Robin Knox-Johnston's History of Yachting Robin Knox-Johnston,1990 Knox-Johnston on Seamanship & Seafaring

Robin Knox-Johnston,2018-06-12 On 14th June 1968 Robin Knox Johnston set sail from Falmouth to take part in the Sunday Times Golden Globe Race the first non stop single handed sailing race around the world He was an unknown 29 year old Merchant Navy Officer Ten and a half months later he sailed back into Falmouth the only finisher in the race and the first man to complete a non stop solo circumnavigation Since then he has had an illustrious sailing career with 3 further circumnavigations including the fastest circumnavigation and last racing solo round the world in 2007 aged 68 Few people have sailed as many miles as Robin Now 50 years since setting out in the Golden Globe Race you can benefit from Robin s wealth of experience as he shares his thoughts on seamanship and seafaring in this new book selected from his most provoking insightful and perceptive writing from the pages of Yachting World magazine The first half of the book concentrates on seamanship and looks at the skills and gear required The second half allows Robin to reminisce on memorable boats races and places he has experienced in his last 50 years of seafaring The book starts with an original piece by Robin reflecting on the last 50 years In his Foreword round the world yachtsman Alex Thomson says of the first half on seamanship Anyone who ventures to sea would be wise to take advantage of the seamanship lessons that Robin has learnt Of the second half on seafaring he describes the pieces as a joy to read and says that they remind us that sailing is primarily a fun activity to be enjoyed Force of Nature Robin Knox-Johnston,2008-09-25 In January 1969 aboard his home built wooden boat Suhaili Sir Robin Knox Johnston became the first person every to sail solo non stop around the world 25 years later Sir Robin again completed a record breaking circumnavigation co skippering Enza with Kiwi yachting legend Sir Peter Blake His place in sailing s pantheon of greats was assured Then after the tragic death of his wife Sue Sir Robin decided he would try again in October 2006 at the age of 67 when most people are settling in to a well earned retirement Sir Robin embarked on another gruelling single handed race around the world Compared to his rivals he lacked recent experience and a large shore based support team There were some who believed that this time he might have bitten off more than he could chew Then early on it looked like their worst fears might be realised Within days of setting off near Hurricane strength storms in the Bay of Biscay capsized his 60 yacht Saga Insurance But it wasn t just Sir Robin who suffered Three quarters of the entire fleet had to run for shelter When they re emerged all faced months of hardship and intensity ahead Force of Nature is Sir Robin s first hand account his extraordinary return to the ultra competitive punishing world of single handed offshore racing It turned out to be a very different journey to the one he undertook about Suhaili yet his experience aboard her remains a touchstone throughout this story It s a story of courage ingenuity and resilience played out against the World s oceans But most of all it s a powerful reminder that age is nothing but a number no barrier to realizing one s dreams A History of Sailing in 100 Objects Barry Pickthall,2016-08-25 Did you ever wonder which civilisation first took to water in small craft Who worked out how to measure distance or plot a course at sea Or why the humble lemon rose to such prominence in the diets of sailors Taking one hundred objects that have been pivotal in the development of sailing and sailing boats the book provides a fascinating insight into the history of sailing From the earliest small boats through magnificent Viking warships to the technology that powers some of the most sophisticated modern yachts the book also covers key developments such as keeps and navigational aids such as the astrolabe sextant and compass Other more apparently esoteric objects from all around the world are also included including the importance of citrus fruit in the prevention of scurvy scrimshaw made from whalebone and the meaning of sailor s tattoos Beautifully illustrated with lively and insightful text it s a perfect gift for the real or armchair sailor the book gives an alternative insight into how and why we sail the way we do today

Sailing History Amelia Khatri,2025-01-05 Sailing History presents a fascinating journey through humanity s relationship with maritime navigation exploring how sailing evolved from basic rafts to sophisticated racing vessels while profoundly shaping global civilization The book masterfully weaves together three crucial narratives the technical evolution of sailing vessels sailing s role in economic development and its transformation from a survival necessity to a competitive sport Through meticulous research incorporating archaeological findings historical documents and maritime records readers gain unprecedented insights into how different cultures independently developed their sailing technologies The chronological progression takes readers from ancient Polynesian and Mediterranean seafaring cultures through the age of Viking longships and Chinese junks to modern Olympic sailing competitions Particularly intriguing are the detailed examinations of how various vessel designs reflected their cultural contexts and how weather pattern understanding revolutionized navigation methods The book s exploration of underwater archaeological discoveries reveals previously unknown aspects of historical sailing practices adding fresh perspective to our understanding of maritime history Drawing from naval architectural records and shipping manuscripts the work skillfully bridges the gap between academic research and practical application making complex concepts accessible to both maritime historians and sailing enthusiasts The book s unique value lies in its comprehensive approach to connecting past and present demonstrating how ancient sailing wisdom continues to influence modern maritime practices from competitive sailing to sustainable transportation solutions This thorough examination of sailing s evolution provides readers with a deep appreciation for how maritime technology has shaped our world

Running Free Robin Knox-Johnston,2019-10-17 Sir Robin Knox Johnston burst to fame when he became the first man ever to complete a single handed non stop circumnavigation of the world Now 50 years on from that famous voyage he reveals the true extraordinary story of his life After leaving school he immediately joined the Royal Naval Reserve before serving in the merchant navy and travelling the world During that time he spied for the British government in the Gulf worked in the South African dockyards and built his boat Suhaili in Bombay before sailing home to England In June 1968 he set sail in Suhaili in the Sunday Times Golden Globe Race and Running Free vividly brings to life that remarkable voyage where he was the only person to finish the race completing his journey on 22 April 1969 and thus entering the record books Once back home he set up a hugely successful business and continued his naval adventures completing a second solo circumnavigation of the globe in 2007 at 68 he became the oldest to complete this feat Knox Johnston s insatiable appetite for life and adventure shines through these pages making this book a must for all sailing enthusiasts readers of books by Ranulph Fiennes and Chris Bonington or for anyone who has felt that the time for putting up your feet can always be put back to another day

Maritime Fiction J. Peck,2001-03-08 In this important new study John Peck examines the cultural significance of maritime novels from Defoe through to Conrad Focusing in particular on the image of the body he illustrates how these works are built around the disparity between the masculine and often brutal regime of the ship and the civilised values of those who remain on the shore The first comprehensive discussion of its subject Maritime Fiction is an original exploration of the relationship between national identity fiction and the sea Yachting ,1994-06 Cruising World ,1988-07 How to Climb Mt. Blanc in a Skirt Mick Conefrey,2024-05-01 Which explorer found the lost site of Jesus first miracle Who was first to the top of the highest mountain in Peru Who was the first Westerner to visit the Ottoman harem in Constantinople Who held the world record as the only person to fly from Britain to Australia for 44 years You ll find the answers to these questions and more in Mick Conefrey s charming new book a hint none of them had beards In 1870 New York mountaineer Meta Brevoort climbed Mt Blanc in a hoop skirt Pausing at the summit only long enough to drink a glass of champagne and dance the quadrille with her alpine guides she marched back down the mountain and into history as one of the first female mountain explorers Here Mick Conefrey weaves together tips how tos anecdotes and eccentric lists to tell the amazing stories of history s great female explorers women who were just as fascinating and inspiring as all the Shackletons Mallorays and Livingstones Most were brave some were reckless and all were fascinating From Fanny Bullock Workman who was photographed on top of a mountain pass in the Karakoram holding up a banner calling for Votes for Women to Mary Hall the Victorian world traveler whose motto was take every precaution and abandon all fear How to Climb Mt Blanc in a Skirt is uproariously funny and occasionally downright strange Picturepedia DK,2020-10-13 Science and technology nature geography culture sports and hobbies and history all combine in this mind blowing visual encyclopedia From incredible insects and musical instruments to spacecraft and prehistoric life and from art and earthquakes to American football and dogs Picturepedia gives you a world of information on every page Did you know that more than half of the human body s weight is water and that a koi carp can live for more than 200 years Or how about there being more than 20 000 islands in the Pacific Ocean or that Turkey eats the most bread with each person getting through 104 6 kg 230 5 lb of it per year First published in 2015 Picturepedia has been revamped into a more thrilling edition that will take you on a visual odyssey This brilliant book is crammed with stunning photographs gripping information and explanatory diagrams that allow for fascinating discoveries New and updated and jam packed with thousands of pictures and fascinating facts about science nature culture sports and history Picturepedia is the ultimate visual encyclopedia Sailing the Dream Mike Perham,2011 Three thousand people have climbed Everest four hundred and fifty have traveled into space Only two hundred fifty have sailed round the world alone The youngest of these was a teenager When he set out on his attempt Mike Perham was just sixteen years old At first his mother was against the whole thing The experts said it could be suicidal The head of Britain s venerable Royal Yachting Association told him not to go Mike Perham persevered and in August 2009 at the age of just 17 years 5 months and 11 days became the youngest person to have sailed solo around the world Sailing the Dream tells the story of that amazing voyage a nine month odyssey full of technical and navigational challenges that would stump sailors twice Mike s age His yacht was knocked over battered by waves and repeatedly damaged but Mike battled on at times surfing down 50 foot waves in 50 knot winds at speeds of up to 28 knots Despite these conditions and suffering from sleep deprivation and extreme physical exhaustion Mike maintained a positive attitude His cheerful resilience continually shines through as he describes his adventures and also talks about the team behind his trips both when sailing round the world and in his earlier journey across the Atlantic at the age of fourteen and the stresses and sacrifices involved for his family and friends Mike s achievement is placed in even sharper relief by another young sailor s more recent failed attempt at solo circumnavigation that nearly ended in tragedy Sailing the Dream is an inspirational as well as thrilling story and one for all ages Exploiting the Sea David John Starkey,Alan G. Jamieson,1998 Exploiting the Sea offers new perspectives on Britain s vital but changing relationship with the sea since the late 19th century Contributions from a number of experts are brought together to provide analysis on this subject Sea Change Peter Nichols,2018-08-02 Sea Change is Peter Nichols first book a biographical account of his own dramatic adventure When his marriage ended Nichols had to sell the only thing he and his wife owned their boat With only his sextant his instincts as a seasoned sailor and his memories of a floundering marriage he sets out from England to sail to America to sell his beloved boat Toad Halfway across the Atlantic Toad springs a leak As the sea floods in faster Nichols tries everything to stay afloat desperately pumping the water out by hand He loses the battle after three days and is forced to abandon Toad This is more than a sea tale It is the painful story of his marriage his boat and himself Sailing Alone Richard J. King,2024-05-21 2024 National Outdoor Book Award Silver Medal Winner A masterfully curated collection You don t have to be a sailor to be blown away by this fascinating bighearted book Nathaniel Philbrick author of In the Heart of the Sea Travels with George and Second Wind A story as vast and exhilarating as the open ocean itself SAILING ALONE chronicles the daring disastrous and often absurd history of those who chose to sail across the ocean in very small boats alone Sailing by yourself out of sight of land can be invigorating and terrifying compelling and tedious and sometimes all of the above in one morning But it is also a wide expanse of time in which to think Sailing Alone tells the story of some of the remarkable people who over the last four centuries have spent weeks and months moving slowly over the world's largest laboratory a capricious and startling place in which to observe oneself the weather the stars and countless sea creatures from the tiniest to the most massive and threatening Richard J King profiles characters famous diverse international and obscure from Joshua Slocum of 1898 to modern teenagers daring to take the challenge They see strange hallucinations lie to us and themselves on their travel logs encounter sharks befriend birds and experience ESP all part of the unnerving reality of extended isolation And some disappear altogether Sailing Alone also recounts the author's own nearly catastrophic solo crossing of the Atlantic and the mystery of his inexplicable survival one sunny afternoon An enormously engaging new book for skippers and armchair voyagers alike Tall Ships Today Nigel Rowe, 2014-07-03 Tall ships epitomize the glamour majesty and romance of the sea This book supported and endorsed by Sail Training International is a celebration of tall ships today shining a spotlight on the world's most interesting and glamorous tall ships the most spectacular regattas races and adventurous passages and the huge array of people who sail on them With gorgeous photography and absorbing text the book is divided into four chapters 1 Origins and Evolution telling the story of tall ships giving a fascinating perspective on the impact of the development of international trade conflict design technology and navigation 2 Tall Ships Today celebrating the diversity of over 100 of the most interesting and famous tall ships in the world with beautiful photography key statistics and brief text on their histories 3 The Tall Ships Experience following life on board and exploring how being part of the crew develops life leadership and employability skills 4 Racing Regattas and Passages with at sea and in port photography featuring the most spectacular assemblies of sail that bring tall ships to the attention of millions worldwide With unique access to the very best photography and up to date information this stunning book showcases just why tall ships continue to inspire and captivate people all over the world Includes a Preface from HRH The Duke of Edinburgh and a Foreword from Sir Robin Knox Johnston Going Places Robert Burgin, 2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read-alikes with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader's Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read-alikes and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award-winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing
