Takeuchi, 2015-07-25 In this book the functions and dynamics of enterprises are explained with the use of anthropological methods. The chapters are based on anthropological research that has continued mainly as an inter university research project which is named Keiei Jinruigaku of the National Museum of Ethnology Japan since 1993. These studies have a twofold aim to clarify that enterprises are not only actors in economic activity but also actors that create culture and civilization and to find the raison d'être of enterprises in a global society. Business anthropology is an approach to the investigation of various phenomena in enterprises and management using anthropological methodology e.g. participant observations and interviews. Historically its origin goes back to the 1920s-30s. In the Hawthorne experiments the research group organized by Elton Mayo recruited an anthropologist Lloyd W. Warner and conducted research on human relations in the workplace by observation of participants. Since then similar studies have been carried out in the United States and the United Kingdom. In Japan however such research is quite rare. Now in addition to anthropological methods the authors have employed multidisciplinary methods drawn from management economics and sociology. The research contained here can be characterized in these ways:

1. Research methods adopt interpretative approaches such as hermeneutic and/or narrative approaches rather than causal and functional explanations such as cause-consequence relationships.
2. Multidisciplinary approaches including qualitative research techniques are employed to investigate the total entity of enterprises with their own cosmology.

In this book the totality of activities by enterprises are shown including the relationship between religion and enterprise, corporate funerals, corporate museums and the sacred space and/or mythology of enterprises. Part I provides introductions to Keiei Jinruigaku and Part II explains the theoretical characteristics of Keiei Jinruigaku. In addition research topics and cases of Keiei Jinruigaku are presented in Part III.

Georgia International Monetary Fund, 2003-11-10 Since the conclusion of the last Article IV Consultation in October 2001 Georgia's macroeconomic performance has been encouraging. The 2003 Article IV Consultation and program discussions were held against the backdrop of protracted deviations from the IMF supported program. Discussions with government officials and the business community highlighted the need for bolder efforts to improve Georgia's business environment and investment climate.

Convergence Dr. Christian Saxtoft, 2008-04-30 Convergence User Expectations, Communications Enablers and Business Opportunities offers a user-centric and business-oriented analysis of the rapidly changing communications industry. Clear summaries of key technology areas provide the backdrop for an extensive analysis of the expectations set by users and the challenges and opportunities this presents to companies. The process of convergence is characterised by complex interactions between different technical fields, business areas and end-user relations where traditional telecommunications services, internet-based services and media broadcast services are blending into a continuum of rich new offerings. With these changes the existing hardwired links between user services and specific industry segments are rapidly dissolving. Presents guide to end-user market trends and expectations. Includes models and analysis of new industry structures and dynamics. Contains comprehensive discussion of innovation as a business driver Provides wide range of references to reflect the cross disciplinary scope of convergence Offers motivation and suggestions for refocus of key business strategies Convergence bridges the fields of business economics technology and social studies and analyses business models and practices from across a range of industry segments The wide scope makes the book an ideal text for technically minded executives business oriented engineers and anyone with an interest in the intricacies of the convergence triggered market changes What Works! ,1997 The Entrepreneur and New Enterprise Formation John L.
