War the series will represent the most comprehensive work on the Indian Wars in the West yet published Volume II The Wars for the Pacific Northwest covers five distinct conflicts and their aftermaths The Snake Paiute War and After 1866 72 The Modoc War 1872 73 The Nez Perce Campaign 1877 The Bannock War 1878 and The Sheepeater Campaign 1879 It contains accounts from participants on both sides of the conflict including George Crook Charles King and Nelson A Miles as well as Chuslum Moxmox Yellow Bull Young Two Moon and Heinmot Tooyalakekt Chief Joseph

Equitable Literacy Instruction for Students in Poverty Doris Walker-Dalhouse, Victoria J. Risko, Differences in performance between students of poverty and more advantaged students are reflective of an opportunity gap as opposed to a gap in student ability This book argues that significant attention must be given to eliminating the barriers that produce educational inequities in student achievement Walker Dalhouse and Risko focus on disparities in literacy achievement that might be attributed to color blind practices deficit mindsets low expectations or context neutral practices Situating literacy learning within a comprehensive view of literacy development they provide a set of instructional practices that will best support students living in poverty Specifically vignettes from kindergarten through middle school classrooms are used to demonstrate practices that address critical areas of the reading process are responsive to students racial ethnic cultural gender and linguistic histories and assets attend to students strengths and needs and go beyond the impact of short term testing to support optimal and sustainable learning Educators and school leaders can use this resource to transform schools into nurturing and vibrant communities that are committed to change equity and diversity Book Features Provides recommendations and detailed guidance for enacting literacy instruction that will close opportunity gaps for students living in poverty Includes vignettes from leading literacy educators and researchers that demonstrate high quality literacy instruction implemented in K 8 classrooms Presents instruction that is responsive to differences and honors the languages literacies and cultural resources that students bring to their learning Offers specific recommendations and practices that can guide advocacy for change The authors correct the deficit misperceptions by showing how students experiencing poverty are the targets not the causes of educational disparities What a different world schools would be if we each embraced these lessons From the Afterword by Paul C Gorski founder Equity Literacy Institute

My Time to Speak Ilia Calderón,2020-08-04 An inspiring timely and conversation starting memoir from the barrier breaking and Emmy Award winning journalist Ilia Calder n the first Afro Latina to anchor a high profile newscast for a major Hispanic broadcast network in the United States about following your dreams overcoming prejudice and embracing your identity As a child Ilia Calder n felt like a typical girl from Colombia In Choc the Afro Latino province where she grew up your skin could be any shade and you d still be considered blood Race was a non issue and Ilia didn t think much about it until she left her community to attend high school and college in Medell n For the first time she became familiar with horrifying racial slurs thrown at her both inside and outside of the classroom From that point on she resolved to become deaf to racism determined to overcome it in every way she could even when she was told time and time again that prominent castings weren t for people like you When a twist of fate presented her the opportunity of a lifetime at Telemundo in Miami she was excited to start a new life and identity in the United States where racial boundaries she believed had long since dissolved and equality was the rule Instead in her new life as an American she faced a new type of racial discrimination as an immigrant women of color speaking to the increasingly marginalized Latinx community in Spanish Now Ilia draws back the curtain on the ups and downs of her remarkable life and career From personal inner struggles to professional issues such as being directly threatened by a Ku Klux Klan member after an interview she discusses how she built a new identity in the United States in the midst of racially charged violence and political polarization Along the way she ll show how she s overcome fear and confronted hate head on and the inspirational philosophy that has always propelled her forward
