New Hardboiled Dicks:

New Hard-boiled Writers, 1970s-1990s LeRoy Lad Panek, 2000 With an eye toward the origins and development of the hard boiled story LeRoy Lad Panek comments both on the way it has changed over the past three decades and examines the work of ten significant contemporary hardboiled writers Chapters show how the new writers have used the hard boiled story and the hard boiled hero to make powerful statements about reality in the last quarter of the twentieth century BOOK JACKET Hard-boiled Masculinities Christopher Breu, 2005 The persona of the American male in the period between the two world wars was characterized by physical strength emotional detachment aggressive behavior and an amoral worldview This ideal of a hard boiled masculinity can be seen in the pages and even more vividly on the covers of magazines such as Black Mask which shifted from Victorian influenced depictions of men in top hats and mustaches in the early 1920s to the portrayal of much more overtly violent and muscular men Looking closely at this transformation Christopher Breu offers a complex account of how and why hard boiled masculinity emerged during an unsettled time of increased urbanization and tenuous peace and traces the changes in its cultural conception as it moved back and forth across the divide between high and low culture as well as the color line that bifurcated American society Examining the work of Ernest Hemingway Dashiell Hammett Chester Himes and William Faulkner as well as many lesser known writers for the hypermasculine pulp magazines of the 1920s and 1930s Breu illustrates how the tough male was a product of cultural fantasy one that shored up gender and racial stereotypes as a way of lashing out at the destabilizing effects of capitalism and social transformation Christopher Breu is assistant professor of English at Illinois State University The Hardboiled Dicks Ron Goulart, 1965 Hard-Boiled Erin Smith, 2010-07-07 An examination of the culture that produced and supported pulp fiction

The Literature of Extreme Poverty in the Great Depression Robert Dale Parker, 2025 The Literature of Extreme Poverty in the Great Depression uncovers a forgotten side of modernism the literature of unemployment and poverty in the 1930s particularly fiction and poetry about people starving on the street or struggling on welfare people who often don't know where they'll find their next meal or whether they'll find someplace to sleep They spend the night on park benches or in filthy flophouses or they trade sex for food and shelter or they starve Time itself changes For the starving poor standing for hours and hours in a breadline the speed of modern culture slows down Parker expands on previous studies of the 1930s by recovering the fiction and poetry of dozens of forgotten writers and reading them together with political cartoons and with underknown writing by such acclaimed or understudied writers as Langston Hughes Tom Kromer Dorothy West and Martha Gellhorn From an age so immersed in despair and suffering that many writers came to doubt the very idea of literary aesthetics this book rescues a vast archive of literary analogues to the famous documentary photographs that burned the Depression into American visual memory It shapes a collective portrait and interpretation of a nearly lost literary history that represents a nation its crisis and its literature of crisis from the bottom up rather than from the top down Well, Did You Ever?
