Simon Okumba Miruka

Rain God:

Consuto and the Rain God Philip L. Levin, 2008-05 In this delightful Chinese fairy tale an old soothsayer matches wits with a dragon rain god The dragon's envy becomes his downfall as Consuto's patience and wisdom win the love of the people Children and adults will delight in the fable's clever ideas and imagery Illustrated by photos taken by the author and a friend on their journeys through China the pictures reflect on the merging of past and present characteristic of today's China

Olmec Art at Dumbarton Oaks Karl A. Taube, Dumbarton Oaks, 2004 Olmec Art at Dumbarton Oaks presents the Olmec portion of the Robert Woods Bliss Collection of Pre-Columbian Art It illustrates all thirty-nine Olmec art objects in color plates and includes many complementary and comparative black and white illustrations and drawings The body of Pre-Columbian art that Robert Bliss carefully assembled over a half century between 1912 and 1963 amplified only slightly since his death is a remarkably significant collection In addition to their aesthetic quality and artistic significance the objects hold much information regarding the social worlds and religious and symbolic views of the people who made and used them before the arrival of Europeans in the New World This volume is the second in a series of catalogues that will treat objects in the Bliss Pre-Columbian Collection The majority of the Olmec objects in the collection are made of jade the most precious material for the peoples of ancient Mesoamerica from early times through the sixteenth century Various items such as masks statuettes jewelry and replicas of weapons and tools were used for ceremonial purposes and served as offerings Karl Taube brings his expertise on the lifeways and beliefs of ancient Mesoamerican peoples to his study of the Olmec objects in the Bliss collection His understanding of jade covers a broad range of knowledge from chemical compositions to geological sources to craft technology to the symbolic power of the green stone Throughout the book the author emphasizes the role of jade as a powerful symbol of water fertility and particularly of the maize plant which was the fundamental source of life and sustenance for the Olmec The shiny green of the stone was analogous to the green growth of maize This fundamental concept was elaborated in specific religious beliefs many of which were continued and elaborated by later Mesoamerican peoples such as the Maya Karl Taube employs his substantial knowledge of Pre-Columbian cultures to explore and explicate Olmec symbolism in this catalogue

The House of Prayer Emmanuel Lane, 2010-03-31 Prayer is a communication between God and man this means that just when you meet together in a room praying the room turns from being a normal place to being a House for God God enthrones as King of the meeting Hallelujah God's desire is to head His house no matter how small you see it Don't look down on the ministry you are doing whether in the church or at home or elsewhere Wherever you meet to call on the name of the Lord is your house of prayer You can look through church history till today and it will amaze you that most ministries started with two or three people whether family members or co-workers or just friends This is because they met as just friends or family but with God as the owner of the house
