Roger II of Sicily Hubert Houben, 2002-04-04 Although many studies have addressed important aspects of medieval southern Italy this was the first work for nearly ninety years to be devoted specifically to the life and reign of King Roger II the founder of the kingdom of Sicily The book provides a comprehensive introductory narrative of the reign and a clear scholarly analysis of its culture and of the development of royal government The kingdom created by the Norman Roger of Hauteville in the first half of the twelfth century was a monarchy with highly developed absolutist ideas an elaborate bureaucracy a reasonably well filled treasury and a mixed cultural heritage reflected by the presence of Arabs and Greeks at court Based on many years of research in archives and libraries across Europe the book offers a valuable overview of one of the most striking periods in south Italian and European history

Nubia, Ethiopia, and the Crusading World, 1095-1402 Adam Simmons, 2022-09-16 The Crusades had a wide variety of impacts on societies throughout Europe Asia and Africa One such notable impact was its role in the development of knowledge between cultures This book argues that the Nubian kingdom of Dongola and the Latin Christians became increasingly more connected between the twelfth and early fourteenth centuries than has been acknowledged Subsequently when Solomonic Ethiopian Latin Christian diplomatic relations began in 1402 they were building on the prior connections of Nubia either wittingly or unwittingly Ethiopia became the Ethiopia that the Latin Christians had previously been aiming to develop relations with The histories of Nubia Ethiopia and the Crusades were directly and indirectly entwined between the twelfth century and 1402 By placing Nubia and Ethiopia within the wider context of the Crusades new perspectives can be made regarding the international activity of Nubia and Ethiopia between the twelfth and fifteenth centuries and the regional role reversal of Dongola and Solomonic Ethiopia from the early fourteenth century Prior to the fourteenth century Nubia had been the dominant Christian power in the region before Solomonic Ethiopia began to replace it including by adopting elements of discourse which had previously been attributed to Nubia such as its ruler being the recognised protector of the Christians of north east Africa This process should not be viewed in isolation of the wider regional geo political context Nubia Ethiopia and the Crusading World 1095 1402 will appeal to all those interested in the history of the Crusades Nubia and Ethiopia particularly concerning inter regional physical and intellectual connectivity
