vickie L. Detert has been a life-long Christian who has, as most Christians, faced many of life's challenges with her God-given faith being the answer, the hope, and the strength she has needed. As far back as she can remember, music and faith have walked hand in hand, and so despite being convinced at a young age that writing was not one of her gifts, it was not surprising that in 1978 she began writing and composing pieces reflective of her faith. As a music teacher and church musician, Miss Detert has shared much of her writings with friends, family, and local congregations. Now she hopes the Lord will use this book to reach out and bless all of those who are moved to open its cover and look within. Her wish is that God use her work to bring others closer to Him as it has done for her.
