Crow, 2008-04-15 The Blackwell Companion to American Regional Literature is the most comprehensive resource yet published for study of this popular field The most inclusive survey yet published of American regional literature Represents a wide variety of theoretical and historical approaches Surveys the literature of specific regions from California to New England and from Alaska to Hawaii Discusses authors and groups who have been important in defining regional American literature New Growth/2 Mark Busby, 1993 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1995 Olderr's Fiction Index , 1989 The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy, 2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction Writers Forum , 1994 Unfinalized Moments Derek Parker Royal, 2012-01-06 Focusing on a diversely rich selection of writers the pieces featured in Unfinalized Moments Essays in the Development of Contemporary Jewish American Narrative explore the community of Jewish American writers who published their first book after the mid 1980s It is the first book length collection of essays on this subject matter with contributions from the leading scholars in the field The manuscript does not attempt to foreground any one critical agenda such as Holocaust writing engagements with Zionism feminist studies postmodern influences or multiculturalism Instead it celebrates the presence of a newly robust diverse and ever evolving body of Jewish American fiction This literature has taken a variety of forms with its negotiations of orthodoxy its representations of a post Holocaust world its reassertion of folkloric tradition its engagements with postmodernity its reevaluations of Jewishness and its alternative delineations of ethnic identity Discussing the work of authors such as Allegra Goodman Michael Chabon Tova Mirvis Rebecca Goldstein Pearl Abraham Jonathan Rosen Nathan Englander Melvin Jules Bukiet Tova Reich Sarah Schulman Ruth Knafo Setton Ben Katchor and Jonathan Safran Foer the fifteen contributors in this collection assert the ongoing vitality and ever growing relevancy of Jewish American fiction
