New Directions in Jewellery, New Directions in Jewellery II. Lin Cheung, 2006

Unique by Design: Contemporary Jewelry in the Donna Schneier Collection Ramljak, Suzanne, 2014-05-02 Studio jewelry dissolves the modern distinction between decorative and fine arts The 60 pieces in this lively volume collected by Donna Schneier and donated to The Metropolitan Museum of Art were created primarily from the early 1960s to the present day and show a fluid engagement with various traditions in jewelry making from old masterworks to contemporary pieces as well as various 20th century art movements such as Conceptual art Arte Povera and Surrealism Unique by Design draws attention to these dazzling small works of art most of which have never before been published Although these pieces incorporate a variety of materials ranging from the precious to the ordinary they share some common traits that reflect the collector's tastes with elegance fantasy imagination social observation and technical virtuosity Above all these works were made to be worn and to create a dynamic engagement with a body Publisher's website

Sustainable Jewellery Julia Manheim, 2009-05-30

Sustainability is foremost in the minds of many designer makers at the moment there has been a surge of environmentally sustainable developments in the collections shown recently at Origin New Designers in Islington Pulse and Collect Jewellers are very aware of sustainability issues as such a large proportion of their traditional materials come from non sustainable sources precious stones and metals and they have traditionally used acids dyes and other techniques not renowned for their eco friendliness This book will encourage makers to recycle and show how pre loved or traditionally throw away materials can provide new inspiration Includes stunning photos of the work of established and experimental jewellers from around the world

Mixed Media Jewellery Joanne Haywood, 2009-05-15 A highly illustrated how to do it book incorporating a thorough introduction to a range of materials and techniques as well as a section on designing your own pieces The focus is on experimenting and combining exciting materials to create unique and individual work

Exhibiting Craft and Design Alla Myzelev, 2017-06-14 Exhibiting Craft and Design Transgressing the White Cube Paradigm investigates the firmly established manner in which craft and design have typically been presented by museums and galleries what strategies curators have employed throughout the twentieth century and especially in more recent years how exhibiting design and craft objects challenges the notion of the modernist White Cube display paradigm

Gender and Jewelry Rebecca Ross Russell, 2010 Jewelry responds to our most primitive urges for control honor and sex It is at once the most ancient and most immediate of art forms one that is defined by its connection and interaction with the body In this sense it is inescapably political its meaning bound to the possibilities of the body it lies on Indeed the fate of the body is often bound to the jewelry This study looks at gender and jewelry in order to gain some understanding into how jewelry is constructed by and constructs not just a single society but human societies It will explore how societal traditions that have sprung up around jewelry and ornamentation have affected the possibilities available to women across a broad spectrum of social and ethnic circumstances determining which have served women well and which are constrictive and destructive It also examines the possibilities for the intentional creation of feminist jewelry including an overview of the author's own work
