Baltimore's Halcyon Days Brooke Gunning, Molly O'Donovan, 2000 Baltimore's Halcyon Days chronicles Baltimore's social elite their homes and their lifestyle from the dawn of the Republic to the demise of the fingerbowl Long and widely renowned as an enclave of good taste and culture Baltimore has from its inception offered a good life to those who could afford it From hunt cups to hatpins and terrapins to tophats Baltimoreans were connoisseurs of the best When life was their oyster they knew the best way to have it served Worcester Through Time Ray Jones, 2009-11-15 The fascinating history of Worcester illustrated through old and modern pictures Littlebury's Guide to Worcester and Its Neighbourhood Littlebury and Company, Worcester, Eng, 1883 Religion in the Primary School Peter Hemming, 2015-02-20 Religion and its relationship to schooling is an issue that has become more and more topical in recent years In many countries developments such as the diversification of state school sectors concerns about social cohesion between ethnic and religious groups and debates about national identity and values have raised old and new questions about the role of religion in education Whilst the significance of this issue has been reflected in renewed interest from the academic community much of this work has continued to be based around theoretical or pedagogical debates and stances rather than evidence based empirical research This book aims to address this gap by exploring the social and political role of religion in the context of the primary school Drawing on original ethnographic research with a child centred orientation comparisons are drawn between Community and Roman Catholic primary schools situated within a multi faith urban area in the UK In doing so the study explores a number of ways in which religion has the potential to contribute to everyday school life including through school ethos and values inter pupil relations community cohesion and social identity and difference At the centre of the analysis are two key sociological debates about the significance of religion in late modern societies The first is concerned with the place of religion in public life and the influence of secularisation and post secularism on the relationship between religion and schooling The second relates to the increasingly multi faith nature of many national populations and the implications for religious citizenship in educational settings Religion in the Primary School will be a useful resource for academics researchers and students as a key addition to existing knowledge in the disciplines of education sociology and human geography It will also be of value to both policy makers and educationalists interested in the role of religion in schools and the implications for the wider community and society in a range of national contexts School Daze Lucia Jones, 2010-11 Warning But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea Matthew 8 6 KJV Take heed all of you unbelieving miscreants in the public school system bent on programming kids for the deceitful New World Order That warning is from the King of kings School Daze is written with a satirical bite and is tempered with comic relief Its author Lucia Jones a teacher in the public school system gives an up close and personal look at the biggest issues plaguing the System today Among these issues are school zoning that forces

students to move schools and sometimes neighborhoods often a lax teaching curriculum incompetent school officials sex education starting in kindergarten ditching the basics and the 3 Rs for cuddly feely programs loaded with political correctness and the two faces of multiculturalism Christian values no longer play a role in public schools Some public schools have taken God out of the Pledge of Allegiance and have even gone so far as pledging allegiance to the Earth Prayer is not allowed and the Ten Commandments are no longer displayed Christmas parties are now winter holiday parties Even the treats for these parties are at the mercy of the System no more candy and ice cream but tofu smoothies and yogurt cups Lucia Jones is a devout Christian mother of four grandmother of eleven and a veteran elementary school teacher in the public school system of twenty five plus years She has spent eighteen of those years teaching at a small public elementary school on an Indian reservation Lucia lives in Northern Nevada with her husband Tom
