Against a background of profound worldwide social and economic change the concept of lifelong learning has come increasingly into the public eye As educators and policy makers rethink the meaning of education the purpose of schooling and the place of learning in our everyday lives educational institutions are opening up to those traditionally deprived of the opportunity The books in this set originally published between 1979 and 1992 including global case studies reflect upon major issues confronting adult educators worldwide and discuss the role of adult education in social and community action examine the relationship between class and adult education look at the concept of culture and the transmission of cultural values in relations to adult education evaluate the role of adult education in reducing unemployment      Resources in Education, 1990      Evaluation for Continuing Education Alan B. Knox, 2002-10-02 Evaluation for Continuing Education provides the useful and practical tools necessary to ensure a successful program evaluation The book presents systematic guidelines aimed at enhancing understanding of evaluation concepts and procedures and offers manageable ways to selectively include evaluation activities as an integral part of program planning implementation and justification Author Alan Knox reveals that the key to successful evaluations that improve education programs for adults is a basic rationale for why and how He helps readers select and develop their own rationale throughout the course of the book while suggesting fundamental evaluation concepts and procedures He shows how to distinguish some program aspect upon which a specific evaluation project will focus including needs assessment goals and policies staffing assessment materials development and more and summarizes examples of evaluation reports that reflect the various types of providers and scales on which evaluations are conducted Knox offers a particularly wide variety of these examples enabling readers to reflect on implications for their own evaluations and fashion unique guidelines and procedures that fit their own situations      Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1983      NOTIS Users' Group Meeting NOTIS Users' Group. International Handbook of Education for the Changing World of Work Rupert Maclean, David Wilson, 2009-06-29

The aim of this Handbook is to review the developments that have occurred in Technical and vocational education and training TVET and that may help improve the field The Handbook provides information on TVET models that occur in different parts of the world reflects best and innovative practice and wherever possible uses case studies as examples The 220 authors are representative of the various regions of the world and major international organisations involved in TVET This volume presents the work of established researchers as well as the work of promising young researchers Intended as the universally accepted resource for the field the Handbook provides a comprehensive coverage of cutting edge developments in research policy and practice in TVET within a single source It will assist those involved in TVET at any level in making informed decisions and further advance and improve the field and to bridge the gap between vocational and academic education in the 21st century      Managing Credit Programs in Continuing Higher Education Joe F. Donaldson, 1990 In this discussion of managing continuing education credit programming units three themes emerge The first theme is that unit administrators must rely upon leverage or influence to coordinate programs effectively and to gain the institution's acceptance of policies and procedures that support the credit programming unit and the adult learners it serves The second theme is the comprehensive nature of organizing and administering credit courses and programs Administrators must simultaneously juggle needs assessment budgeting marketing student recruitment and retention program development program coordination faculty participation and development budgeting and financing various modes of course and program delivery student support services and course and program evaluation while also attending to the demands and constraints imposed by external agencies and by the parent institution The third theme is opportunity Continuing education credit programming has reached a stage of maturity during the past decade The potential for stimulation and personal and professional growth through such opportunities is boundless Unit administrators must be willing to participate fully and proficiently in leading higher education into a new era of educational service to adults 34 references CML      Making Sense of Adult Learning Dorothy MacKeracher, 2004-01-01 Not just for students in adult education Making Sense of Adult Learning is for anyone working with adults in a variety of settings business industry organizations colleges universities and training projects Learning is at the heart of human experience and this guide provides essential keys to understanding how adults learn and to applying that knowledge to practical everyday situations Book jacket      Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1983 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70      Guide to Microforms in Print, 2009
