Guy Davenport and James Laughlin Guy Davenport, James Laughlin, 2007 Still with his life as entwined as it was with New Directions Laughlin speaks often and interestingly about some of the giants of the modern period most often Ezra Pound in whose work Davenport had a deep interest The most distinct aspect of their correspondence stems from the fact that although Laughlin ended up publishing some of Davenport's work their friendship was the primary force behind their letters More than simply detailing an author publisher relationship these letters depict two fine minds educating and supporting each other in the service of literature Jacket New Serial Titles ,1989 A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949 Catalog of Copyright Entries. American Poetry David Caplan, 2022 American poetry's two characteristics American English as a poetic resource Convention and idiosyncrasy Auden and Eliot two complicating examples On the present and future of American poetry The Poetry Circuit Peter B. Howarth, 2024-09-17 Live performance has changed poetry more than anything else in the last hundred years it has given poets new audiences and a new economy and it has generated new styles from Imagism to confessional to contemporary Spoken Word But the creative impact that public reading had right through the twentieth century has not been well understood Mixing close listening to archive performances with intimate histories of modernist venues and promoters The Poetry Circuit tells the story of how poets met their audience again and how the feedback loops between their voices the venues and the occasions turned poems into running dramas between poet and listener A nervous T S Eliot reveals himself to be anything but impersonal while Marianne Moore's accident-prone readings become subtle ways of keeping her poems in constant re-draft Robert Frost used his poems to spar with his fans and rivals while Langston Hughes wrote Ask Your Mama to expose the prejudice circulating in the room as he spoke it The Poetry Circuit also shows how the post-war reading boom made new kinds of poetry involving their audience and setting in the performance such as John Ashbery's anti-charismatic Poets Theatre Amiri Baraka's documentary soundtracks of the streets or the confessional readings of Allen Ginsberg which shame the listeners more than the poet Covering the first seventy years of the poetry reading The Poetry Circuit demonstrates that there never were page and stage poets the reading simply changed what every modern poet could do

Modernist Poetry, Gender and Leisure Technologies Alex Goody, 2019-10-29 Modernist Poetry Gender and Leisure Technologies Machine Amusements explores how modernist women poets were inspired by leisure technologies to write new versions of the gendered subject Focusing on American women writers and particularly on the city of New York the book argues that the poetry of modernist women that engages with examines or critiques the new leisure technologies of their era is fundamentally changed by the encounter with that technology The chapters in the book focus on shopping advertising dance film radio and phonography on city spaces such as Coney Island Greenwich Village and Harlem and on poetry that embraces the linguistic and formal innovations of modernism whilst paying close attention to the embodied politics of gender The technologized city and the leisure cultures and media forms emerging from it enabled modernist women writers to re-imagine forms of lyric embodiment inspired by the impact of technology on modern ideas of selfhood and subjectivity
