More Than A Story Hour:

Story Hour Jeri Kladder, 2003-07-10 Story time at the public library is the first exposure to books outside the home for many preschool children For the librarian it is an exciting opportunity to instill in youngsters a love of reading and books But coming up with new ideas that hold the children s attention can be trying Until now Here are 55 tried and true story hour programs with a thematic approach All are highly flexible and adaptable across the full preschool age range Most of the ideas are arranged under one of eight specific themes that include four to eight one hour programs barnyard animals the Caldecott Medal colors families a storytelling feast the five senses reptiles and amphibians and around the world There are also 18 individual holiday and seasonal programs All story hours provide ideas for name tags suggested audiovisual materials recommended story poetry and song selections additional titles and a full description of the activity The Brain Power

Story Hour Nancy J. Polette, 2014-01-10 While many texts explore ways to plan and implement story times in both school and public libraries until now no work has brought together extensive book talks and follow up activities specifically designed to develop thinking skills in young children This innovative study offers age appropriate book suggestions with related questions and activities tailored to a variety of thinking skills including verbal or linguistic thinking divergent and creative thinking analytical and mathematical thinking visual or spatial thinking and many others The program presented in this volume was successfully developed and implemented in the preschool kindergarten laboratory school of Lindenwood University in St Charles Missouri with 90 percent of the participating children selected for gifted programs in both public and private schools Ideal for children s librarians school librarians teachers of early childhood gifted programs parents and homeschoolers this study provides the tools for making any story hour a brain power story hour Toledo City Journal, 1919 Film William H. Phillips, 2009-01-02 This clear well illustrated text takes the reader through the basics of film analysis drawing on a wide range of film for discussion Questions of genre and the contexts and meanings of film are considered San Francisco Municipal Record, 1919 The Story Hour Nora Archibald Wiggin, Kate Douglas Smith, 2018-04-05 Reproduction of the original The Story Hour by Kate Douglas Wiggin Nora Archibald Smith The Education of Alice M. Jordan Gale Eaton, 2014-07-10 A biography of Alice M Jordan who headed children s work at the Boston Public Library BPL from 1902 to 1940 is long overdue Daughter of a Maine sea captain and a Massachusetts schoolteacher she was one of the pioneering generation of children s librarians women who entered the field when salaries were low progressive ideals high academic credentials spotty and the drive to professionalization was revolutionizing librarianship and education Modest and unassuming high school graduate Jordan worked effectively to improve educational opportunities for children and their librarians alike She taught at the Simmons Library School helped create the BPL Training School founded the New England Round Table of Children s Librarians NERTCL and mentored Bertha Mahony Miller founder of The Horn Book Magazine She had a national reputation among children s book editors and librarians for her critical acumen clear writing and astute advice Locally she networked tirelessly with Boston educators negotiated the placement of qualified children s librarians in all BPL branches and trained a generation of gifted youth workers all from a desk in the middle of a busy children s room She left a legacy of high standards for children s reading storytelling and reference services This biography draws on archival materials including Jordan s correspondence with poet Louise Imogen Guiney and Horn Book editor Miller BPL memos and reports and 1979 interviews with Jordan trainees I have shown her life and achievement in the context of social history from late nineteenth century women s economic opportunities to early twentieth century developments in librarianship especially at the BPL Each chapter has a brief list of milestones in Jordan and U S history The Volta Review ,1921 School ,1924 Storytelling Janice M. Del Negro,2021-06-24 This book serves as both a textbook and reference for faculty and students in LIS courses on storytelling and a professional guide for practicing librarians particularly youth services librarians in public and school libraries Storytelling Art and Technique serves professors students and practitioners alike as a textbook reference and professional guide It provides practical instruction and concrete examples of how to use the power of story to build literacy and presentation skills as well as to create community in those same educational spaces This text illustrates the value of storytelling covers the history of storytelling in libraries and offers valuable guidance for bringing stories to contemporary listeners with detailed instructions on the selection preparation and presentation of stories It also provides guidance around the planning and administration of a storytelling program Topics include digital storytelling open mics and slams and the neuroscience of storytelling An extensive and helpful section of resources for the storyteller is included in an expanded Part V of this edition The Audience of Matthew Cedric E. W. Vine,2014-04-24 This book seeks to establish the inadequacy of readings of the Gospel of Matthew as intended for and a reflection of a local audience or community Despite repeated challenges the local audience thesis continues to dominate a large proportion of Matthean scholarship and as such the issue of determining the Gospel s audience remains an open question This book posits four main critiques First the assumptions which underpin the text focused process of identifying the Gospel s audience whether deemed to be local Jewish or universal lack clarity Literary entities such as the implied reader the intended reader or the authorial audience prove inadequate as a means of identifying the Gospel s audience Second local audience readings necessarily exclude plot related developments and are both selective and restrictive in their treatment of characterisation Much is lost or ignored as a coherent and simplified audience context is derived from the complex narrative world of the Gospel Third this book argues that many in an audience of the Gospel would have incorporated their experience of hearing Matthew within pre existing mental representations shaped by Mark or other early traditions Thus they would have understood the Gospel as relating to events and settings distinct from their own context regardless of the degree to which they identified with characters or events in the Gospel Fourth this book argues that early Christian audiences were largely heterogeneous in terms of ethnicity age sex wealth familiarity with Christian traditions and levels of commitment As such the aural reception of the Gospel would have resulted in a variety of impacts A number of these critiques extend beyond the local audience option and for this reason this thesis does not posit a particular audience for the Gospel
