New Hampshire Rock Portraits:

New Hampshire Rock Portraits P. J. Saine, Patrick J. Saine, 2004 Discover the natural beauty of New Hampshire in these whimsical photographs of the state famous and not yet famous natural rock formations Interesting New Hampshire factoids supplement the images Did you know that the alarm clock was invented in Concord and the first public library and the first credit union were established in New Hampshire New Hampshire Public Libraries ,1905 Bulletin of the New Hampshire Public Libraries ,1900 Pioneer Photographers of the Far West Peter E. Palmquist, Thomas R. Kailbourn, 2000 This extraordinarily comprehensive well documented biographical dictionary of some 1 500 photographers and workers engaged in photographically related pursuits active in western North America before 1865 is enriched by some 250 illustrations Far from being simply a reference tool the book provides a rich trove of fascinating narratives that cover both the professional and personal lives of a colorful cast of characters Portrait and Biographical Album of Ogle

County, Illinois ,1886 American Paradise Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1987 Traces the history of the Hudson River School of American painters shows works by Church Cole and Inness and describes the background of each painting Hawthorne Brenda Wineapple, 2012-01-11 Handsome reserved almost frighteningly aloof until he was approached then playful cordial Nathaniel Hawthorne was as mercurial and double edged as his writing Deep as Dante Herman Melville said Hawthorne himself declared that he was not one of those supremely hospitable people who serve up their own hearts delicately fried with brain sauce as a tidbit for the public Yet those who knew him best often took the opposite position He always puts himself in his books said his sister in law Mary Mann he cannot help it His life like his work was extraordinary a play of light and shadow In this major new biography of Hawthorne the first in more than a decade Brenda Wineapple acclaimed biographer of Janet Flanner and Gertrude and Leo Stein Luminous Richard Howard brings him brilliantly alive an exquisite writer who shoveled dung in an attempt to found a new utopia at Brook Farm and then excoriated the community or his attraction to it in caustic satire the confidant of Franklin Pierce fourteenth president of the United States and arguably one of its worst friend to Emerson and Thoreau and Melville who unlike them made fun of Abraham Lincoln and who also unlike them wrote compellingly of women deeply identifying with them he was the first major American writer to create erotic female characters Those vibrant independent women continue to haunt the imagination although Hawthorne often punishes humiliates or kills them as if exorcising that which enthralls Here is the man rooted in Salem Massachusetts of an old pre Revolutionary family reared partly in the wilds of western Maine then schooled along with Longfellow at Bowdoin College Here are his idyllic marriage to the youngest and prettiest of the Peabody sisters and his longtime friendships including with Margaret Fuller the notorious feminist writer and intellectual Here too is Hawthorne at the end of his days revered as a genius but considered as well to be an embarrassing puzzle by the Boston intelligentsia isolated by fiercely held political loyalties that placed him against the Civil War and the currents of his time Brenda

Wineapple navigates the high tides and chill undercurrents of Hawthorne's fascinating life and work with clarity nuance and insight The novels and tales the incidental writings travel notes and children's books letters and diaries reverberate in this biography which both charts and protects the dark unknowable core that is quintessentially Hawthorne In him the quest of his generation for an authentically American voice bears disquieting fruit Prehistoric Pictures and American Modernism Elke Seibert, 2023-09-21 In April 1937 the Museum of Modern Art in New York hosted an exhibition that served as a catalyst for the appropriation of prehistoric rock art in postwar abstract painting With the title Prehistoric Rock Pictures in Europe and Africa it displayed a range of copies from the influential collection of the German ethnologist Leo Frobenius Largely disregarded in modern American art history up until now this book highlights the importance of this exhibition to artists such as Josef Albers Adolph Gottlieb David Smith and The American Abstract Artists group who sought inspiration from the prehistoric images primordial creativity With a transnational scope this book reveals new facts about the connections between Paris and New York and the importance of communication and collaboration between them for these artists In doing so Seibert shows that this debate was about more than just legitimizing abstract art forms from the past but about recognizing an autonomous American abstract art Presenting unseen archival material letters and exhibition documentation Prehistoric Pictures and American Modernism offers a new reading of the development of modern American abstraction and will hold an important place in the historiography of the movement its global traditions and its legacy The Wide World Magazine ,1916 Portrait and Biographical Album of Marshall County, Kansas ,1889 Portrait and Biographical Album of Jo Daviess County, Illinois ,1889 The Granite Monthly ,1904 The Granite Monthly Henry Harrison Metcalf, John Norris McClintock, 1904 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1984 Hodges' New Bank Note Safe-guard John Tyler Hodges, 1859 Portrait and Biographical Album of Whiteside County, Illinois ,1863 Portrait and Biographical Album of Green Lake, Marquette and Waushara Counties, Wisconsin ... ,1890 Portrait and Biographical Album of Greene and Clark Counties, Ohio ,1890 Cyclopedia of Painters and Paintings John Denison Champlin, Charles Callahan Perkins, 1905 Portrait and Biographical Album of Johnson and Pawnee Counties, Nebraska ,1889
