this two book bundle More than 130 reproductions bring to light paintings that have lain hidden for more than fifty years Includes The Beaver Hall Group and Its Legacy The Women of Beaver Hall The Society of Six Nancy Boas,1997 The Oakland Six may constitute the most important modernist development that occurred in this country during the 1920s William H Gerdts author of American Impressionism The Architecture of Andrew Thomas Taylor Susan Wagg,2013-04 How Andrew Thomas Taylor advanced the quality of architecture in Canada Art History W. McAllister Johnson,1990-01-01 These essays discuss major questions that should arise in courses in bibliography methodology and historiography once the survey courses are left behind Society of Six Nancy Boas,2023-09-01 Six plein air painters in Oakland California joined together in 1917 to form an association that lasted nearly fifteen years The Society of Six Selden Connor Gile Maurice Logan William H Clapp August F Gay Bernard von Eichman and Louis Siegfriest created a color centered modernist idiom that shocked establishment tastes but remains the most advanced painting of its era in Northern California Nancy Boas s well informed and sumptuously illustrated chronicle recognizes the importance of these six painters in the history of American Post Impressionism The Six found themselves in the position of an avant garde not because they set out to reject conventionality but because they aspired to create their own indigenous modernism While the artists were considered outsiders in their time their work is now recognized as part of the vital and enduring lineage of American art Depression hardship ended the Six s ascendancy but their painterliness use of color and deep alliance with the land and the light became a beacon for postwar Northern California modern painters such as Richard Diebenkorn and Wayne Thiebaud Combining biography and critical analysis Nancy Boas offers a fitting tribute to the lives and exhilarating painting of the Society of Six The Canadian Historical Review ,1982 Includes section Recent publications relating to Canada Mount Robson Jane Lytton Gooch,2013 When Jane Gooch first camped at Lake O Hara in 1975 she could not have foreseen how important the Rockies would become in her life She travelled from her home in Vancouver many times during the summer months to hike in the mountains and her love of the alpine landscape eventually inspired her to study the artists who have painted in the Rockies Her great enjoyment of the outdoors and a lifelong interest in art were combined with her academic background in writing and research Mount Robson Spiral Road of Art celebrates the centennial of Mount Robson Provincial Park with over a century of remarkable landscape paintings inspired by the Robson region in the Canadian Rockies This volume includes an extensive Introduction with historical and cultural background to the 50 colour plates all documented and described illustrating artists works in a variety of styles and media from 1907 2012 Early artists include A P Coleman the first explorer and Group of Seven members A Y Jackson and Lawren Harris In addition the works of 17 contemporary artists show that the Mount Robson area continues to stimulate landscape art up to the present Only 10 of the images have been published before North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century Jules Heller,Nancy G. Heller,2013-12-19 First Published in 1997 North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century A Biographical Dictionary was created to fill a gap of there being a comprehensive reference work like this available even though the bibliography in English on various aspects of the history of women artists has grown exponentially during the past ten years As researchers the editors have been frustrated many times by being unable to locate basic information about many of the artists included in this volume especially those working outside the United States This leads directly to another reason for producing this particular kind of reference book to try and create a better understanding between and among the artists and art audiences in these countries
