Arab Voices in Diaspora Layla Al Maleh, Layla Maleh, 2009 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallah Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa l S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarru Fadia Fayezy Suyoufie and its patriarch Elijah Muhammad with regards to the African American Islamic experience Contributors explore topics such as gender education politics and sociology from the African American perspective on Islam This volume offers a unique view of the longstanding Islamic discourse in the United States and its impact on the American cultural landscape The Oxford

Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arab country as well as Arab immigrant writing in many languages around the world Encyclopedia of African

Literature Simon Gikandi, 2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature's development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts

While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index The Anglo-Arab Encounter Geoffrey Nash, 2007 This concise study argues there is a qualitative difference between Arabic literature Arabic literature translated into English and a literature conceived and executed in English by writers of an Arab background It examines the corpus of a group of contemporary Arab writers who incorporate Arab subjects and themes into the English language African Literatures in English Gareth

Griffiths, 2014-09-19 Here is an introduction to the history of English writing from East and West Africa drawing on a range of texts from the slave diaspora to the post war upsurge in African English language and literature from these regions

The Burning Gates Parker Bilal, 2015-02-24 In Cairo private investigator Makana is called into the office of his new client a powerful art dealer known as Kasabian Kasabian wants him to track down a famous painting that went missing from Baghdad during the US invasion All the dealer can tell Makana is that the piece was smuggled into Egypt by an Iraqi war criminal who doesn't want to be found The world of art is a far cry from the shady streets and alleyways of the Cairo that Makana knows but he soon finds out that this side of the city has its own dark underbelly As he sets out to find the lost work of art and those involved in the case begin to die in horrific ways Makana finds himself entangled in a mystery that many have attempted to keep hidden The trail will lead him back into the dark days of the war and threaten to send the new life he has built for himself up in flames Nostalgia in Anglophone Arab Literature Tasnim Qutait, 2021-04-22 This book offers an in depth engagement with the growing body of Anglophone Arab fiction in the context of theoretical debates around memory and identity Against the critical tendency to dismiss nostalgia as a sentimental trope of immigrant narratives Qutait sheds light on the creative uses to which it is put in the works of Rabih Alameddine Ahdaf Soueif Hisham Matar Leila Aboulela Randa Jarrar Rawi Hage and others Arguing for the necessity of theorising cultural memory beyond Eurocentric frameworks the book demonstrates how Arab novelists writing in English draw on nostalgia as a touchstone of Arabic literary tradition from pre Islamic poetry to the present Qutait situates Anglophone Arab fiction within contentious debates about the place of the past in the Arab world tracing how writers have deployed nostalgia as an aesthetic strategy to deal with subject matter ranging from the Islamic golden age the era of anti colonial struggle the failures of the postcolonial state and of pan Arabism and the perennial issue of the diaspora s relationship to the homeland Making a contribution to the transnational turn in memory studies while focusing on a region underrepresented in this field this book will be of interest for researchers interested in cultural memory postcolonial studies and the literatures of the Middle East Eastern African Literatures

Russell West-Pavlov,2018 The book offers an overview of Eastern African writing in English since the mid twentieth century It shows how proximate modes of literary communication arising out of residual but vibrant traditions of oral communication blend with contemporary media to produce hybrid genres of proximity specific to Eastern African literary production

Being/s in Transit ,2021-11-22 This fifth volume of ASNEL Papers covers a wide range of theoretical and thematic approaches to the topics of travelling migration and dislocation All migrants are travellers but not all travellers are migrants Migration and the figure of the migrant have become key concepts in recent post colonial studies However migration is not such a new or exceptional phenomenon From the eighteenth century onward there have been migrations from Europe to what are now called post colonial countries and this prepared the ground for movement back to the old but also to the new centres of Europe and elsewhere Travel and travel experience on the other hand have been part of the cultural codes not only of the West and not only of imperialism The essays in this volume look at both kinds of movement at their intersections and at their dis locating effects They cover a wide range of topics from early seventeenth century travel reports through nineteenth century women s travel writing to such contemporary writers as Michael Ondaatje and Janette Turner Hospital

Negotiating Diasporic Identity in Arab-Canadian Students Wisam Kh. Abdul-Jabbar,2019-05-09 This book framed through the notion of double consciousness brings postcolonial constructs to sociopolitical and pedagogical studies of youth that have yet to find serious traction in education Significantly this book contributes to a growing interest among educational and curriculum scholars in engaging the pedagogical role of literature in the theorization of an inclusive curriculum Therefore this study not only recognizes the potential of immigrant literature in provoking critical conversation on changes young people undergo in diaspora but also explores how the curriculum is informed by the diasporic condition itself as demonstrated by this negotiation of foreignness between the student and selected texts Whitehavens Parker
