Raf Fighters Part One 1:

A Spitfire's Story Dilip Sarkar MBE FRHistS FRAeS, 2025-12-31 Public affection for the iconic Spitfire endures indeed if anything it increases as more of these incredible aircraft are restored to airworthy condition The Spitfire story however is one of people designers engineers pilots groundcrew and more whose lives were touched in some way by this extraordinary machine and such stories are the inspiration for this book Spitfire Mk IA R6644 was built by Supermarine at Woolston and test flown by the famous test pilot Jeffrey Quill on 30 May 1940 Thereafter the aircraft was taken on charge by 5 Operational Training Unit at Aston Down While there it was flown by a number of The Few new replacement pilots converting to type It is likely for example that R6644 was flown by Pilot Officer Richard Hillary who shot down and badly burned became a member of the Guinea Pig Club In his classic memoir The Last Enemy Hillary described how 5 OTU's young pilots would fly beneath the arches of the great railway bridge spanning the Severn estuary This inspired the famous scene in the 1980s TV series Piece of Cake when Ray Hanna flew Spitfire MH434 beneath a bridge for the cameras Amongst the other pilots known to have flown R6644 at Aston Down are at least two aces On 26 February 1941 R6644 was handed on to 65 Squadron One of the latter's pilots who flew in R6644 was the great ace Flying Officer Brendan Paddy Finucane DFC In April R6644 was taken on charge by the recently formed 308 Polish Squadron On 11 May 1941 Pilot Officer Franciszek Surma was flying R6644 to investigate an unidentified radar plot which transpired to be a friendly Blenheim but was forced to abandon the Spitfire near Malvern Worcestershire owing to an engine fire Surma again one of The Few descended safely by parachute he was reported missing off Dunkirk during Circus 110 on 8 November 1941 This book not only explores the men who flew R6674 throughout its wartime service but also brings the story up to date by detailing the excavation of the Spitfire's crash site in 1987

Day Fighters in Defence of the Reich Donald Caldwell, 2012-02-27 A day by day account of Nazi air operations in WWII by the coauthor of The Luftwaffe over Germany winner of an Air Force Historical Foundation Award Day Fighters in Defence of the Reich is a detailed comprehensive daily reference to the air operations flown by the Luftwaffe During the Second World War German air defenses struggled to cope with the threat posed by the American 8th and 15th Air Forces which were charged with destroying Germany's critical war industries and wresting control of the air over the Reich from the Luftwaffe This unique volume includes a brief narrative and a table of statistics detailing every mission of every Luftwaffe unit defending the Greater German Reich or the western occupied zone against strategic raids by the USAAF tables of monthly sorties losses and victory claims by the USAAF and the Luftwaffe over the Reich and the western occupied zone and combat accounts by Luftwaffe pilots This tremendous piece of work is based on documents in the German American and British government archives and German pilot logbooks and interviews from the author's extensive collection Aeroplane Magazine Caldwell is well known for his balanced presentations and the clarity of his writing This book is a must have for anyone with a serious interest in World War II aviation history Highly recommended and quite likely to be remembered as one of the most important new books of the year Stone Stone Such a staggering quantity of information would be overwhelming in less capable hands But Caldwell spices up his tight narrative with excellent photos and informative captions

Aviation History Hurricane John Dibbs, Tony Holmes, Gordon Riley, 2017-05-18 2017 marks the 80th anniversary of the remarkable Hawker Hurricane formally entering service The RAF's first monoplane fighter it dragged the Air Force into a position where it could defend Britain in her hour of need The true workhorse of the RAF the Hurricane came into its own in the hot summer months of 1940 valiantly defending the skies above Britain Outnumbering Spitfires three to one the Hurricane also downed far more enemy aircraft Without the obvious elegance of the Me 109 or the Spitfire the Hurricane was nonetheless beloved by its pilots for its ability to simultaneously take a battering and inflict serious damage from its remarkably stable gun platform This stunning book reveals the Hurricane in all its glory from fascinating first hand accounts from the men who flew her to the truly breath taking images from John Dibbs of the Hurricanes still in flight today This lavishly illustrated edition is a must have for all fans of aviation history Air Pictorial ,2002 Reports and Memoranda ,1923 Beginning with no 650 each hundredth number contains a list of the Reports and memoranda published since the last list Flight ,1929 The Secret Battle For Britain M. S. Morgan, M S Morgan, 2025-12-31 The dramatic story of Franz von Werra famously the only Axis PoW to succeed in escaping and make it home during the Second World War is told in the 1957 movie The One That Got Away The film details von Werra's interrogation by RAF intelligence in 1940 presenting an enlightening but compressed version of his treatment following his capture in the Battle of Britain The script revealed a little of the tactics of his RAF interrogators which so impressed von Werra that he was quick to tell the Luftwaffe High Command upon his return to Germany in 1941 Of course von Werra was just one of many Luftwaffe airmen captured during 1939 and 1940 Many if not all were subject to processing and interrogation having been taken prisoner Information was gleaned through private discussions between senior officers and some lower ranks obtained via covert microphones as well as interrogation stool pigeons However these tactics had been developed in the first months of the war and with the Battle of Britain producing vast quantities of PoWs the new tactics were honed on these unsuspecting guinea pigs The German airmen most of whom at this stage of the war believed that victory was inevitable provided Air Intelligence both wittingly and unwittingly with a treasure trove of information which covered not only technical and tactical intelligence but also possible war crimes morale and more Air Intelligence used tactics that any modern interrogator would recognise The RAF also built up quite a library of information much of it coming from what we now call Open source material This included newspapers magazines radio broadcasts and information from previous prisoners Carefully collated and analysed in time Air Intelligence built up a detailed picture of pilots aircraft units and the general social situation around a unit or airfield community This book examines the development of Air Intelligence and its interrogation of Luftwaffe airmen from 1939 to the end of the 1940 providing a fascinating insight into a little known part of both the Battle of Britain and the Blitz A Forgotten Offensive Christina J.M. Goulter, 2014-01-14 The forgotten offensive of the title is RAF Coastal Command's offensive against German sea trade between 1940 and 1945. The fortunes of the campaign are followed throughout the war and its success is then evaluated in terms of the shipping sunk and the impact on the German economy.
