Persistent Forms Ilya Kliger, Boris Maslov, 2015-12-14 Since the mid 1980s attempts to think history and literature together have produced much exciting work in the humanities Indeed some form of historicism can be said to inform most of the current scholarship in literary studies including work in poetics yet much of this scholarship remains undertheorized Envisioning a revitalized and more expansive historicism this volume builds on the tradition of Historical Poetics pioneered by Alexander Veselovsky 1838 1906 and developed in various fruitful directions by the Russian Formalists Mikhail Bakhtin and Olga Freidenberg The volume includes previously untranslated texts of some of the major scholars in this critical tradition as well as original contributions which place that tradition in dialogue with other thinkers who have approached literature in a globally comparatist and evolutionary historical spirit The contributors seek to challenge and complement a historicism that stresses proximate sociopolitical contexts through an engagement with the longue durée of literary forms and institutions In particular Historical Poetics aims to uncover deep historical stratifications and asynchronicities in which formal solutions may display elective affinities with other chronologically distant solutions to analogous social and political problems By recovering the traditional nexus of philology and history Persistent Forms seeks to reinvigorate poetics as a theoretical discipline that would respond to such critical and intellectual developments as Marxism New Historicism the study of world literature practices of distant reading and a renewed attention to ritual oral poetics and genre
