Taxation in Colonial America Alvin Rabushka, 2015-07-28 Taxation in Colonial America examines life in the thirteen original American colonies through the revealing lens of the taxes levied on and by the colonists Spanning the turbulent years from the founding of the Jamestown settlement to the outbreak of the American Revolution Alvin Rabushka provides the definitive history of taxation in the colonial era and sets it against the backdrop of enormous economic political and social upheaval in the colonies and Europe Rabushka shows how the colonists strove to minimize avoid and evade British and local taxation and how they used tax incentives to foster settlement He describes the systems of public finance they created to reduce taxation and reveals how they gained control over taxes through elected representatives in colonial legislatures Rabushka takes a comprehensive look at the external taxes imposed on the colonists by Britain the Netherlands and Sweden as well as internal direct taxes like poll and income taxes He examines indirect taxes like duties and tonnage fees as well as county and town taxes church and education taxes bounties and other charges He links the types and amounts of taxes with the means of payment be it gold coins agricultural commodities wampum or furs and he compares tax systems and burdens among the colonies and with Britain This book brings the colonial period to life in all its rich complexity and shows how colonial attitudes toward taxation offer a unique window into the causes of the revolution The Revolutionary War in the Hackensack Valley Adrian Coulter Leiby, 1980 After November 1776 the Hackensack Valley located in northeastern New Jersey and Rockland County New York lay between the invading British army in New York City and the main Continental defense forces in the Hudson Highlands Jersey Dutch patriot and Tory troops carried on a five year war of neighbors between the lines while the grand armies of Britain and America maneuvered on either side of them for a chance to strike a blow at the other Adrian Leiby offers an exciting narrative of the people of Dutch New Jersey and New York during this conflict Historians will find colorful details about the Revolutionary War and genealogists will find much previously unpublished material on hundreds of men and women of Dutch New Jersey and New York in the 1700s The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, 1911 Handbook of Political Party Funding Jonathan Mendilow, Eric Phélippeau, 2018-01-26 Scrutinizing a relatively new field of study the Handbook of Political Party Funding assesses the basic assumptions underlying the research presenting an unequalled variety of case studies from diverse political finance systems

Local and Regional Systems of Innovation John de la Mothe, Gilles Paquet, 2012-12-06 In an era of intense globalization the critical role of the region as a center for economic development has sometimes been overlooked Moreover innovation is increasingly being recognized as being a critical driver of economic growth and development However innovation is no longer being seen as a function of research and development nor is R D being seen as being sufficient for the creation of technology intensive industries and the valuable economic spillovers that result in high value added jobs and exports Indeed much more than ever before it is the combination of factors that contributes to innovation ranging over skills finance production user producer linkages the capacity of organizations to learn and multilayered government policies that make local regions the favorites of fortune Using an evolutionary economic perspective and drawing on a range of disciplines and accomplished scholars Local and Regional Systems of Innovation explores important issues at a conceptual methodological and comparative level concerning how successful locations actually construct their comparative advantage

Constructing Early Modern Empires, 2007-03-31 The role of proprietorships or private colonies in imperial development has not received the attention it deserves notwithstanding recent scholarly emphasis on state building The continued use of these private devices even as early modern European nation states grew more potent is not only interesting but is indeed normative though invariably missing from modern studies of empire This collection provides in depth analyses of the workings of the proprietorships themselves rather than proprietary colonies and in studies ranging from South Carolina to Nieuw Nederland to French West Africa to Brasil broadens this discussion beyond British North America Contributors include Micka l Augeron Kenneth Banks Sarah Barber Philip Boucher Olivier Caporossi Leslie Choquette David Dewar Jaap Jacobs Maxine N Lurie Debra A Meyers L H Roper James O Neil Spady Bertrand Van Ruymbeke C ile Vidal and Laurent Vidal
