waves This crew was of men to whom fear was almost unknown the stalwart Vikings of the North whose oar and sail driven barks now set out from the coasts of Norway and Denmark to ravage the shores of southern Europe now turned their prows boldly to the west in search of unknown lands afar Shall we describe this craft It was a tiny one in which to venture upon an untravelled ocean in search of an unknown continent a vessel shaped somewhat like a strung bow scarcely fifty feet in length low amidships and curving upwards to high peaks at stem and stern both of which converged to sharp edges It resembled an enormous canoe rather than aught else to which we can compare it On the stem was a carved and gilt dragon the figurehead of the ship which glittered in the bright rays of the sun Along the bulwarks of the ship fore and aft hung rows of large painted wooden shields which gave an Argus eyed aspect to the craft Between them was a double row of thole pins for the great oars which now lay at rest in the bottom of the boat but by which in calm weather this walker of the seas could be forced swiftly through the yielding element
