Making a Promised Land Paula J. Massood, 2013-01-22 Making a Promised Land examines the interconnected histories of African American representation urban life and citizenship as documented in still and moving images of Harlem over the last century Paula J Massood analyzes how photography and film have been used over time to make African American culture visible to itself and to a wider audience and charts the ways in which the Mecca of the New Negro became a battleground in the struggle to define American politics aesthetics and citizenship Visual media were first used as tools for uplift and education With Harlem s downturn in fortunes through the 1930s narratives of black urban criminality became common in sociological tracts photojournalism and film These narratives were particularly embodied in the gangster film which was adapted to include stories of achievement economic success and later in the century a nostalgic return to the past Among the films discussed are Fights of Nations 1907 Dark Manhattan 1937 The Cool World 1963 Black Caesar 1974 Malcolm X 1992 and American Gangster 2007 Massood asserts that the history of photography and film in Harlem provides the keys to understanding the neighborhood s symbolic resonance in African American and American life especially in light of recent urban redevelopment that has redefined many of its physical and demographic contours New

Jack City 2 Tjwan White,2012-03-06 New Jack City 2 Son of Nino by Tjwan White Nino Brown was once a household name Not only was his name synonymous with money but terror as well He ranked up there with some of the biggest names in the criminal world like Nicky Barnes John Gotti Lucky Luciano and Frank Lucas Most remember him as an angry and vicious tyrant who wreaked absolute havoc on the poor and the weak while he got fat off the land His widely publicized murder was a shock to everyone except the man who committed it In wake of his death he left behind a living legacy that not even his closest associates knew about A son After Nino s murder Uniqua Andrews his son s mother felt the need for a change of scenery as well as a safe environment for her son to grow up in After little Nino is born he and Uniqua leave New Jack City hoping to never return again But after 18 years of living a virtually uneventful life elsewhere the place they have made their home is no longer a safe haven for them Things happen and changes have to be made and though she doesn t want to listen she can hear their former home calling them urging them to return Now back in New Jack City Nino s son is the one person who can more than likely resurrect the highly feared and legendary group of hustlers called the Cash Money Brothers better known to everyone as CMB Young Nino struggles to rise in the ranks and take his rightful position as heir to the throne and reign in his father s absence as the king of New Jack City God help us all The Stuff of Spectatorship Caetlin

Benson-Allott,2021-04-06 Film and television create worlds but they are also of a world a world that is made up of stuff to which humans attach meaning Think of the last time you watched a movie the chair you sat in the snacks you ate the people around you maybe the beer or joint you consumed to help you unwind all this stuff shaped your experience of media and its influence on you The material culture around film and television changes how we make sense of their content not to mention the very concepts of the mediums Focusing on material cultures of film and television reception The Stuff of Spectatorship argues that the things we share space with and consume as we consume television and film influence the meaning we gather from them This book examines the roles that six different material cultures have played in film and television culture since the 1970s including video marketing branded merchandise drugs and alcohol and even gun violence and shows how objects considered peripheral to film and television culture are in fact central to its past and future The Ultimate Book of Gangster Movies George Anastasia,Glen Macnow,2011-09-27 The Ultimate Book of Gangster Movies provides extensive reviews of the Top 100 gangster films of all time including sidebars like Reality Check Hit and Miss I Know That Guy Body Count and other fun and informative features
