Nicolai I. Lagoni, 2007-06-29 Because the liability of ship owners is limited classification societies have been considered as exempt from liability This book analyses which actions of classification societies may give rise to claims and whether or not the societies can be held liable under English German or American maritime law In addition it develops the fundamental aspects of an international convention on the limitation of the liability of classification societies Compliance with European Consumer Law Felix Pflücke, 2024-09-09 European Consumer Law has adapted and evolved in response to the rapid growth of e commerce in the last two decades Compliance with European Consumer Law The Case of E Commerce examines the evolving legal framework at the EU and national levels from mandatory disclosures to unfair contract terms and analyses the extent to which scientifically grounded evidence or theories underpin these legislative choices At the heart of the book lies an original data driven inquiry assessing compliance among e commerce traders with consumer protection rules The empirical analysis investigates whether 300 traders from four jurisdictions France Germany the Netherlands and the United Kingdom comply with their legal duties and identifies reasons for non compliance It translates the evidence of previously undiscovered non compliance patterns into targeted and actionable policy recommendations presenting a significant new interpretation of the regulatory landscape Compliance with European Consumer Law offers a unique analytical perspective and contributes to a deeper understanding of e commerce regulation Innovative and engaging this book advocates for a more evidence driven approach within European Consumer Law aimed at strengthening the effectiveness of the rules and fostering trader compliance The Harmonisation of European Contract Law Stefan Vogenauer, Stephen Weatherill, 2006-03-16 After an extended period in which the European Community has merely nibbled at the edges of national contract law the bite of a European contract law has lately become more pronounced Many areas of law from competition and consumer law to gender equality law are now the subject of determined efforts at harmonisation though they are perhaps often seen as peripheral to mainstream commercial contract law Despite continuing doubts about the constitutional competence of the Commission to embark on further harmonisation in this area European contract law is now taking shape with the Commission prompting a debate about what it might attempt A central aspect of this book is the report of a remarkable survey carried out by the Oxford Institute of European and Comparative Law in collaboration with

Clifford Chance which sought the views of European businesses about the advantages and disadvantages of further harmonisation The final report of this survey brings much needed empirical data to a debate that has thus far lacked clear evidence of this sort The survey is embedded in a range of original and up to date essays by leading European contract scholars reviewing recent developments questioning progress so far and suggesting areas where further analysis and research will be required

Fifty Years of the Law Commissions Matthew Dyson,James Lee,Shona Wilson Stark,2016-11-03 This book brings together past and present law commissioners judges practitioners academics and law reformers to analyse the past present and future of the Law Commissions in the United Kingdom and beyond Its internationally recognised authors bring a wealth of experience and insight into how and why law reform does and should take place covering statutory and non statutory reform from national and international perspectives The chapters of the book developed from papers given at a conference to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the Law Commissions Act 1965

Shaping the Law of Obligations Edwin Peel,Rebecca Probert,2024-02-22 Shaping the Law of Obligations presents a collection of essays in honour of Ewan McKendrick KC discussing compelling questions and ideas in the areas of contract tort unjust enrichment and commercial law
