Hours, Rohan Master, 1959      The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture      Ocelli Nominum Wilma Fitzgerald, Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies, 1992      Medieval Death Paul Binski, 1996 In this richly illustrated volume Paul Binski provides an absorbing account of the social theological and cultural issues involved in death and dying in Europe from the end of the Roman Empire to the early sixteenth century He draws on textual archaeological and art historical sources to examine pagan and Christian attitudes toward the dead the aesthetics of death and the body burial ritual and mortuary practice Illustrated throughout with fascinating and sometimes disturbing images Binski s account weaves together close readings of a variety of medieval thinkers He discusses the impact of the Black Death on late medieval art and examines the development of the medieval tomb showing the changing attitudes toward the commemoration of the dead between late antiquity and the late Middle Ages In one chapter Binski analyzes macabre themes in art and literature including the Dance of Death which reflect the medieval obsession with notions of humility penitence and the dangers of bodily corruption In another he studies the progress of the soul after death through the powerful descriptions of Heaven Hell and Purgatory in Dante and other writers and through portrayals of the Last Judgment and the Apocalypse in sculpture and large scale painting      The Luminous Letters Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-08 The Luminous Letters is a journey through the history of illuminated manuscripts from their origins in the early Middle Ages to their continued existence today This book explores the different styles and techniques used by illuminators and discusses the role that illuminated manuscripts have played in history This book is a must have for anyone interested in the history of art religion or literature It is also a beautiful object in its own right with dozens of full color illustrations that bring the illuminated manuscripts to life In The Luminous Letters readers will learn about The history of illuminated manuscripts from their origins in the early Middle Ages to their continued existence today The different styles and techniques used by illuminators The role that illuminated manuscripts have played in history Some of the most famous illuminated manuscripts including the Book of Kells the Tr s Riches Heures du Duc de Berry and the Ghent Altarpiece The Luminous Letters is a stunning book that celebrates the beauty and artistry of illuminated manuscripts It is a must have for anyone interested in the history of art religion or literature This book is perfect for Art historians who want to learn more about the history of illuminated manuscripts Religious scholars who want to learn more about the role that illuminated manuscripts have played in the history of Christianity Literature lovers who want to learn more about the beautiful books that have been produced throughout history Anyone who is interested in the history of art religion or literature The Luminous Letters is a book that will be enjoyed by people of all ages It is a beautiful book that is full of interesting information It is a book that you will want to read again and again If you like this book write a review How Fra Angelico and Signorelli Saw the End of the World , In 1447 Fra Angelico received a commission to paint the interior of the Capella Nuova in the Cathedral of Orvieto in central Italy The subject chosen was the end of the world and the Last Judgement which filled the high vaulted ceiling the altar and side walls and the inner and outer bays The Rohan Book of Hours; Jean Porcher,2021-09-09 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Manuscripts Club Christopher de Hamel,2023-11-14 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice The acclaimed author of Meetings with Remarkable Manuscripts introduces us to the extraordinary keepers and companions of medieval manuscripts over a thousand years of history The illuminated manuscripts of the Middle Ages are among the greatest works of European art and literature We are dazzled by them and recognize their crucial role in the transmission of knowledge However we generally think much less about the countless men and women who made collected and preserved them through the centuries and to whom they owe their existence This entrancing book describes some of the extraordinary people who have spent their lives among illuminated manuscripts over the last thousand years a monk in Normandy a prince of France a Florentine bookseller an English antiquary a rabbi from central Europe a French priest a Keeper at the British Museum a Greek forger a German polymath a British connoisseur and the woman who created the most spectacular library in America all of them members of what Christopher de Hamel calls the Manuscripts Club This exhilarating fraternity and the fellow enthusiasts who come with it throw new light on how manuscripts have survived and been used by very different kinds of people in many different circumstances Christopher de Hamel s unexpected connections and discoveries reveal a passion that crosses the boundaries of time We understand the manuscripts themselves better by knowing who their keepers and companions have been In 1850 or thereabouts John Ruskin bought his first manuscript at a bookseller s in a back alley This was his reaction The new worlds which every leaf of this book opened to me and the joy I had in counting their letters and unravelling their arabesques as if they had all been of beaten gold as many of them were cannot be told The members of de Hamel s club share many such wonders which he brings to us with scholarship style and a lifetime s experience

The Apocalypse and the Shape of Things to Come Frances Carey,1999-01-01 The Book of Revelation s legacy of visual imagery is evaluated here from the 11th century to the end of World War 2 illuminated manuscripts books prints and drawings of apocalyptic phases are examined

The Sister Queens Mary McGrigor,2016-01-07 Isabella de Valois was 3 years old when on a hot August day in 1392 her father suddenly went mad Less than four years later she was married by proxy to the English King Richard II and arrived in England with a French retinue and her doll s house Richard s humiliating deposition and brutal murder by his cousin the future Henry IV forced Isabella s desperate return to France where she found her country fatally divided Isabella s sister Catherine de Valois became the beautiful young bride of Henry V and is unique in history for being the daughter of a king the wife of a king the mother of a king and the grandmother of a king Like her sister Catherine was viewed as a bargaining chip in times of political turmoil yet her passionate love affair with the young Owain Tudor established the entire Tudor dynasty and set in motion one of the most fascinating periods of British history The Sister Queens is a gripping tale of love exile and conflict in a time when even royal women had to fight for survival

Representing the Passions Richard Evan Meyer,2003 Through an interlocking series of texts and images this work explores how extreme sensations such as wonder misery ecstasy and rage have been portrayed at different moments in Western culture Moving across multiple fields of creative endeavour and intellectual inquiry from classical artefacts to Chicano art political protest to operatic performance Rene Descartes s writings on the soul to the Internet s digitised flesh it reveals how the passions have elicited eluded and transformed the act of representation

Wealthy Australian, Secret Son Margaret Way,2011-01-01 Charlotte Prescott is stunned when Riverbend homestead s new owner walks through the door All these years later her heart still beats to his name Rohan Costello Rohan was Charlotte s shining white knight until he disappeared before she had the chance to tell him she was pregnant Rohan is still torn over the woman he believes chose money over love Now a self made millionaire the tables have turned but a blond blue eyed little boy is about to change everything

Mixed Metaphors Stefanie Knöll,Sophie Oosterwijk,2015-06-18 This groundbreaking collection of essays by a host of international authorities addresses the many aspects of the Danse Macabre a subject that has been too often overlooked in Anglo American scholarship The Danse was once a major motif that occurred in many different media and spread across Europe in the course of the fifteenth century from France to England Germany Scandinavia Poland Spain Italy and Istria Yet the Danse is hard to define because it mixes metaphors such as dance di

The Medieval Chronicle IV Erik Kooper,2006 There are several reasons why the chronicle is particularly suited as the topic of a yearbook In the first place there is its ubiquity all over Europe and throughout the Middle Ages chronicles were written both in Latin and in the vernacular and not only in Europe but also in the countries neighbouring on it like those of the Arabic world Secondly all chronicles raise such questions as by whom for whom or for what purpose were they written how do they reconstruct the past what determined the choice of verse or prose or what kind of literary influences are discernable in them Finally many chronicles have been beautifully illuminated and the relation between text and image leads to a wholly different set of questions The yearbook The Medieval Chronicle aims to provide a representative survey of the on going research in the field of chronicle studies illustrated by examples from specific chronicles from a wide variety of countries periods and cultural backgrounds The Medieval Chronicle is published in cooperation with the Medieval Chronicle Society

Imago Mortis Ashby Kinch, 2013-02-01 Here Ashby Kinch argues for the affirmative quality of late medieval death art and literature providing a new interdisciplinary approach to a well known body of material

Antwerp Royal Museum Annua l2013-2014 Paul Vandebroek, 2016-12-28 At various points over the course of the 20th century the Belgian State and its various ministries and provinces consciously chose to subsidise not only the fine arts but also the applied and decorative arts and in particular the art of weaving tapestry On the one hand orders were placed for World Exhibitions and for Belgian embassies and on the other competitions were held for tapestries to be hung in important locations such as the United Nations and NATO headquarters and the exhibitions that were organized by the various ministries over the years They provided an overview of the ways in which this branch of the arts was changing as well as representative work by the best tapestry designers The exhibitions organized by the provincial authorities give quite a different image There were the highly conventional exhibitions of Brabantine tapestries to promote the craftsmanship of the province and there were the more innovative textile exhibitions Taken as a whole the commissions competitions and exhibitions give a good overview of what was happening in Belgium in the field of tapestry over the period 1945 1980 They also make it clear what image was being projected abroad that of a country with rich traditions master craftsmanship in weaving and in the 1970s some affiliation to the latest developments in European textile art
