Rocking The Cradle:

The Memory of Tiresias Mikhail Iampolski, 1998-10-26 The concept of intertextuality has proven of inestimable value in recent attempts to understand the nature of literature and its relation to other systems of cultural meaning In The Memory of Tiresias Mikhail Iampolski presents the first sustained attempt to develop a theory of cinematic intertextuality Building on the insights of semiotics and contemporary film theory Iampolski defines cinema as a chain of transparent mimetic fragments intermixed with quotations he calls textual anomalies These challenge the normalization of meaning and seek to open reading out onto the unlimited field of cultural history which is understood in texts as a semiotically active extract already inscribed Quotations obstruct mimesis and are consequently transformed in the process of semiosis an operation that Iampolski defines as reading in an aura of enigma In a series of brilliant analyses of films by D W Griffith Sergei Eisenstein and Luis Buñuel he presents different strategies of intertextual reading in their work His book suggests the continuing centrality of semiotic analysis and is certain to interest film historians and theorists as well as readers in cultural and literary studies

Mother Is a Verb Sarah Knott, 2019-04-02 Welcome to a work of history unlike any other Mothering is as old as human existence But how has this most essential experience changed over time and cultures What is the history of maternity the history of pregnancy birth the encounter with an infant Can one capture the historical trail of mothers How In Mother Is a Verb the historian Sarah Knott creates a genre all her own in order to craft a new kind of historical interpretation Blending memoir and history and building from anecdote her book brings the past and the present viscerally alive It is at once intimate and expansive lyrical and precise As a history Mother Is a Verb draws on the terrain of Britain and North America from the seventeenth century to the close of the twentieth Knott searches among a range of past societies from those of Cree and Ojibwe women to tenant farmers in Appalachia from enslaved people on South Carolina rice plantations to tenement dwellers in New York City and London's East End She pores over diaries letters court records medical manuals items of clothing And she explores and documents her own experiences As a memoir Mother Is a Verb becomes a method of asking new questions and probing lost pasts in order to historicize the smallest even the most mundane of human experiences Is there a history to interruption to the sound of an infant's cry to sleeplessness Knott finds answers not through the telling of grand narratives but through the painstaking accumulation of a trellis of anecdotes And all the while we can feel the child on her hip
