New Demographic Regime Population Challenges And Policy Responses:

The New Demographic Regime United Nations, Economic Commission for Europe, Nations Unies. Commission économique pour l'Europe, Fonds des Nations Unies pour la population, United Nations. Economic Commission for Europe, United Nations Population Fund, 2005 This publication contains papers presented at the European Population Forum 2004 held in Geneva in January 2004 under the auspices of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe UNECE and the United Nations Population Fund UNFP The Forum discussed a range of issues organised under four key themes global population and development trends from a European perspective childbearing and parenting in low fertility countries morbidity mortality and reproductive health challenges in transition economies international migration and ways of promoting management and integration Demographic Challenges for the 21st Century Johan Surkyn, 2008 Inspired by the work of Ron Lesthaeghe retired Belgian professor of demography and social science research methodology this collection of contributions is also based on a conference entitled Demographic Challenges for the 21st Century A State of the Art in Demography During Ron Lesthaeghe's tenure he established himself as a scholar publishing highly influential work that changed the face of demography and founded the research group Interface Demography Most of his research was in the various subfields of demography historical social and economic and mainly covered populations of Europe and of sub Saharan Africa He also researched the fields of cultural change in Europe and of ethnic minority studies This book offers a collection of tributes to his contribution to demography presented by leading international demographers People, Population Change and Policies Charlotte Höhn, Dragana Avramov, Irena E. Kotowska, 2008-03-08 This two volume work explores social cohesion and the demographic challenges of low birth rates and population aging Authors approach the topic from the perspective of citizens and policymakers analyzing attitudes from 14 European countries on demographic trends and expectations towards private networks and public policies Volume 2 focuses on family and family change value of children fertility intentions and views on work family balance The Contextual Challenges of Occupational Sex Segregation Stephanie Steinmetz, 2011-12-15 This study untangles the complex interplay of individual and contextual factors shaping cross national differences in horizontal and vertical occupational sex segregation It relates the individual factors affecting occupational decisions to the broader social and economic context within a given society Following this approach Stephanie Steinmetz provides a comprehensive overview of the development and causes of cross national differences in occupational sex segregation She offers insights into the positioning of 21 EU Members States particularly of former CEE countries Based on advanced multi level models the study shows that institutional factors such as the organization of educational systems post industrial developments social policies and the national gender culture play a crucial role in shaping sex segregation processes apart from individual factors The author clarifies that a distinct set of institutional factors is relevant to each of the two dimensions of occupational sex segregation and that these factors operate in different directions some reduce horizontal segregation while at the same time aggravating the vertical aspect Finally the study assesses the empirical findings from a political perspective by addressing the future contextual challenges of EU Member States seeking to attain higher gender equality on the labour market Demographic Research, Volume 17: Book I Demographic Research,2008

Interpersonal Relations Across the Life Course Timothy J Owens,J. Jill Suitor,2007-09-05 This volume number 12 is subtitled Interpersonal Relations across the Life Course It is inspired by the increased awareness in recent years of the way in which structural and psychosocial dimensions of the life course shape interpersonal relations Interest in this issue has included both the maintenance of long term relationships that may span many phases of the life course and the development of relationships that are specific to particular phases The volume is a combination of invited and author initiated papers all anonymously peer reviewed that seeks to present a cohesive source of information on the multiform nature and influences of interpersonal relations from a variety of perspectives theoretical frames and substantive areas Contributions reflect Macro micro linkages and interpersonal relations i e age structures social institutions and race ethnicity Parenting across the life course Parent adult child relations and transitions Transitions in non kin relationships Social relationships and well being

The European Second Generation Compared Maurice Crul,Jens Schneider,Frans Lelie,2012-08-01 Based on data collected by the TIES survey in 15 cities across 8 European countries looks at the place and position of the children of immigrants from Turkey Morocco and the former Yugoslavia Population and Society Gregg Lee Carter,2016-04-29 This exciting new book presents the field of social demography animating the study of population with a vibrant sociological imagination Gregg Lee Carter provides multiple demonstrations of how taking a demographic perspective can give us a better understanding of social phenomena once thought to be largely the products of culture politics or the economy Five key chapters concentrate on 1 the social and individual determinants of fertility mortality and migration 2 the social and individual impacts of changing levels of fertility mortality and migration and 3 the impacts of overpopulation on the environment and how changes in the environment in turn impact the human condition especially regarding migration What gives these analyses coherence is how each emphasizes the ways in which demographic forces both reflect and limit individual choices Written in a straightforward and engaging style and without getting bogged down in academic debates this concise book is the ideal introduction and primer for courses in social demography and population and society Families in Converging Europe E. Oinonen,2008-04-30 This book examines common familial trends and differences throughout Europe from the 1960s onwards and discusses the most common theoretical explanations for convergence and divergence Eriikka Oinonen reveals how structural factors such as the labour market the welfare state and the EU affect Europeans family related choices Social Structures K. Warner Schaie,Peter Uhlenberg,2007-03-23 Significant demographic changes are altering the structure of the American population Larger numbers of immigrants are entering the work force will become part of our aging population and increasingly are providing care for the elderly Family structures and communities are evolving as marriage childbearing divorce and cohabitation trends are changing The working population that supports the elderly physically and economically is also changing and will most likely become smaller and less able to support this growing population What does this mean for the well being of our aging population and our efforts to ensure the quality of life for our elderly now and that we will want to enjoy ourselves as we become part of this older population In this volume Drs Schaie and Uhlenberg and a host of leading scholars look at the current structure of the American population in an effort to determine the impact it will have on the lives of the elderly and those growing older with disabilities and chronic illness They examine the effects of the aging baby boomers on health care migration and immigration and how it can support or tax health care networks cultural issues regarding access to health care and changing cultural attitudes towards marriage and family that are affecting the relationships between the elderly and their communities Families and Social Policy Linda Haas, Steven K. Wisensale, 2006-11-01 Empirical research that describes ways to best handle social problems concerning families Leading authorities studies show that from the effects of globalization many social and family problems and their solutions tend to be similar in nations world wide Families and Social Policy National and International Perspectives explores

The Challenge of Migration in a Janus-Faced Europe Laura Zanfrini, 2018-11-19 This book critically investigates the origins and consequences of the Janus faced character of attitudes and policies towards migrants that seek to penetrate Fortress Europe Beginning with an examination of its founding ambitions it locates the roots of an ingrained ambivalence in the legacies of the post war period and the unresolved tension between the economicism of the European approach to labour migration and the philosophy of rights and solidarity embedded in the EU project It highlights how the formalization of citizenship rights has produced both formal pathways towards inclusion for migrants and in their selective eligibility criteria exclusive systems of civic stratification The author links this oscillation between positions of closure and openness to the paradoxical trade offs in migration policies in particular labour market integration demonstrated through unequal labour market outcomes lower social mobility and educational attainments The issues faced by migrants offspring in Europe are examined as paradigmatic of the struggle to balance competing calls for both pluralism and uniformity to create a diverse society that can also project a homogenous collective identity This balanced overview will provide an invaluable resource for students of migration studies European politics public policy international relations and the sociology of racism The EU's Policy on the Integration of Migrants Pierre Georges Van Wolleghem, 2018-09-26 This book addresses a timely yet largely overlooked issue in political science the integration of migrants in a multilevel polity In a context characterised by the increasing salience of migration related questions and despite the gradual construction of a European Union immigration policy over the past two decades no competence was ever created on integration matters The emergence of a consistent ensemble of soft instruments in this policy realm in the 2000s unveiled an original pattern of EU policy formation Can there be Europeanization without an EU competence That is the question this original piece of research tackles It shows how the way in which the policy emerged at EU level affected policy outputs adopted thereafter throughout the policy cycle Mixing qualitative and quantitative methods it explains the development of the EU integration policy and examines its main policy device the European Integration Fund from negotiation to implementation

Economies Lynn Prince Cooke, 2011-03-17 This book offers an in depth analysis of gender class equality across six countries to reveal why gender class equality in paid and unpaid work remains elusive and what more policy might do to achieve better social and economic outcomes

Migration and Culture Gil Epstein, Ira Gang, 2010-12-16 Culture plays a central role in our understanding of migration as an economic phenomenon This title emphasises on the distinctions in culture between migrants the families they left behind and the local population in the migration destination

Governing Migration for Development from the Global Souths, 2022-09-12 The 14th thematic volume of International Development Policy provides perspectives through case studies from the global Souths focusing on the challenges and opportunities of governing migration on the subnational national regional and international levels Bringing together some thirty authors from Africa Latin America and Asia the book explores existing and new policies and frameworks in terms of their successes and best practices and looks at them through the lens of additional challenges such as those brought on by the COVID 19 pandemic the rise of nationalisms and an increase in xenophobia The chapters also take the 5 Ps approach to sustainable development people planet prosperity peace and partnerships and assess how migration policies serve sustainable development in a rapidly evolving context Contributors are Yousra Abourabi Gabriela Agosto Belkis Aracena Andrea Fernandez Benitez Macarena Chepo Amanda Coffie Jonathan Crush Mar a del Consuelo D vila Perez D lidji Eric Degila Jenny Lind Elmaco Ren Leyva Flores Luisa Feline Freier Silvia Nez Garcia Marcela Pezoa Gonzalez Binod Khadria Ariel Gonzalez Levaggi Wei Li Meixin Liu Ling Ma Ratnam Mishra Daniel Naujoks Claudia Padilla Karol Rojas Fabiana Rubinstein Yining Tan Narender Thakur Gerasimos Tsourapas Valeria Marina Valle and Jossette Iribarne Wiff

Integration Processes and Policies in Europe Blanca Garcés-Mascareñas, Rinus Penninx, 2015-10-26 In this open access book experts on integration processes integration policies transnationalism and the migration and development framework provide an academic assessment of the 2011 European Agenda for the Integration of Third Country Nationals which calls for integration policies in the EU to involve not only immigrants and their society of settlement but also actors in their country of origin Moreover a heuristic model is developed for the non normative analytical study of integration processes and policies based on conceptual demographic and historical accounts The volume addresses three interconnected issues What does research have to say on the study of integration processes in general and on the relevance of actors in origin countries in particular What is the state of the art of the study of integration policies in Europe and the use of the concept of integration in policy formulation and practice Does the proposal to include actors in origin countries as important players in integration policies find legitimation in empirical research A few general conclusions are drawn First integration policies have developed at many levels of government nationally locally regionally and at the supra national level of the EU Second a multitude of stakeholders has become involved in integration as policy designers and implementers Finally a logic of policymaking and not an evidence based scientific argument can be said to underlie the European Commission s redefinition of integration as a three way process This book will appeal to academics and policymakers at international European national regional and local levels It will also be of interest to graduate and master level students of political science sociology social anthropology international relations criminology geography and history

What Democracy Is For Stein Ringen, 2009-03-09 In this provocative book Stein Ringen argues that the world s democracies are failing to live up to their ideals the United States and Great Britain most especially The core value of democracy he contends is freedom the freedom to live a good life according to one s own choosing Yet he shows that democracy s freedom is on the decline Citizens are increasingly distrustful of political systems weighted by money and they don t participate in political affairs as they once did Ringen warns of the risks we face if this trend continues and puts forth an ambitious proposal for democratic reforms The issues that concern him are ones that should concern us all They include education poverty the social and economic roles of families the lack of democracy in our economic lives and the need to rejuvenate municipal democracy Along the way Ringen proposes policy solutions aimed at restoring democracy such as universal vouchers for education substituting the principle of individual insurance for social welfare pensions and rethinking how we measure poverty in rich and poor countries He calls for the revival of local democracy a democratically grounded global economy and the protection of political democracy from the transgressions of economic power The way to protect democracy is not to cheer it but to reform it What Democracy Is For offers a bold defense of democratic ideals grounded in real reforms

The Civic Citizens of Europe Moritz Jesse, 2016-10-05 In The Civic Citizens of Europe The Legal Potential for Immigrant Integration in the EU Belgium Germany and the United Kingdom Moritz Jesse analyses the legal framework within which inclusion of immigrants into the receiving societies can take place The inclusion of immigrants cannot be enforced by law However legislation must provide the room within which integration can take place legally By studying residence titles procedures rights to family migration permanent residence and integration measures in a comparative and critical way Jesse wants to discover whether the legal potential for integration in the EU and the three Member States is sufficient for the inclusion of immigrants

Family, Ties and Care Hans Bertram, Nancy Ehlert, 2011-11-29 Families international the new milestone How may care be secured particularly in ageing societies how may families relatives and friends support each other and live together beyond market reasons How can social welfare be secured How do different countries and different cultures solve the problems they may or may not now or in days to come share with other countries and cultures Families as is found in this publication by internationally renowned experts are the base and well of society s fortune in a humane paradigm Furthermore it is the very backbone of lifelong solidarity in inter generational relations and the very place where the readiness of taking on care and responsibility are experienced and learned The publication's underlying idea opens up two perspectives on the one hand differences and similarities in family life forms are chiselled out on the base of an international cooperation Simultaneously the international authors are called upon to express their ideas about their own country's future more distinctly and clearly thus distinctions and similarities of the respective paths of development are rather easily perceived
