Hans Ibelings, Kirsten Hannema

New European Architecture:

New European Architecture S. A. Rotovision,1996 This illustrated up to the minute review shows the trends in new architectural construction in Europe during the past three years Examples of work are included from both well known architects and younger up and coming names who are now redefining the state of European architecture New European Architecture Francisco Asensio Cerver,1996 New European Architecture 09/10 ,2010 A10 s third yearbook features a selection of 20 projects previously published in A10 magazine ranging from an open air altar in Brezje to holiday houses in the Carpathians from the new library of the Technical University in Prague and a mixed use complex in Sofia to museums in Kalmar and Kotka New European Architecture 09/10 Hans Ibelings,Kirsten Hannema,2010 A10 s third yearbook features a selection of 20 projects previously published in A10 magazine New European Architecture 09-10 ,2010

European Foreign Policy Simon J. Nuttall,2000 This study traces the development of the European Union s foreign policy making from the old governmental co operation EPC to the common foreign and security policy introduced by the Maastricht Treaty It is the first time the process had been explained from a comprehensive historical and political viewpoint The impact of the fall of communism as well as the Gulf War and the early stages of the conflict in Yugoslavia are analyzed in detail The personal roles played by Mitterrand Kohl and Bush are also vividly described Articulating Europe Jonas Frykman,Péter Niedermüller,2003 This reprint of a collection of articles addresses the challenges that European ethnology is facing Representing a variety of localities they give new insights and perspectives to the importance of doing empirical fieldwork and of seeing the emergence of new patterns as well as the remaking of old ones Economic Governance in Europe Federico Fabbrini,2016-01-28 The Euro Crisis and the legal and institutional responses to it have had important constitutional implications on the architecture of the European Union EU Going beyond the existing literature Federico Fabbrini s book takes a broad look and examines how the crisis and its aftermath have changed relations of power in the EU disaggregating three different dimensions 1 the vertical relations of power between the member states and the EU institutions 2 the relations of power between the political branches and the courts and 3 the horizontal relations of power between the EU member states themselves The first part of the book argues that in the aftermath of the Euro crisis power has been shifting along each of these axes in paradoxical ways In particular through a comparison of the United States Fabbrini reveals that the EU is nowadays characterized by a high degree of centralization in budgetary affairs an unprecedented level of judicialization of economic questions and a growing imbalance between the member states in the governance of fiscal matters As the book makes clear however each of these dynamics is a cause for concern as it calls into question important constitutional values for the EU such as the autonomy of the member states in taking decision about taxing and spending the preeminence of the political process in settling economic matters and the balance between state power and state equality The second part of the book therefore devises possible options for future legal and institutional developments in the EU which may revert these paradoxical trends In particular Fabbrini considers the ideas of raising a fiscal capacity restoring the centrality of the EU legislative process and reforming the EU executive power and discusses the challenges that accompany any further step towards a deeper Economic and Monetary Union Austrian Information

,1990 Retail Depositor and Retail Investor Protection under EU Law Constantinos Tokatlides,2017-02-10 Retail Depositor and Retail Investor Protection under EU Law offers an original perspective on EU financial law in the area of retail investor protection examining the status of protection awarded by EU law to retail depositors and retail investors in the event of financial institution failure The analysis of relevant EU law is on the basis of effectiveness and has been elaborated in two levels of comparison The first comparative approach examines relevant EU law both externally and internally externally vis vis relevant international initiatives and developments in the area of financial law as the latter affect the features and evolution of EU law and internally by examining relevant instruments of EU law with regard to each other as to their normative structure and content The second comparative approach also examines the status of retail depositors in relation to that of retail investors under EU law in the event of financial institution failure and the relevant legal consequences thereof

Modern Architecture Frank Lloyd Wright,2008 Modern concepts concerning an organic architecture from the work of Frank Lloyd Wright on lining papers Memorializing the Middle Classes in Medieval and Renaissance Europe Anne Leader,2018-12-17 Offering a broad overview of memorialization practices across Europe and the Mediterranean this book examines local customs through particular case studies These essays explore complementary themes through the lens of commemorative art including social status personal and corporate identities the intersections of mercantile intellectual and religious attitudes upward and downward mobility and the cross cultural exchange Europe Undivided Milada Anna

Vachudova,2005-02-17 Europe Undivided analyzes how an enlarging EU has facilitated a convergence toward liberal democracy among credible future members of the EU in Central and Eastern Europe It reveals how variations in domestic competition put democratizing states on different political trajectories after1989 and how the EU s leverage eventually influenced domestic politics in liberal and particularly illiberal democracies In doing so Europe Undivided illuminates the changing dynamics of the relationship between the EU and candidate states from 1989 to 2004 and challenges policymakers to manageand improve EU leverage to support democracy ethnic tolerance and economic reform in other candidates and proto candidates such as the Western Balkan states Turkey and Ukraine Albeit not by design the most powerful and successful tool of EU foreign policy has turned out to be EU enlargement and this book helps us understand why and how it works The International Politics of East Central Europe Adrian G. V. Hyde-Price,1996 Established in the belief that imperialism as a cultural phenomenon had as significant an effect on the dominant as it did on the subordinate societies the

Studies in Imperialism series seeks to develop the new socio cultural approach which has emerged through cross disciplinary work on popular culture media studies art history the study of education and religion sports history and children s literature

The cultural emphasis embraces studies of migration and race while the older political and constitutional economic and military concerns are never far away It incorporates comparative work on European and American empire building with the chronological focus primarily though not exclusively on the 19th and 20th centuries when these cultural exchanges were most powerfully at work This work explores the sexual attitudes and activities of those who ran the British Empire The study explains the pervasive importance of sexuality in the Victorian Empire both for individuals and as a general dynamic in the working of the system Among the topics included in the book are prostitution the manners and mores of missionaries and aspects of race in sexual behaviour

Memorylands Sharon Macdonald, 2013-07-18 Memorylands is an original and fascinating investigation of the nature of heritage memory and understandings of the past in Europe today It looks at how Europe has become a memoryland littered with material reminders of the past such as museums heritage sites and memorials and at how this memory phenomenon is related to the changing nature of identities especially European national and cosmopolitan In doing so it provides new insights into how memory and the past are being performed and reconfigured in Europe and with what effects Drawing especially though not exclusively on cases concepts and arguments from social and cultural anthropology Memorylands argues for a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the cultural assumptions involved in relating to the past It theorizes the various ways in which materializations of identity work and relates these to different forms of identification within Europe The book also addresses questions of methodology including discussion of historical ethnographic interdisciplinary and innovative methods Through a wide range of case studies from across Europe Sharon Macdonald argues that Europe is home to a much greater range of ways of making the past present than is usually realized and a greater range of forms of historical consciousness At the same time however she seeks to highlight what she calls the European memory complex a repertoire of prevalent patterns in forms of recollection and past presencing The examples in Memorylands are drawn from both the margins and metropolitan centres from the relatively small scale and local the national and the avant garde The book looks at pasts that are potentially identity disrupting or difficult as well as those that affirm identities or offer possibilities for transcending national identities or articulating more cosmopolitan futures Topics covered include authenticity temporalities embodiment commodification nostalgia and Ostalgie the musealization of everyday and folk life Holocaust commemoration and tourism narratives of war the heritage of Islam transnationalism and the future of the past Memorylands is engagingly written and accessible to general readers as well as offering a new synthesis for advanced researchers in memory and heritage studies It is essential reading for those interested in identities memory material culture Europe tourism and heritage

The International Relations of the EU Steve Marsh, Hans Mackensteen, 2014-09-11 In an incisive and lively discussion International Relations of the EU examines both the economic and security dimensions of European Union external relations The book adopts an innovative approach that combines International Relations with International Political Economy Set against a backdrop of EU enlargement and disarray over military intervention in Iraq International Relations of the EU is a timely contribution to our understanding of the EU's role as an international actor The text is suitable for advanced undergraduate courses in Politics and International Relations
