Ingham,2007-06-18 Hong Kong has always been something of an anomaly and an outpost of empire whether British or Chinese Once described as a barren island the former fishing community has been transformed by its own economic miracle into one of Asia s World Cities taking in its stride the territory s 1997 return to Chinese sovereignty Beneath the surface of Hong Kong s clich d self image as Pearl of the Orient and Shopping Paradise Michael Ingham reveals a city rich in history myth and cultural diversity City at the End of Time □□□□ Ping-kwan Leung,2012-06-01 Written by Leung Ping kwan in the 1980s and 1990s this volume of poetry evokes the complexity of Hong Kong city life in the critical moments preceding the 1997 handover The poet muses upon the problems of cultural identity and the passing of time and explores the relationship between poetry and other genres and media within a cross cultural and cross border context An introduction by Ackbar Abbas in the original edition relates Leung s writing to the cultural and political space of Hong Kong in the 1990s This expanded bilingual version adds a new essay by Esther Cheung and also a recent conversation between Leung and three critics which provides insights on how Leung s poetry still resonates powerfully after two decades The book invites readers to look afresh at Leung s meditative poetry and probe into the contradictory realities of this changing postcolonial city

Beginning at the End Robert Stilling,2018-06-11 Robert Stilling shows how aestheticism s decadence became a key idea in postcolonial thought describing the failures of revolutionary nationalism and asserting cosmopolitanism in poetry and art Breaking down the boundaries around decadent literature he takes it outside Europe and emphasizes the global reach of its imaginative transgressions Hong Kong English Kingsley Bolton,2002-09-01 The dominant view of many linguists and educators has been that Hong Kong English is a variety of the language that is derived from and dependent on the metropolitan norm of British English It has been argued that English in Hong Kong was never nativized as in other Asian societies and that it has not deserved the recognition accorded to other varieties of Asian English The contributions to this book challenge that view in a number of ways In addressing sociolinguistic structural and literary issues they provide an up

The Textuality of Old English Poetry Carol Braun Pasternack, 1995-07-20 This study constructs a reading of Old English poetry which takes up issues in poststructuralist theory including intertextuality work versus text and the author The modern reader knows this literature as a discrete number of poems set up and printed in units punctuated as modern sentences and with titles inserted by modern editors Carol Braun Pasternack offers an alternative approach which takes into account the format of the verse as it exists in the manuscripts using the term inscribed to define texts which are situated between oral inheritance and print In a detailed examination of texts throughout the canon she explores the ways in which readers construct poems in the process of reading and in addition she extends her analysis to the question of authorship arguing that the texts do not imply an author but rather imply tradition as the source of their authority

Direct Speech in Beowulf and Other Old English Narrative Poems Élise Louvriot, 2016 A new examination of the little studied phenomena of Direct Speech in Old English poetry Some of the most celebrated passages of Old English poetry are speeches Beowulf and Unferth s verbal contest Hrothgar s words of advice Satan s laments Juliana s words of defiance etc Yet Direct Speech as a stylistic device has remained largely under examined and under theorized in studies of the corpus As a consequence many analyses are unduly influenced by anachronistic conceptions of Direct Speech leading to problematic interpretations not least concerning irony and implicit characterisation This book uses linguistic theories to reassess the role of Direct Speech in Old English narrative poetry Beowulf is given a great deal of attention because it is a major poem and because it is the focus of much of the existing scholarship on this subject but it is examined in a broader poetic context the poem belongs to a wider tradition and thus needs to be understood in that context The texts examined include several major Old English narrative poems in particular the two Genesis Christ and Satan Andreas Elene Juliana and Guthlac A Elise Louvriot is a Lecturer at the University of Reims Champagne Ardenne France and a specialist of Old English poetry Her research interests include orality tradition formulas and the linguistic expression of subjectivity
