Stone, 2006 These volumes comprise a collection of papers by Michael E Stone written over a period of 35 years Stone is a leading scholar in two different fields of research the Jewish literature of the Second Temple period including the Dead Sea Scrolls and Armenian Studies So this collection includes essays relating to the origins and nature of the Apocryphal literature and its relationship with the Dead Sea Scrolls as well as more specific studies devoted to themes that have interested Stone throughout his career including Messianism 4 Ezra Adam and Eve and Aramaic Levi Document His Armenian interests have embraced the Armenian Biblical text Armenian pilgrimage to and presence in the Holy Land and Armenian paleography and epigraphy Papers included in the volumes some of which were originally published in obscure venues touch on all these themes A number of previously unpublished papers are included

Egypt at Its Origins Stan Hendrickx, 2004 This volume published in memory of Barbara Adams presents 57 contributions by authors from 16 different countries and contains the results of the latest research on Predynastic and Early Dynastic Egypt In addition to papers originally presented at the 2002 conference in Krakow there are the invited contributions by the friends and colleagues of Barbara Adams including several on new discoveries from and thoughts about the site of Hierakonpolis

Law and Religion between Petra and Edessa John Healey, 2023-05-31 The thousands of surviving inscriptions in Middle Aramaic e g in the Nabataean Syriac and Palmyrene dialects are an underused resource in the study of the Near East in the Roman period especially in the study of religion and law Particularly important was the emergence during this period of new peoples with their cultural roots in Arabia such as the Nabataeans This volume collects together under the interrelated themes of religion and law twenty three articles by John Healey with sections on Petra and Nabataean Aramaic Edessa and Early Syriac and Aramaic and Society in the Roman Near East Individual papers discuss the continuation of Ancient Near Eastern culture the Aramaic legal tradition as well as the development of both written and spoken forms of Syriac and Nabatean

Proceedings of the Ninth International Dakhleh Oasis Project Conference Colin A. Hope, Gillian E. Bowen, 2020-01-19 This new volume in the Oasis Papers series marks the 40th anniversary of archaeological fieldwork in the Dakhleh Oasis in Egypt's Western Desert under the leadership of Anthony

J Mills and presents a synthesis of the current state of our knowledge of the oasis and its interconnections with surrounding regions especially the Nile Valley The papers are by distinguished authorities in the field and postgraduate students who specialise in different aspects of Dakhleh and presents an almost complete survey of the archaeology of Dakhleh including much unpublished original material It will be one of the few to document a specific part of modern Egypt in such detail and thus should have a broad and lasting appeal The content of some of the papers is unlikely to be published in any other form elsewhere Dakhleh is possibly the most intensively examined wider geographic region within Egypt Interpreting

Translation Johan Lust, 2005 The 30 essays by some of the most prominent scholars on the field of Septuagint studies collected in this volume deal with the Septuagint in general and with the Septuagint of Ezekiel in particular but also with text critical philological lexicographical and theological topics faithfully reflecting the wide range of interests of Professor Johan Lust Edited by F Garca Martnez and Marc Vervenne The Temple of Ramesses II in Abydos Ogden Goelet, Sameh

Iskander, 2022-04-12 Of all the enormous monuments throughout Egypt and Nubia that Ramesses II the Great ca 1279 1212 BCE left behind his temple at Abydos built early in his reign stands as one of his most elegant with its simple architectural layout and dramatic and graceful painted relief scenes Though best known for its dramatic reliefs depicting the battle of Kadesh the temple also offers a wealth of information about religious and social life in ancient Egypt It reflects for example the strenuous efforts of the early Ramessides to reestablish the Osiris cult in Egypt and particularly at Abydos in the aftermath of the Amarna period Building on the comprehensive photographic and epigraphic documentation of the temple presented in The Temple of Ramesses II at Abydos volumes 1 Wall Scenes and 2 Pillars Niches and Miscellanea volume 3 Architectural and Inscriptional Features offers a detailed analysis of the overall architectural layout and decorative program of the temple and its symbolism This discussion approaches the religious history of the site through its archaeology its inscriptions both planned and secondary graffiti and its situation in the complex religious landscape of Abydos Of particular interest are the temple's role as a staging point for the great Osiris Festival and its procession among the most important of all ritual events in the Egyptian religious calendar during the Ramesside period the promotion of an active unbound form of Osiris and the evidence for important cult activities that took place on the rooftop of the temple the presence of which is documented today by the staircase that accessed it from Court B A Companion to Late Antique Literature Scott

McGill, Edward J. Watts, 2018-07-27 Noted scholars in the field explore the rich variety of late antique literature With contributions from leading scholars in the field A Companion to Late Antique Literature presents a broad review of late antique literature The late antique period encompasses a significant transitional era in literary history from the mid third century to the early seventh century The Companion covers notable Greek and Latin texts of the period and provides a varied overview of literature written in six other late antique languages Comprehensive in scope this important volume presents new research methodologies and significant debates in the field The Companion explores the histories forms features audiences and uses of the literature of the period This authoritative text Provides an inclusive overview of late antique literature Offers the widest survey to date of the literary traditions and forms of the period including those in several languages other than Greek and Latin Presents the most current research and new methodologies in the field Contains contributions from an international group of contributors Written for students and scholars of late antiquity this comprehensive volume provides an authoritative review of the literature from the era Things Revealed Esther G. Chazon, David Satran, Ruth Clements, 2004-09-01 This rich collection of articles dedicated to Michael E Stone by his colleagues and students honors his contributions to the study of Judaism and Christianity Many of the articles discuss apocryphal and pseudepigraphical works stemming from Jewish or Christian authors and transmitted primarily but not exclusively by Christian scribes Particularly well represented are the earliest books of 1 Enoch and the Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs A number of articles introduce newly available material from the Dead Sea Scrolls while others deal with Philo Hellenistic Judaism and early Christianity Issues of biblical interpretation tradition history literary transmission and social context figure prominently This book is a companion to the study of apocrypha pseudepigrapha Dead Sea Scrolls early Judaism and early Christianity The Oxford Handbook of Egyptology Ian Shaw, Elizabeth Bloxam, 2020 The Oxford Handbook of Egyptology offers a comprehensive survey of the entire study of ancient Egypt from prehistory through to the end of the Roman period Transcending conventional boundaries between archaeological and ancient textual analysis and bringing together 63 chapters that range widely across the various archaeological philological and cultural sub disciplines authored by recognized experts in their respective fields it highlights the extent to which the discipline has diversified and stresses the need for it to seek multidisciplinary methods and broader collaborations if it is to remain contemporary and relevant Authoritative yet accessible it is an invaluable resource for scholars students and general readers alike Theban Desert Road Survey II John Coleman Darnell, 2013-12-31 The second monograph devoted to the work of the Theban Desert Road Survey presents the major rock inscriptions of the northwestern Theban Desert and the western hinterlands of Qamula The material includes six larger sites and several smaller collections and individual inscriptions and images sites discovered by the Theban Desert Road Survey over the course of approximately twelve field seasons The major groupings of inscriptions from south to north are the rock shrine of Pahu and the inscriptions of Gebel Akhenaton sites in the vicinity of the Wadi Himdaniya a small but interesting collection of inscriptions near the Wadi Arqub Baghla with two smaller outlying sites inscriptions of the Wadi Magar to the north including the site of the great Predynastic tableau with its plethora of crocodiles the associated vignette of Elephant on the Gebel along with the nearby Gebel Sutekh site and smaller concentrations beyond and finally the inscriptions of the area of the Matna el Barqa Highlights of the epigraphic material include new prayers to Amun and Hathor one a genuine New Kingdom de profundis recording an appeal to Amun during a storm on the Nile several important Predynastic and Protodynastic tableaux and the only rock art depictions of Akhenaton in a true Amarna style

Newsletter ,1990 Jewish Literacy in Roman Palestine Catherine Hezser,2001 Since Judaism has always been seen as the quintessential religion of the book a high literacy rate amongst ancient Jews has usually been taken for granted Catherine Hezser presents the first critical analysis of the various aspects of ancient Jewish literacy on the basis of all of the literary epigraphic and papyrological material published so far Thereby she takes into consideration the analogies in Graeco Roman culture and models and theories developed in the social sciences Rather than trying to determine the exact literacy rate amongst ancient Jews she examines the various types social contexts and functions of writing and the relationship between writing and oral forms of discourse Following recent social anthropological approaches to literacy the guiding question is who used what type of writing for which purpose First Catherine Hezser examines the conditions which would enable or prevent the spread of literacy such as education and schools the availability and costs of writing materials religious interest in writing and books the existence of archives and libraries and the question of multilingualism Afterwards she looks at the different types of writing such as letters documents miscellaneous notes inscriptions and graffiti and literary and magical texts until she finally draws conclusions about the ways in which the various sectors of the populace were able to participate in a literate society Book List Society for Old Testament Study,1992 A Research Guide to the Ancient World John M. Weeks,Jason de Medeiros,2014-11-25 The archaeological study of the ancient world has become increasingly popular in recent years A Research Guide to the Ancient World Print and Electronic Sources is a partially annotated bibliography The study of the ancient world is usually although not exclusively considered a branch of the humanities including archaeology art history languages literature philosophy and related cultural disciplines which consider the ancient cultures of the Mediterranean world and adjacent Egypt and southwestern Asia Chronologically the ancient world would extend from the beginning of the Bronze Age of ancient Greece ca 1000 BCE to the fall of the Western Roman Empire ca 500 CE This book will close the traditional subject gap between the humanities Classical World Egyptology and the social sciences anthropological archaeology Near East in the study of the ancient world This book is uniquely the only bibliographic resource available for such holistic coverage The volume consists of 17 chapters and seven appendixes arranged according to the traditional types of library research materials bibliographies dictionaries atlases etc The appendixes are mostly subject specific including graduate programs in ancient studies reports from significant archaeological sites numismatics and paleography and writing systems These extensive author and subject indexes help facilitate ease of use
