Jakes Mary Ellen Jones, 1996-11-01 John Jakes often called the people s author and godfather of the historical novel has made

American history come to life in his series The Kent Family Chronicles and The North and South Trilogy. Through these novels Jakes conveys the sweep of American history both its glory and its grim scenes from the American Revolution to the opening moments of the 20th century. Never glossing over the nation's flaws—slavery, materialism, a double-edged Manifest Destiny—Jakes nevertheless affirms American values. This is the first full-length critical study of his work. It examines in detail Jakes' 13 major novels to date and assesses his methods as America's history teacher. In Part I, following a chapter on Jakes' life, Jones examines the early novels and Jakes' use of the genres of historical fiction, the western, and the historical family saga. Part II, The Kent Family Chronicles, devotes an individual chapter to each of the novels in this series: The Bastard, The Rebels, The Seekers, The Furies, The Titans, The Warriors, The Lawless, and The Americans. Part III, New Beginnings, features chapters on North and South, Love and War, and Heaven and Hell, and chapters on California Gold and Homeland. The examination of each novel in this study includes sections on plot development, character development, and thematic issues. Jones also offers an alternative critical perspective from which to read each novel, such as feminist literary criticism, New Historicism, Marxist criticism, and Deconstructionism, that gives the reader an alternative viewpoint from which to consider the novel. A complete bibliography of all of John Jakes' work, works about John Jakes, and a listing of reviews of all the novels examined in the book concludes the study.

James Herriot Michael Rossi, 1997-01-28 This study examines James Herriot's five major books as carefully crafted volumes of autobiography based on the building block of the short story. In each of these works Herriot explores the fundamental choice of values underlying a happy and successful life. In his vision, the bonds of affection and mutual dependence between all creatures, human and animal, form an enduring theme that lies at the heart of the choices he makes in his personal and professional life. This study will help the reader to understand the relationship between Herriot's stories and each book as a whole, and to appreciate Herriot's work in the context of twentieth-century anxieties about identity and meaning. Following a biographical chapter that describes the relationship between Herriot's life and literary work, Rossi discusses the genre of autobiography, the relationship between truth and fiction in modern autobiography, and Herriot's use of the genre. A separate chapter is then devoted to each of Herriot's works in turn: All Creatures Great and Small, All Things Bright and Beautiful, All Things Wise and Wonderful, The Lord God Made Them All, and Every Living Thing. The discussion of each work includes sections on plot development and narrative structure, character development, thematic issues, and alternative critical approaches that may be fruitfully applied to the book. Helpful appendices contain identifications of minor characters in the works, a complete bibliography of all of James Herriot's works, critical sources, and a listing of reviews of all of his works. This volume completes the study. Because of the popularity of Herriot's work among adults and young adults, this companion will be a key purchase for school and public libraries.

Sodhi, Dr. Prakash Chand Kandpal, Isha, Sisay Assemrie Temesgen, 2019-04-28 This issue of SOCRATES has been divided into three sections. The first section of this issue is English Literature. The paper authored by Jasmine Fernandez, Dr C Upendra and Dr Amarjeet Nayak explore the medical thriller Coma through a grotesque lens. This study provides us with the idea that grotesquery is employed as a template to translate meanings and interpretations of medical thrillers. Through multiple responses as elicited by the grotesque, these thrillers engage with readers differently and hence produce varied responses. The second section of this issue is Philosophy. The first paper of this section has been authored by Ghasemali Kouchnani and Nadia Maftouni explores the Semiotics of Love in Suhrawardi's Allegorical Philosophy. The paper concludes that the theme of Suhrawardi's stories is mystical love and the wayfarer loves God. This love is to be spiritual emotion rather than passionate love simply because on his way the seeker must overcome his own inner and outer senses. These perceptions are symbolized by ten towers, ten graves, ten flyers, ten wardens, five chambers and five gates. These are the allegories of perceptions i.e. the five internal and the five external senses could be seen in Treatise on Towers, A Tale of Occidental Exile, The Simurgh's Shri! Cry, The Red Intellect and On the Reality of Love. The second paper of this section has been authored by Alexandros Schismeros. The paper represents an opinion that as a chimera, time travel is non-feasible and impossible. To support his claim, the author briefly outlines the origins of the time travel concept and its epistemological and metaphysical ontological conditions. If these conditions prove to be absurd, the logical impossibility of time travel will have been demonstrated. The third section of this issue is Political Science. The first paper of this section has been authored by Dr Michelle L Blakely and Dr Curtis R Blakely. This paper represents the first application of the Game theory to the field of penology, conceptualizing the relationship between prisons and prisoners as a game, provides insight into the motivations, strategic behaviors and decision making processes of its players. The second paper of this section has been authored by Rotimi Adeforiti which tends to identify the factors responsible for the crises of integration in the Nigeria federal system. The paper concludes that the foundations of federalism were laid by the British consciously or unconsciously for the existence of Nigeria. The country subscribed to federal system of government and had been practicing it. The problem facing Nigeria federal system today among others is no longer amalgamation of the country but the interest of various elite or elite to be in the country. The third paper of this section has been authored by Gizachew Wondie Gifayehu which attempts to analyse the development and practice of citizenship and citizenship rights in Ethiopia. The fourth paper of this section has been authored by Prof Inderjeet Singh Sodhi. This paper deals with the current status of water management in India and its emerging issues and challenges. The fifth paper of this section has been authored by Dr Prakash Chand Kandpal. This paper focuses on the development of sustainable cities highlighting the actions and initiatives undertaken by the Government of Delhi to combat the menace of pollution in Delhi. The sixth paper of this section authored by Isha presents the concept of Public Private Partnership and also evaluates its progress in school education in India. The paper concludes that the introduction of the PPP model in school education in India could help in the achievement of desired results as the payments are made by the government against the services delivered through the private sector But there is a risk sharing between both government and private sector which is helpful for the delivery of public services in an efficient manner However PPP in the education sector has a long way to go as the schools approved under PPP model in some states of India like Assam Bihar Himachal Pradesh Meghalaya Mizoram Nagaland Odisha Tripura and West Bengal are still not functioning The seventh paper of this section has been authored by Sisay Assemrie Temesgen This paper analyzes the moral acceptability of violent force and retaliation at the individual and community level and in the arena of national and international politics Gore Vidal Susan C. Baker, Curtis S.

Gibson, 1997-02-25 Baker and Gibson show that while Vidal's novels are tremendously entertaining they are also serious examinations of a recurring theme the decline of the West in general and the decline of the United States in particular A Companion to Crime Fiction Charles J.
