Matatu Kenda Mutongi, 2017-06-26 This prize winning study takes a unique ethnographic approach to reconstructing the history of Nairobi's privately owned urban transport. Martin A. Klein Prize Committee American Historical Association Drive the streets of Nairobi and you are sure to see many matatus colorful minibuses that transport huge numbers of people around the city. Once ramshackle affairs held together with duct tape matatus today are name brand vehicles maxed out with aftermarket detailing. They can be stately black or extravagantly colored sporting names slogans and airbrushed portraits of everyone from Kanye West to Barack Obama. In this richly interdisciplinary book Kenda Mutongi explores the history of the matatu from the 1960s to the present. As Mutongi shows matatus offer a window onto the socioeconomic and political conditions of late twentieth century Africa. In their diversity of idiosyncratic designs they reflect divergent aspects of Kenyan life from rapid urbanization and the transition to democracy to organized crime entrepreneurship social insecurity and popular culture. Offering a shining model of interdisciplinary analysis Mutongi mixes historical ethnographic literary linguistic and economic approaches to tell the story of the matatu and explore the entrepreneurial aesthetics of the postcolonial world.
