

A man and a woman are walking along a pebbly beach at dusk. The man, in the foreground, is wearing a dark turtleneck and looking towards the right. The woman, slightly behind him, is wearing a dark dress with a light-colored shawl draped over her shoulders and is also looking to the right. The background shows the calm sea meeting a sky with soft, purple and blue hues. The overall mood is serene and romantic.

New Kind Of Love:

The New Kind of Love E. W. Kenyon, 2025-07-15 The two greatest forces in the world today are love and selfishness Natural human love has failed because it is based upon selfishness Does God have a solution for this problem We believe that He has It is The New Kind of Love that has been overlooked by the church but has recently been rediscovered This book unveils the new kind of love that Jesus brought to the world This love comes into a barren life and makes it blossom as a rose It takes away the hardness and bitterness of life There will be no empty lives no barren lives Every life may become a garden of delight God has made it possible To walk in love is actually to live in God It is the realm where the Word dominates where faith functions Faith grows in the atmosphere of love It becomes a dominating and creative force when love really rules This new kind of love agape was born in the realm of divine revelation It is a deep and profound sacrificial love that transcends and persists regardless of circumstances A NEW KIND OF LOVE Patrick Aks ,1982 The Form of Love James

Kuzner, 2021-08-03 Can poetry articulate something about love that philosophy cannot The Form of Love argues that it can In close readings of seven metaphysical poems the book shows how poets of the early modern period and beyond use poetic form to turn philosophy to other ends in order not to represent the truth about love but to create a virtual experience of love in all its guises The Form of Love shows how verse creates love that can't exist without poetry's specific affordances and how poems can in their impossibility prompt love's radical re-imagining Like the philosophies on which they draw metaphysical poems imagine love as an intense form of non-sovereignty of giving up control They even imagine love as a liberating bondage to a friend a beloved a saint a God or a garden Yet these poems create strange striking versions of such love made in rather than through the devices structures and forces where love appears Tracing how poems think Kuzner argues requires an intimate form of reading close even too close attention to and thinking with the text Showing how poetry thinks of love otherwise than other fields the book reveals how poetry and philosophy can nevertheless enter into a relation that is itself like love The Origin of Love Ryūhō Ōkawa, 2003 Love is what we all admire it is our ideal True love is revealed in the beauty and brightness of our souls Love begins with the idea that we all originated from one God and that we are essentially one with others Why do people love each other or hate each other In this book spiritual teacher Ryuho Okawa answers this question by referring to the origin of love in relation to the secret of eternal life When you understand the Truth about love you will be awakened to the wonder of being given life and you will be filled with love for those around you Family

Bonding Gifty Agyemang, 2015-04-17 This book has come at this critical moment when families are tearing apart for various reasons It is therefore a voice crying in the cities towns and villages for families to be properly bonded as required by the chief architect of marriage God almighty The contents of this book therefore have the full potential to encourage families to stay and live together in peace This is against the backdrop of the collapse of the family system which not only affects individuals but also society at large The book passionately calls on all and sundry to endeavour to guard jealously the priceless family unit because what shall it profit a man if he gains the whole world but loses his family Love and Other Technologies Dominic Pettman, 2006 Can love really be considered another form of technology Dominic Pettman says it can although not before carefully redefining technology as a cultural challenge to what we mean by the human in the information age Using the writings of such important thinkers as Giorgio Agamben Jean Luc Nancy and Bernard Stiegler as a springboard Pettman explores the tectonic movements of contemporary culture specifically in relation to the language of eros Highly ritualized expressions of desire love in other words always reveal an era's attitude toward what it means to exist as a self among others For Pettman the articulation of love is a technique of belonging a way of responding to the basic plurality of everyone's identity a process that becomes increasingly complex as the forms of mediated communication from cell phone and text messaging to the mass media multiply and mesh together Wrestling the idea of love from the arthritic hands of Romanticism Pettman demonstrates the ways in which this dynamic assemblage the stirrings of the soul have always been a matter of tools devices prosthetics and media Love is after all something we make And love this book argues is not eternal but external The End of Love Eva Illouz, 2021-09-15 Western culture has endlessly represented the ways in which love miraculously erupts in people's lives the mythical moment in which one knows someone is destined for us the feverish waiting for a phone call or an email the thrill that runs down our spine at the mere thought of him or her Yet a culture that has so much to say about love is virtually silent on the no less mysterious moments when we avoid falling in love where we fall out of love when the one who kept us awake at night now leaves us indifferent or when we hurry away from those who excited us a few months or even a few hours before In The End of Love Eva Illouz documents the multifarious ways in which relationships end She argues that if modern love was once marked by the freedom to enter sexual and emotional bonds according to one's will and choice contemporary love has now become characterized by practices of non choice the freedom to withdraw from relationships Illouz dubs this process by which relationships fade evaporate dissolve and break down unloving While sociology has classically focused on the formation of social bonds The End of Love makes a powerful case for studying why and how social bonds collapse and dissolve Particularly striking is the role that capitalism plays in practices of non choice and unloving The unmaking of social bonds she argues is connected to contemporary capitalism which is characterized by practices of non commitment and non choice practices that enable the quick withdrawal from a transaction and the quick realignment of prices and the breaking of loyalties Unloving and non choice have in turn a profound impact on society and economics as they explain why people may be having fewer children increasingly living alone and having less sex The End of Love presents a profound and original analysis of the effects of capitalism and consumer culture on personal relationships and of what the dissolution of personal relationships means for capitalism Toppling in Murmansk John Foster, 2006-06 In the grand tradition of Tristram Shandy and Tom Jones not to mention Huck Finn and Holden Caulfield author John D Foster takes us on a journey through the American landscape of latter day 20th century It's a rollicking tale of being down and out or in and out with a smorgasbord of cads cons and other characters who populate the daylight demimonde of Southern California on the fringe Indeed it s a fringe tale of the edgy the offbeat and the oddball These are tales not oft told full of whimpers and whispers that are reminiscent of a whiplash in a hurricane Pooja's Story - Soul Travellers on the Rainbow of Love Sigrid Beyer,2015-11-10 Would you like to heal your heart Would you like to find your soul mate the love of your life and live a fulfilled life with this person Would you like to release the past and open up for a wonderful fulfilled life Would you like to dive into India s blazing colors and divine wisdom Would you like to strengthen your trust in a deep and lasting love in your life If you are longing for one or more of these things then Sigrid Beyer s enchanting love story Pooja is just the story for you It will encourage and support you as well as enhance your well being and happiness Pooja and her loved ones take us on a journey of deeper understanding of ourselves our parents lovers and children our communities the world and the higher purpose of the soul incarnated on Earth And we are propelled into action with them as they stand up for the love which is written on their hearts The relatable characters the geographical and historical setting India during the lifetime of Mahatma Gandhi truly spring to life like a rainbow that bursts out of the clouds after a storm Suzanne Preston Angel Intuitive Love in the Time of Cinema K. McKim,2011-11-08 Kristi McKim offers close analyses of films in which attachment and detachment intimacy and distance ephemera and endurance become more visible and meaningful Films discussed include Wim Wenders Wings of Desire Agn s Varda s Jacquot de Nantes Doris D rrie s Cherry Blossoms and Olivier Assayas Summer Hours A Travesty and a Triumph of Love Sandra Stacey Rivero,2012-11 Raised in a biased family where wrath ruled finally settling into the arms of her high school sweetheart in matrimony only to later be torn apart by a devastating divorce came his confession of a long held secret only years after their blessed reconciliation and conversion to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints A Travesty and a Triumph of Love is an odyssey in faith and learning as one LDS convert comes to work with the Lord Himself to find the son she never knew Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1967 The Bonds of Love Jessica Benjamin,2013-05-01 Why do people submit to authority and derive pleasure even others have over them What is the appeal of domination and submission and why are they so prevalent in erotic life Why is it so difficult for men and women to meet as equals Why indeed do hey continue to recapitulate the positions of master and slave In The Bonds of Love noted feminist theorist and psychoanalyst Jessica Benjamin explains why we accept and perpetuate relationships of domination and submission She reveals that domination is a complex psychological process which ensnares both parties in bonds of complicity and shows how it underlies our family life our social institutions and especially our sexual relations in spite of our conscious commitment to equality and freedom The Persuasion of Love John Blakely,2019-03-29 The Persuasion of Love examines the implications of believing that the meaning of the universe is love It is axiomatic that the Christian faith is about the love of God but John Blakely seeks to delve behind this easy assertion by proposing that all human love has God as its source even if marred by human failings and by exploring what it might mean for God to have created out of love Viewing theodicy through the lens of love the book finishes with a lyrical reflection on the fact that suffering is built into the universe because of its source in the love of God and that we live in the now and not yet in tension between the glory of creation and the agony of the cross before the future glory of the new creation

Love's Philosophy Richard White,2001-10-09 Love comes in many forms and touches all our lives and despite its changing history it remains constant in human experience Love s Philosophy explores the basic expressions of love In this book White looks at friendship romance parenthood and humanitarian love in classical and contemporary perspective He argues that the philosophical oblivion of love has been a mistake By examining both the historical and contemporary formations of love he proposes alternative models to guide both our thinking and our experience of loving
