Aboriginal Religions in Australia Françoise Dussart, Howard Morphy, 2017-09-08 Over the last 25 years there has been an explosion of interest in the Aboriginal religions of Australia and this anthology provides a variety of recent writings by a wide range of scholars Australian Aboriginal Religions are probably the oldest extant religious systems Over some 50 000 years they have coped with change and re invented themselves in an astonishingly creative way The Dreaming the mythical time when the Ancestor Spirits shaped the territories of the Aborigines and laid down a moral and ritual law for their occupants is the fundamental religious reality It is the basis of the Aborigines s view of their land or country kinship relationships ritual and art However the Dreaming is not a static principle since it is interpreted in different ways as in the extraordinary movement in contemporary indigenous painting and in attempts at an accommodation with Christianity The contributions of anthropologists cultural historians philosophers of religion and others are included in this anthology which not only guides readers through the literature but also ensures this still largely inaccessible material is available to a wider range of readers and non specialist students and academics Crosscurrents in Australian First Nations and

Non-Indigenous Art Sarah Scott, Helen McDonald, Caroline Jordan, 2023-08-11 This edited collection examines art resulting from cross cultural interactions between Australian First Nations and non Indigenous people from the British invasion to today Focusing on themes of collaboration and dialogue the book includes two conversations between First Nations and non Indigenous authors and an historian s self reflexive account of mediating between traditional owners and an international art auction house to repatriate art There are studies of reverse appropriation by early nineteenth century Aboriginal carvers of tourist artefacts and the production of enigmatic toa Cross cultural dialogue is traced from the post war period to Aboriginalism in design and the First Nations fashion industry of today Transculturation conceptualism and collaboration are contextualised in the 1980s a pivotal decade for the growth of collaborative First Nations exhibitions Within the current circumstances of political protest in photographic portraiture and against the mining of sacred Aboriginal land Crosscurrents in Australian First Nations and Non Indigenous Art testifies to the need for Australian institutions to collaborate with First Nations people more often and better This book will appeal to students and scholars of art history Indigenous anthropology and museum and heritage studies Indigenous Archives Darren Jorgensen, Ian McLean, 2017 The archive is a source of power It takes control of the past deciding which voices will be heard and which won t how they will be heard and for what purposes Indigenous archivists were at work well before the European Enlightenment arrived and began its own archiving

Sometimes at odds other times not these two ways of ordering the world have each learned from and engaged with the other Colonialism has been a struggle over archives and its processes as much as anything else The eighteen essays by twenty authors investigate different aspects of this struggle in Australia from traditional Indigenous archives and their developments in recent times to the deconstruction of European archives by contemporary artists as acts of cultural empowerment It also examines the use of archives developed for other reasons such as the use of rainfall records to interpret early Papunya paintings Indigenous Archives is the first overview of archival research in the production and understanding of Indigenous culture Wide ranging in its scope it reveals the lively state of research into Indigenous histories and culture in Australia
