Raddle Moon 20:

Raddle Moon 20 ,1995 Provisional Avant-Gardes Sophie Seita,2019-07-23 What would it mean to be avant garde today Arguing against the notion that the avant garde is dead or confined to historically failed movements this book offers a more dynamic and inclusive theory of avant gardes that accounts for how they work in our present Innovative in approach Provisional Avant Gardes focuses on the medium of the little magazine from early Dada experiments to feminist queer and digital publishing networks to understand avant gardes as provisional and heterogeneous communities Paying particular attention to neglected women writers artists and editors alongside more canonical figures it shows how the study of little magazines can change our views of literary and art history while shedding new light on individual careers By focusing on the avant garde s publishing history and group dynamics Sophie Seita also demonstrates a new methodology for writing about avant garde practice across time one that is applicable to other artistic and non artistic communities and that speaks to contemporary practitioners as much as scholars In the process she addresses fundamental questions about the intersections of aesthetic form and politics and about what we consider to be literature and art The Routledge Introduction to Twentieth- and Twenty-First-Century Canadian Poetry Erin Wunker,2022-11-21 When asked the question what is the power of poetry writer Ian Williams said poetry punctures the surface Williams statement that poetry matters and that it does something is at the heart of this book Building from this core idea that poetry perforates the everyday to give greater range to our lives and our thinking the practical and pedagogical aim of this book is twofold the first aim is to provide students with an introduction to the key cultural political and historical events that inform twentieth and twenty first century Canadian poetry and to familiarize those same readers with poetic movements trends and forms of the same time period This book addresses the aesthetic and social contexts of Canadian poetry written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries it models for its readers the critical and theoretical discourses needed to understand the contexts of literary production in Canada Put differently readers need a sense of the where and how of poetic production to help situate them in the what of poetry itself In addition to offering a historically contextualized overview of the significant movements developments and poets of this time period this book also familiarizes readers with key moments of reflection and rupture such as the effects of economic and ecological crisis global conflicts and debates around appropriation of culture This book is built on the premise that poetry in Canada does not happen outside of political social and cultural contexts Women in Independent Publishing Stephanie Anderson,2024-12-15 Women in Independent Publishing is a collection of interviews with and resources about women actively engaged in small press publishing between the 1950s and the 1980s The interviewees include Hettie Jones Margaret Randall Bernadette Mayer and many others The scope and range of the interviews showcase a variety of types of publishing possible within the small press community These interviews illuminate the unifying and diverging elements between multiple publishing scenes and reveal their particularities and commonalities Women in Independent Publishing is a timely and urgent documentation of literary history and reveals and celebrates the multifaceted roles of women editors and publishers and the communities they built The book includes a critical introduction an afterword by contemporary small press publisher M C Hyland and a robust resources section that provides further paths for reading and literary recovery Leaving Lines of Gender Ann Vickery, 2000 The most significant contribution to the literary history of Language writing to date The Only Poetry That Matters Clint Burnham, 2012-05-15 A thought provoking history of the internationally renowned language poetry group the Kootenay School of Writing New Serial Titles, 1992 The Filled Pen P.K. Page, 2007-12-15 P K Page is best known as one of Canada's finest poets but over the course of her career she has also written a number of essays meditations on her life and work on the nature of art and the imagination and on Canadian works of literature painting and film that have had special significance for her As lovers of her poetry would hope and expect these essays are beautiful intelligent moving and delightfully quirky The Filled Pen brings together the most important of these essays including two previously unpublished A Writer's Life and Fairy Tales Folk Tales The Language of the Imagination Zailig Pollock Page scholar and professor of English at Trent University has edited and annotated this collection for admirers of Page's work general readers and academics alike The essays which cover a period of approximately forty years reflect Page's enduring concerns as a verbal and visual artist with the power of art and the imagination to transcend the barriers that limit our perceptions of the world and our sympathies with our fellow human beings Page is more interested in posing questions than imposing answers and fascinated as she is by a wide range of ideas from ancient mysticism to modern neurophysiology it is images endlessly evocative and suggestive that matter to her most Her comments on A M Klein from A Sense of Angels one of the most moving and perceptive tributes by one poet to another apply very much to the P K Page we see in The Filled Pen For all his interest in the immediate world for all his acceptance of ideological and psychological theory he seemed to reach beyond both to a larger reality Public Poetics Bart Vautour, Erin Wunker, Travis V. Mason, Christl Verduyn, 2015-06-08 Public Poetics is a collection of essays and poems that address some of the most pressing issues of the discipline in the twenty first century The collection brings together fifteen original essays addressing public poetry and poetics from the situated space of Canada while simultaneously troubling the notion of the nation as a stable term It asks hard questions about who and what count as publics in Canada Critical essays stand alongside poetry as visual and editorial reminders of the cross pollination required in thinking through both poetry and poetics Public Poetics is divided into three thematic sections The first contains essays surveying poetics in the present moment through the lens of the public private divide systematic racism in Canada the counterpublic feminist poetics and Canadian innovations on postmodern poetics The second section contains author specific studies of public poets The final section contains essays that use innovative renderings of poetics as a means of articulating alternative communities and practices Each section is paired with a collection of original poetry by ten contemporary Canadian poets This collection attends to the changing landscape of critical discourse around poetry and poetics in Canada and will be of use to teachers and students of poetry and poetics
