Rolling Homes Lloyd Kahn, 2022-03-08 If there s not a nomadic revolution going on these days there s certainly a nomadic movement In the last few years either for reasons of practicality high costs of rent or mortgages change in lifestyle or the search for adventure people are customizing all sorts of vehicles for travel If you search for van on Instagram you find scores of accounts such as projectvanlife with 1 2 million followers vanlifecamper 472 000 followers or fosterhunting 930 000 followers This book focuses on DIY vehicles with most of the 50 or so shown here fitted out for the road by their owners similar to the way that Shelter s books on building feature hand built homes There are vans sedans trucks busses and trailers with a wide array of designs and styles A number of the units are 4 wheel drive for off road travel The book is not only fun to browse through but is full of practical information such as stoves heaters battery charging refrigerators and water pumps designed for the road for anyone wanting to create their own on road home There are dozens of floor plans all sorts of sleeping arrangements and some unique stealth vehicles designed to be under the radar so that passersbys have no idea that someone is sleeping in a parked vehicle There is a European mini van outfitted by a young German woman who just graduated from architectural school and took a sabbatical to go surfing There are a number of camper truck shells all completely different There s a converted schoolbus that is used in both cold weather for skiing and in warm climates such as Baja California for surfing There s a converted horsetrailer furnished with Victorian antiques that is used at Burning Man There is a tiny Metro geo 3 cylinder sedan that is ingeniously designed for sleeping cooking and eating in the stealth mode In a way this is a scrapbook Most of the articles consist of stories and statistics as well as photos sent in by Shelter s network built up over 50 years of hands on people It s not a book that was designed in advance but rather a random and serendipitous collection from people in different parts of the world almost all of whom believe in using their own hands to create their own shelters

Dwell ,2002-12 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

Portable Houses Irene Rawlings, Mary Abel, 2004 Portable Houses features traditional movable dwellings around the world from a houseboat in Sausalito to a gypsy wagon in the English countryside Authors Irene Rawlings and Mary Abel provide essential information on making movable homes functional and practical along with chapters on acquiring the necessary tools and gear for travel problem solving with each type of portable house and converting the dream into highway legal reality With photography of some of the world s most ingenious and unique portable structures Portable Houses will inspire the migratory minded to turn ordinary modes of transportation into creative living spaces Rawlings proves that it really is possible for the dedicated nomadic do it yourselfer to make the road a comfortable home
