New Directions In Literature Critical Approaches To A Contemporary Phenomenon:

Literature of Europe and America in the 1960s Spencer Pearce, Don Piper, 1989 The nouveau roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism Adam Guy, 2019-12-05 The nouveau roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism recovers a neglected literary history In the late 1950s news began to arrive in Britain of a group of French writers who were remaking the form of the novel In the work of Michel Butor Marguerite Duras Robert Pinget Alain Robbe Grillet Nathalie Sarraute and Claude Simon the hallmarks of novelistic writing discernible characters psychological depth linear chronology were discarded in favour of other aesthetic horizons Transposed to Britain's highly polarized literary culture the nouveau roman became a focal point for debates about the novel For some the nouveau roman represented an aberration and a pernicious turn against the humanistic values that the novel embodied For others it provided a route out of the stultifying conventionality and conformism that had taken root in British letters On both sides one question persisted given the innovations of interwar modernism to what extent was the nouveau roman actually new This book begins by drawing on publishers archives and hitherto undocumented sources from a wide range of periodicals to show how the nouveau roman was mediated to the British public Of central importance here is the publisher Calder Boyars and its belief that the nouveau roman could be enjoyed by a mass public The book then moves onto literary responses in Britain to the nouveau roman focusing on questions of translation realism the end of empire and the writing of the project From the translations of Maria Jolas through to the hostile responses of the circle around C P Snow and onto the literary debts expressed in novels by Brian W Aldiss Christine Brooke Rose Eva Figs B S Johnson Alan Sheridan Muriel Spark and Denis Williams the nouveau roman is shown to be a central concern in the postwar British literary field The Durham University Journal University of Durham, 1970 New Directions in Literature John Fletcher, 1968 New Directions in Contemporary Sociological Theory Joseph Berger, Morris Zelditch (Jr.), 2002 This book introduces some of the most influential recent sociological theories each covered in an essay written by the theory's founder or by a leading exponent Presented in nontechnical language each essay reviews the key positions and supporting research many incorporate discussion of critical or opposing positions This unique book serves as an invaluable advanced introduction or review for graduate or upper level students who want to gain an understanding of important theoretical advances Visit our website for sample chapters to focus on notions of hybridity where terms were not fixed but were constantly shifting and mobile The central idea of the book is that after horror Gothic film was dragged into disrepute by the rise of torture porn and endless North American remakes a set of international filmmakers are seeking to emphasize the aesthetic artistic and philosophical potential of the Gothic Such filmmakers include Guillermo del Toro Crimson Peak Ana Lily Amirpour A Girl Walks Home Alone at Night Park Chan wook The Handmaiden Stoker Tomas Alfredson Let the Right One In Wim Wenders Only Lovers Left Alive Ben Wheatley A Field in England Jane Campion Top of the Lake and Carol Morley The Falling Although written in an accessible manner the book incorporates theory and engages extensively into research to tap into key developments in Gothic studies transnationalism fandom and genre fiction and transmedia exchanges bringing these together along with popular culture and associated phenomena
