Rowland, 2008-04-15 This volume which fills a gap in the current literature will be essential reading for third year undergraduates and above in Biblical studies The Living Church, 1995-07 Bodies of Peace Myles Werntz, 2014 Bodies of Peace argues that Christian nonviolence is both formed by and forms ecclesial life creating an inextricable relationship between church commitment and resistance to war In this volume Myles Werntz examines the work of John Howard Yoder Dorothy Day William Stringfellow and Robert McAfee Brown demonstrating how each thinker's advocacy for nonviolent resistance depends deeply upon the ecclesiology out of which it comes The volume argues that any account of an ecclesially informed resistance to war must be open to a multitude of approaches not as pragmatic concessions but as a foretaste of ecumenical unity Privilege and Prophecy Robert Tobin, Robert Benjamin Tobin, 2022 The Episcopal Church has long been regarded as the religion of choice among America's ruling elite Yet after World War II a new generation of leaders emerged eager to shake off the church's reputation as a bastion of privilege and transform it into an agent of social reform Taking an active part in the civil rights and anti war movements of the 1960s these leaders struggled to draw the church's membership into their vision of change Despite their shortcomings these activist leaders played a pivotal role in the evolution of Episcopalianism from establishment church into a more diverse and inclusive denomination Crashing the Idols Will D. Campbell, Richard C. Goode, 2010-04-01 If prophets are called to unveil and expose the illegitimacy of those principalities masquerading as the right and purportedly using their powers for the good then Will D Campbell is one of the foremost prophets in American religious history Like Clarence Jordan and Dorothy Day Campbell incarnates the radical iconoclastic vocation of standing in contraposition to society naming and smashing the racial economic and political idols that seduce and delude Despite an action packed life Campbell is no activist seeking to control events and guarantee history's right outcomes Rather Campbell has committed his life to the proposition that Christ has already set things right Irrespective of who one is or what one has done each human being is reconciled to God and one another now and forever History's most scandalous message is therefore Be reconciled because once that imperative is taken seriously social constructs like race ethnicity gender and nationality are at best irrelevant and at worst idolatrous Proclaiming that far too many disciples miss the genius of Christianity's good news the kerygma of reconciliation this Ivy League educated preacher boldly and joyfully affirms society's so called least one cultivating community with everyone from civil rights leaders and Ku Klux Klan militants to the American literati and exiled convicts Except for maybe the self righteous none is excluded from the beloved community For the first time in nearly fifty years Campbell's provocative Race and Renewal of the Church is here made available Gayraud Wilmore called Campbell's foundational work an unsettling reading experience but one that articulates an unwavering confidence in the victory which God can bring out of the weakness of the church Living With History Fredrica Harris Thompsett, 1999-01-25 Fredrica Harris Thompsett a scholar of the English Reformation introduces us to the role that history has played in creating and shaping the Episcopal Church as we know it today In giving us the broad lessons of Anglican history she explores in detail both the historian's task and Anglicanism's distinctive history from its roots in Scripture and the English language Bible and prayerbook to its seventeenth century flowering in poetry and prose and the different forms it has assumed in the American landscape from the time of the Revolution right through to the late 20th century Thompson begins by discussing the relationship between history tradition and change and goes on to outline ten key touchstones or milestones in Christian history that are of particular interest to Anglicans Since it is the historian's task to write the unwritten as well as the official story of the church chapter three is a history of ministry in the church especially of lay ministry Chapter four looks at three ways that Anglicans have handled conflict and controversy throughout its history concentrating on the Elizabethan Settlement the American Civil War and the impact of Darwin and the new science Chapter five discusses how theological insight can be recycled to shed new light on the problems of today focusing on Anglican theology of creation and how it helps us address ecology as a spiritual crisis Finally chapter six focuses on how a living historical tradition affects the life and mission of the church today and how we are a part of that history
