Mystery School Sean O', 2014-03-31 Life may be a school of mysteries to many of us or a series of puzzles from which we learn or do not at our own choosing The problem is we don't see that many answers to life's meanings are lying all around us in everyday circumstances For the intrepid learner in us all this book is a selection of prose and poetry personal observations from Sean O's heart Everywhere around us lie the scattered seeds and shoots of the great mystery we call Life In the most ordinary events in common objects and throw away objects d'art at momentous and trivial moments too all the secret codas await decoding Once we get past the surfaces of things our enlightenment begins The good and bad the great and ugly each reveal how societies work from day to day as does nature from moment to moment Once we look past the lenses each of us is conditioned to wear our sense of purpose and meaning rejuvenates If life is a school then let the learning begin with baby steps if necessary before we try to run Mystery School is the second book in a series concerned with hidden forces amid ordinary experiences The three sections are intended to focus on the same kinds of mystery hidden in different everyday experiences written in different fonts aka instruments in forms of prose poetry The voices are different yet the same personalities are revealed behind each opening window and door The three fonts connect to either Asian Haiku or European free verse American slang and universal cultural memetics genetics Sean O is attempting to comment on our disappearing flora and fauna while living in the urban recession of the past decade He feels that the loss of our environmental integrity in the 21st century is a sure path to industrialisation of what cannot be risked our free spirits and immaterial souls
