Meet Me in St. Louis Christopher Sergel, Sally Benson, 1978-12 Meet Me in St Louis was written by Sally Benson in 1941 It tells the story of the Smith family in 1903 who were looking forward to the 1904 World's Fair in St Louis. It was originally published in New Yorker magazine as The Kensington Stories and later adapted to become the major motion picture Meet Me in St Louis starring Judy Garland in 1944.

The Traveling Companion & Other Plays Tennessee Williams, 2016-03-04 Twelve previously uncollected experimental shorter plays: The Chalky White Substance, The Day on Which a Man Dies, An Occidental Noh Play, A Cavalier for Milady, The Pronoun I, The Remarkable Rooming House of Mme LeMonde, Kirche K che Kinder, An Outrage for the Stage, Green Eyes, The Parade, The One Exception, Sunburst, Will Mr Merriwether Return from Memphis, The Traveling Companion. Even with his great commercial success, Tennessee Williams always considered himself an experimental playwright. In the last 25 years of his life, his explorations increased especially in shorter forms and one act plays as Williams created performance pieces with elements of theater of the absurd, theater of cruelty, theater of the ridiculous, as well as motifs from Japanese forms such as Noh and Kabuki, high camp and satire and with innovative visual and verbal styles that were entirely his own. Influenced by Beckett, Genet and Pinter among others, Williams worked hard to expand the boundaries of the lyric realism he was best known for. These plays were explicitly intended to be performed off Broadway or regionally. Sometimes disturbing, sometimes outrageous, quite often the tone of these plays is rough, bawdy or even cartoonish. While a number of these plays employ what could be termed bizarre happy endings, others gaze unblinkingly into the darkness. Though several of Williams' lesser known works from this period have already been published by New Directions, these twelve plays have never been collected. Most of these shorter plays are unknown to audiences and scholars; some are published here for the first time, yet all of them embrace in one way or another what Time magazine called the four major concerns that have spurred Williams' dramatic imagination: loneliness, love, the violated heart, and the valiancy of survival. American Rose, 1918 Special Publication, Special Publications, 1938 Leveling in North Carolina U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, Norman F. Braaten, Charles Ernest McCombs, 1938 Biennial Report Wisconsin State Highway Commission, 1942
