Blasphemous Art? Adriaan van Klinken, Nella van den Brandt, Mariecke van den Berg, 2024-10-31 This book explores the critical and transformative potential of arts and popular culture for constructions of religion gender and sexuality Doing so it deploys and develops the notion of blasphemous art honouring and building on the work of Anne Marie Korte Deliberately articulated with a question mark Blasphemous Art raises questions about the spaces methods and resources available to individuals and communities at the gendered sexual and racialized margins of society to tell their stories claim their bodies and perform symbolic and sacred meaning and it analyses the productive effects both aesthetically politically and theoretically of such provocative work The book focuses on a wide range of artistic and cultural expressions featuring case studies from across Europe South Africa Israel and the United States Drawing on feminist queer and postcolonial perspectives the book reveals the critical constructive and imaginative potential of the creative arts broadly defined and popular culture in its complex and diverse representation of and engagement with religious life belief text ritual and practice

Kenyan, Christian, Queer Adriaan van Klinken, 2019-07-24 Popular narratives cite religion as the driving force behind homophobia in Africa portraying Christianity and LGBT expression as incompatible Without denying Christianity s contribution to the stigma discrimination and exclusion of same sex attracted and gender variant people on the continent Adriaan van Klinken presents an alternative narrative

foregrounding the ways in which religion also appears as a critical site of LGBT activism Taking up the notion of arts of resistance Kenyan Christian Queer presents four case studies of grassroots LGBT activism through artistic and creative expressions including the literary and cultural work of Binyavanga Wainaina the Same Love music video produced by gay gospel musician George Barasa the Stories of Our Lives anthology project and the LGBT affirming Cosmopolitan Affirming Church Through these case studies Van Klinken demonstrates how Kenyan traditions black African identities and Christian beliefs and practices are being navigated appropriated and transformed in order to allow for queer Kenyan Christian imaginations Transdisciplinary in scope and poignantly intimate in tone Kenyan Christian Queer opens up critical avenues for rethinking the nature and future of the relationship between Christianity and queer activism in Kenya and elsewhere in Africa

Melting Pots & Rainbow Nations Jacklyn Cock, Alison R. Bernstein, 2002 This passionate intelligent commentary is an invigorating look at the implications of difference and diversity in two contrasting but similar societies the United States and South Africa Melting Pots and Rainbow Nations addresses how differences of gender race culture biology and sexual orientation are variously understood and acted on in both countries The authors argue that the concepts of difference and diversity although valuable are hollow if disconnected from specific social and historical contexts in which power relations create and perpetuate disadvantage Their thoughtful exploration includes accounts of their own experiences of difference and their perspectives on such pioneering women as Elizabeth Bishop Frene Ginwala Audre Lorde Ruth First Jane Goodall and Mamphela Ramphele
