Sanders, 1977

The Rodin collection left by Mrs Alma de Bretteville Spreckels to the California Palace of the Legion of Honor is the most salient and nearly the earliest example of America s admirable passion for an artist whose personality and works dominated the decades of 1880 to 1910 In an essay which follows this introduction Patricia B Sanders has chronicled the history of Mrs Spreckels collecting enterprise Her choice was remarkable Before Rodin s death in 1917 and over the following years until the 1940s she acquired first from Rodin and later from those nearest him bronzes plasters and marbles among them not only many of the most important Rodins but also many of the best The Spreckels collection is second only to the Mus e Rodin in Paris as a center of Rodin art and sculptures Rodin Bernard Champigneulle, 1967 Auguste Rodin the greatest sculptor of the nineteenth century was also probably the greatest since Michelangelo whose genius was a lifelong inspiration to him Though the astonishing lifelike quality of his sculpture first apparent in Bronze Age 1877 was in total defiance of current academic conventions Rodin did not have to face the prolonged and bitter hostility meted out to the Impressionist painters who were his contemporaries and in later life he became a famous and widely respected figure In this important new monograph Bernard Champigneulle analyses Rodin s great significance as an innovator in sculpture For Rodin created an entirely new form the detail considered as a finished work and in doing so exercised a lasting influence on his successors who were affected equally profoundly by his emotional expressiveness his power of characterization and the subtlety of his modelling M Champigneulle combines a searching reappraisal of Rodin s achievement with a revealing account of his personality and of his troubled personal life The Rodin Museum, Seoul Kevin Kennon, Ruth Butler, Mario

Gandelsonas, 2001 Kohn Pedersen Fox s jewel like glass pavilion for the Rodin Museum evolved from the search to create a home for two seminal bronzes The Gates of Hell and The Burghers of Calais by Auguste Rodin The tension created between the two pieces suggests gesture and dance which architect Kevin Kennon interpreted as a kind of pas de deux between two glass walls To heighten the experience of the museum as a place of contemplation and spirituality the space is suffused in light with glass walls and ceilings of varying degrees of translucency The serene space far removed from the bustle of the Seoul business district blurs the difference between West and East between art and commerce and between the nineteenth and twenty first centuries BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
