ABSTRACT

The present study aims to investigate the current initiative and practices of Non Government Organizations (NGOs) in sustainable socio-economic development of the rural poor people of Bangladesh. NGOs in Bangladesh have virtually grown in vast numbers since the independence. It has been observed that from the late seventies, NGOs have been playing an increasingly important role in the nation's development process. The study used both primary data and secondary information. Primary data have been collected for this study using random sampling from 10 villages of 2 districts of Bangladesh. A number of techniques have been utilized to collected data from the respondents such as household survey, focus group discussions, in depth interviews and observations. The final valid sample (Sample 1 and Sample 2) size of respondents stood to 819 (750+69) who are the beneficiaries and officials of different NGOs located on those 10 villages of 2 districts. Mostly descriptive statistics have been used to conduct data analysis in this in governance especially in times of crisis The book's broad objective is to explore the role that NGOs play independently and in collaboration with government institutions and private firms in defining shaping and achieving the public good The focus is on NGOs that help to overcome the influence of recent crises including the COVID 19 pandemic and the war in Ukraine The book presents various examples of NGOs assisting in developing new services for refugees and other victims of the recent crises in developed as well as in developing countries The book answers the questions of how NGOs deal with migration human rights environmental issues polarization democracy and resilience in these turbulent times Changing Roles of NGOs in the Creation, Storage, and Dissemination of Information in Developing Countries Steve W. Witt, 2008-11-03 Non governmental organizations NGOs are growing exponentially In 1993 the Yearbook of International Organizations listed 16 000 internationally recognized NGOs By 2004 this number was 63 000 With this increase comes a staggering growth in the activities and intellectual output of NGOs working on a local and international level As the mission of both libraries and NGOs increasingly intersect these organizations must collaborate to provide essential services that revolve around the creation dissemination and storage of information This volume's eight essays focus on collaborative work between NGOs and libraries in the study and resolution of global issues ranging from AIDS to food security and social transformation The Rise of Japanese NGOs Kim D. Reimann, 2009-12-04 Looking at domestic politics transnational diffusion the state's relationship with civil society and societal actors the book demonstrates how and why NGOs active in global issues have become more visible in Japan and are now established players in the policy making process International Encyclopedia of Civil Society Helmut K. Anheier, Stefan Toepler, 2009-11-24 Recently the topic of civil society has generated a wave of interest and a wealth of new information Until now no publication has attempted to organize and consolidate this knowledge The International Encyclopedia of Civil Society fills this gap establishing a common set of understandings and terminology and an analytical starting point for future research Global in scope and authoritative in content the Encyclopedia offers succinct summaries of core concepts and theories definitions of terms biographical entries on important figures and organizational profiles In addition it serves as a reliable and up to date guide to additional sources of information In sum the Encyclopedia provides an overview of the contours of civil society social capital philanthropy and nonprofits across cultures and historical periods For researchers in nonprofit and civil society studies political science economics management and social enterprise this is the most systematic appraisal of a rapidly growing field Africa South of the Sahara 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 A definitive one volume guide to all sub Saharan African countries providing invaluable economic and directory data NGOs, Social Capital and Community Empowerment in Bangladesh M. Rezaul Islam, 2016-11-25 This pivot examines non governmental organization NGO interventions in two community development initiatives namely social capital and community empowerment and their role in funding and formulating development frameworks in developing countries like Bangladesh It considers the key development discourse issues of collective action social trust and access to knowledge to political processes and to financial social and natural resources Given the large proportion of foreign funding NGOs and donors also increasingly face the twin challenges of demonstrating both efficient and effective delivery of services and accountability in their relationships with various stakeholders Reflecting on the relevance of NGOs for community development and the merits challenges and limitations of NGO activities this book provides a comprehensive study of NGO participation in community development in Bangladesh and Third World countries more widely to highlight a global concern with international implications

Developing Sustainable Agriculture in Pakistan Iqrar Ahmad Khan, Muhammad Sarwar Khan, 2018-04-17 Agriculture plays a pivotal role in the economy and development of Pakistan providing food to consumers raw materials to industries and a market for industrial goods Unfortunately agricultural production is stagnant due to several barriers including a fixed cropping pattern reliance on a few major crops a narrow genetic pool poor seed quality and a changing climate In addition the high cost of production weak phytosanitary compliance mechanisms and a lack of cold chain facilities makes Pakistan agriculturally uncompetitive in export markets Despite all these issues agriculture is the primary industry in Pakistan and small farmers continue to dominate the business Small farmers grow crops for subsistence under a fixed cropping pattern and a holistic approach is required to develop agriculture to improve the livelihoods of the rural populace This book presents an exhaustive look at agriculture in Pakistan Chapters provide critical analyses of present trends inadequacies in agriculture strategic planning improvement programs and policies while keeping in view the natural resources plant and animal related agricultural production technologies input supplies population planning migration and poverty and balanced policies on finance credit marketing and trade

Rebalancing Public Partnership John Brothers, 2016-03-03 In the US as in many other Western economies federal and state government is working to become more involved with the nonprofit sector a sector in which many of the organizations are singularly ill prepared and strategically unaligned to fulfill the new role that is being asked of them Based on his original research John Brothers brings together leading thought leaders from the United States and around the world by exploring the prevailing attitudes and perceptions of the nonprofit sector towards government and vice versa and provides advice and direction to help both sides of the equation towards effective collaborative working The main themes cover the nature and implications of regulatory reform on the sector and how non government organizations should reengineer their practices There are also chapters on some of the hot button areas of government contracting and political advocacy The text includes best practice examples case studies as well as tools and templates from across the sectors Both sides of this emerging partnership need fast track education on each other's capabilities constraints and working practice Dr Brothers contributors provide some very valuable perspectives and insights that should inform and direct this process

Social Thoughts and Their Implications Kazi Abdur Rouf, 2018-12-18 The book contains social economy and green economy development different concepts theories ideas community development different thoughts citizenry skills development concepts poverty eradication and good governance approaches local living economics propositions and their implications in Bangladesh and in Canada with examples It narrates different concepts theories and approaches to green management development practices for sustainable business development The book has its roots analysing social development different thoughts and services to identify gaps and to solve environmental degradation problems employment generation poverty reduction and to identify sustainable bottom up social development approaches The discussions of the book explore the process of empowerment of gender development good governance and raising community solidarity capital development among disadvantaged people in Bangladesh and Canada Civil society agencies have been working for people s citizenship development local resource development ecological development women empowerment and community organizing thrive to civic education and develop networking among villagers since Bangladesh independence 1972 By reading this book readers can find latest information on social economic and green development different schemes and services initiated by NGOs and their implementing strategies and outcomes in Bangladesh and in Canada that are narrated in the book The book writes in a debate form in order to analyse social development different thoughts with examples to explore appropriate initiatives need to be taken for improving disadvantage people livelihoods in Bangladesh and Canada Civil Society in the Global South Palash Kamruzzaman, 2018-12-07 In recent years civil society has been seen as a key route for democracy promotion and solving development problems in low income countries However the very concept of civil society is deeply rooted in European traditions and values In pursuing civil society reform in non Western countries many scholars along with well meaning international agencies and donor organisations fail to account for non Western values and historical experiences Civil Society in the Global South seeks to redress this balance by offering diverse accounts of civil society from the global South authored by scholars and researchers who are reflecting on their observations of civil society in their own countries The countries studied in the volume range from across Africa Latin America Asia and the Middle East to give a rich account of how countries from the global south conceptualise and construct civil society The book demonstrates how local conditions are often unsuited to the ideal type of civil society as delineated in Western values for instance in cases where numerous political racial and ethnic sub groups are fighting for autonomy By disentangling local contexts of countries from across the global South this book demonstrates that it is important to view civil society through the lens of local conditions rather than viewing it as something that needs to be discovered or manufactured in non Western societies Civil Society in the Global South will be particularly useful to high level students and scholars within development studies sociology anthropology social policy politics international relations and human geography
