New Ethnicities Old Racisms:

New Ethnicities, Old Racisms Phil Cohen, 1999 A critique of essentialist definitions of race nation and ethnicity across key areas of cultural policy and practice It discusses ways of tackling popular cultures of racism the histories of previously marginalized racisms and sexisms and the impact of changing patterns of migration Europe's New Racism Evens Foundation, 2002-06 Europe has seen a tremendous rise in popularity of new rightist political parties in the last two decades or so claiming cultural supremacy of the so called native Europeans over foreign immigrants In this volume European scholars from Russian to Britain have come together to examine the media and social and legal policies in an effort to determine the causes of this resurgence of rightist and anti democratic ideologies. They furthermore suggest actions that might help combat racism more effectively New Ethnicities And Urban Cult Les Back, 2015 Theories of Race and Racism Les Back, John Solomos, 2022-05-17 Theories of Race and Racism A Reader provides an overview of historical and contemporary debates in this vital and ever evolving field of scholarship and research Combining contributions from seminal thinkers leading scholars and emergent voices this reader provides a critical reflection on key trends and developments in the field The contributions to this reader provide an overview of key areas of scholarship and research on questions of race and racism It provides a novel perspective by bringing together readings on the key theoretical and historical processes in this area the development of diverse theoretical viewpoints the analysis of antisemitism the role of colonialism and postcolonialism feminist perspectives on race and the articulation of new accounts of the contemporary conjuncture The contributions to this reader include classic works by the likes of W E B DuBois Stuart Hall and Frantz Fanon as well as timely pieces by contemporary scholars including Orlando Patterson Patricia Hill Collins and Paul Gilroy By bringing together a broad range of diverse accounts Theories of Race and Racism A Reader engages with various key areas of interest and is an invaluable guide for students and instructors seeking to explore issues of race and racism Europe's new racism? : causes, manifestations and solutions ,2002 Theories of Race and Ethnicity Karim Murji, John Solomos, 2015-01-08 An authoritative and cutting edge collection of theoretically grounded and empirically informed essays exploring the contemporary terrain of race and racism The Politics of Multiculturalism B. Pitcher, 2009-04-08 Taking as a case study the racial politics of the British state under New Labour this book advances an idea of multiculturalism as the only conceptual framework that is capable of making sense of the contradictions of contemporary race practice where racism is simultaneously rejected and reproduced The Unfinished Politics of Race Les Back, Michael Keith, Kalbir Shukra, John Solomos, 2022-12-01 The Unfinished Politics of Race argues that the past few decades have seen important transformations in the politics of race Contending that existing accounts have focused narrowly on the mainstream political sphere this study argues that there is a need to explore the role of race more widely By exploring the mainstream as well as transitional and alternative spheres of political mobilisation the authors stress the need to link the analysis of both local and national processes in order to make sense of the changing contours of racialised politics. The underlying concern of this study is to outline both a theoretical frame for an analysis of racial politics and detailed empirical accounts of different arenas of political mobilisation By exploring the unfinished politics of race this study provides a timely reminder that the position of racial and ethnic minorities in political institutions remains deeply contested Cultural Diversity, Mental Health and Psychiatry Dr Suman Fernando, Suman Fernando, 2004-03 Cultural Diversity Mental Health and Psychiatry explores how and why black and minority ethnic communities have little confidence in mental health services Race and State Karen Fricker, Ronit Lentin, 2009-01-14 Speaking about racism in the western political climate of the first decade of the twenty first century is more difficult than ever before There is a feeling in post colonial and post immigration societies that the blatant overt racism of the past is no longer as pressing Admitting racism elicits discomfort because common wisdom tells us that racism opposes everything that we believe in as citizens of democratic civilised modern states Yet state racism appears to be here to stay and in many ways is more acceptable than ever before Immigration detention centres the deportation of failed asylum seekers and illegal immigrants racial profiling and the rolling back of liberties won by the civil rights movement are all examples of how state racism impacts on our daily lives Race and State contributes to breaking the taboo of discussing the links between race and state The papers collected in this book highlight the interconnections between race and state from historical theoretical or contemporary sociological perspectives Part I of the book looks at theoretical issues in conceptualising the race state relationship Part II examines racism in its most pernicious contemporary manifestation the racialisation of terror Part III on the racial state s of Ireland is an important addition to the debate examining Ireland as a test case for demonstrating and interpreting the relationship between race and state Rethinking 'Mixed Race' David Parker, Miri Song, 2001-05-20 One of the fastest growing ethnic populations in many Western societies is that of people of mixed descent However when talking about multicultural societies or mixed race the discussion usually focuses on people of black and white heritage The contributors to this collection rectify this with a broad and pluralistic approach to the experiences of mixed race people in Britain and the USA The contributors argue that people of mixed descent reveal the arbitrary and contested logic of categorisation underpinning racial divisions Falling outside the prevailing definitions of racialised identities their histories and experiences illuminate the complexities of identity formation in the contemporary multicultural context The authors examine a range of issues These include gender transracial and intercountry adoptions in Britain and the US interracial partnering and marriage mixed race and family in the English African diaspora theorising of mixed race that transcends the black white binary and includes explorations of mixtures among non white minority groups and the social and political evolution of multiracial panethnicity Young People, Place and Identity Peter E. Hopkins, 2013-05-13 Young People Place and Identity offers a series of rich insights into young people s everyday lives What places do young people engage with on a daily basis How do they use these places How do their identities influence these contexts By working through common sense understandings of young people s behaviours and the places they occupy the author seeks to answer these and other questions In doing so the book challenges and re shapes understandings of young people s relationships with different places and identities The textbook is one of the first books to map out the scales themes and sites engaged with by young people on a daily basis as they construct their multiple identities. The scales explored here include the body neighbourhood and community mobilities and transitions and urban rural settings and how these all shape and are shaped by young people s identities Each chapter explores how social identities such as race gender sexuality class disability and religion are constructed within particular contexts and influenced by multiple processes of inclusion and exclusion These discussions are supported by details of the research methods and ethical issues involved in researching young people's lives Drawing upon research from a range of contexts including Europe North America and Australasia this book demonstrates the complex ways in which young people creatively shape contest and resist their engagements with different places and identities The range of issues topics and case studies explored include ethical and methodological issues in youth research youth subcultures experiences of home territorialism youth and crime political engagement and participation responses to global issues engagements with different institutional contexts negotiating public space the transition to adulthood drinking cultures The author explores these issues through blending together original empirical research theory and policy Individual chapters are supported by key themes project ideas and suggested further reading Details of key authors journals and research centres and organisations are also included at the end of the book This textbook will be pertinent for undergraduate and postgraduate students and academic researchers interested in better understanding the relationships between young people places and identities Cultural Studies and Cultural Industries in Northeast Asia Chris Berry, Nicola Liscutin, Jonathan D. Mackintosh, 2009-05-01 These timely essays highlight regional cross fertilization in music film new media and popular culture in Northeast Asia including analysis of gender and labor issues amid differing regulatory frameworks and public policy concerning cultural production and piracy Theorizing Anti-Racism Abigail Bakan, Enakshi Dua, 2014-11-21 p Over the last few decades critical theory which examines issues of race and racism has flourished However most of this work falls on one side or the other of a theoretical divide between theory inspired by Marxist approaches to race and racism and that inspired by postcolonial and critical race theory Driven by the need to move beyond the divide the contributors to Theorizing Anti Racism present insightful essays that engage these two intellectual traditions with a focus on clarification and points of convergence The essays in Theorizing Anti Racism examine topics which range from reconsiderations of anti-racism in the work of Marx and Foucault to examinations of the relationships among race class and the state that integrate both Marxist and critical race theory Drawing on the most constructive elements of Marxism and postcolonial and critical race theory this collection constitutes an important contribution to the advancement of anti-racist theory Battle for the Flag Amelia Johns, 2015-07-01 Ten years after the Cronulla riots the violence racism and branding of young bodies with signs and symbols of Australian nationalism along with the reprisal attacks by Lebanese Australian youth continues to inflame discussions about race relations in Australia with many conversations shifting away from ideas of multiculturalism and cultural diversity and towards patriotism localism security and fear of the predominantly Muslim Other Battle for the Flag contextualises and challenges the narrative by drawing upon participant observation and interviews conducted with local residents of diverse backgrounds By paying attention to the voices of bystanders and those involved the riot is identified as an unstable and fluid formation where the Australian flag the beach and whiteness itself was co opted into a much more contingent contested and subcultural formation than hitherto described Islamic Studies Series Volume 18

The Routledge International Handbook of Race, Culture and Mental Health Roy Moodley, Eunjung Lee, 2020-10-27 This handbook presents a thorough examination of the intricate interplay of race ethnicity and culture in mental health historical origins subsequent transformations and the discourses generated from past and present mental health and wellness practices The text demonstrates how socio cultural identities including race gender class sexual orientation disability religion and age intersect with clinical work in a range of settings Case vignettes and recommendations for best practice help ground each in a clinical focus guiding practitioners and educators to actively increase their understanding of non Western and indigenous healing techniques as well as their awareness of contemporary mental health theories as a product of Western culture with a particular historical and cultural perspective The international contributors also discuss ways in which global mental health practices transcend racial cultural ethnic linguistic and political boundaries The Routledge International Handbook of Race Culture and Mental Health is an essential resource for students researchers and professionals alike as it addresses the complexity of mental health issues from a critical global perspective Class and Belonging in Contemporary England K. Smith, 2012-06-28 Using experiences of the white English working classes in Manchester this book explores the local frustrations with feeling ignored and neglected by the government through articulations of fairness Biofictions Josie Gill, 2020-02-20 This book is open access and available on www bloomsburycollections com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Winner of the 2020 British Society for Literature and Science book prize In this important interdisciplinary study Josie Gill explores how the contemporary novel has drawn upon and intervened in debates about race in late 20th and 21st century genetic science Reading works by leading contemporary writers including Zadie Smith Kazuo Ishiguro Octavia Butler and Colson Whitehead Biofictions demonstrates how ideas of race are produced at the intersection of science and fiction which together create the stories about identity racism ancestry and kinship which characterize our understanding of race today By highlighting the role of narrative in the formation of racial ideas in science this book calls into question the apparent anti racism of contemporary genetics which functions narratively rather than factually or objectively within the racialized contexts in which it is embedded In so doing Biofictions compels us to rethink the long asked question of whether race is a biological fact or a fiction calling instead for a new understanding of the relationship between race science and fiction Multiculturalism Tariq Modood,2013-04-30 At a time when many public commentators are turning against multiculturalism in response to fears about militant Islam immigration or social cohesion Tariq Modood one of the world's leading authorities on multiculturalism provides a distinctive contribution to these debates He contends that the rise of Islamic terrorism has neither discredited multiculturalism nor heralded a clash of civilizations Instead it has highlighted a central challenge for the 21st century the urgent need to include Muslims in contemporary conceptions of democratic citizenship In the second edition of this popular and compelling book Modood updates his original argument with two new chapters He reassesses the relationship between multiculturalism cosmopolitanism and assimilation demonstrating that multiculturalism is crucial for successful integration He also argues that while multiculturalism poses a significant challenge to existing forms of secularism this challenge should not be exaggerated into a crisis In so doing Modood adds new vigor to the claim that multiculturalism remains a living force which is shaping our polities even as its death is repeatedly announced This book will appeal to students researchers and teachers of politics sociology and public policy as well as to anyone interested in the prospects of multiculturalism today
